IRISHMEN THANK BALFOUR.

To Develop Ireland's Resources-Will Construct Light Railways.

LONDON, July 10 .- In the house of commons yesterday in the course of a discussion on the Irish estimates Gerald Balfour. chief secretary for Ireland, after a fierce attack by Timothy Haley on the Irish board of works, made a statement as the manner in which the government pro posed to expend the half million pounds voted by parliament last year for the development of the resources of Ireland. "The scheme," said the chief secretary "proposer the construction of light railways through the congested districts of North Donegal and to open up, by means of steamboats and coaches, a new tourist route right HILLING AND ORE TESTING and coaches, a new tourist route right across the west of Ireland. A steamer service 100 miles up the Shannon will begin on August 1st, while other lines steam is and coaches will connect Killarney district with Connemara."

Then occurred a curious scene. tionalists, who had previously been abusing the government for its wanton disregard of Ireland, arose, one after the other, and effusively thanked Mr. Balfour for the broad and generous manner in which he had dealt with the problem, all admitting that he had done the best possible with the funds at his command.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 10.—John Gormier, o Quebec, reached Chicago yesterday and proceeded to purchase some clothing in a Clark street establishment. Upon arriving at the railway station to continue his journey west he opened the package and discovered that some old rags had been substituted for the clothes. He reported the was returned. About half an hour later the Frenchman appeared at the Harrison street police station in fresh trouble. He had just given fifty cents a piece for a collection of packages of soap, each package to contain a two-dollar bil The bills were found to be counterfeit and Gormier was very angry. The police were unable to locate the soap vendor, but instead they kept the Frenchman under surveillance as a protective measure unti the train left.
