Excursion From Syracuse.

Shortly after one o'clock to day the steamer Empire State steamed into port, having aboard 700 excursionists. The excursion was under the auspices of D. Mc-Carthy & Sons, retail dry goods merchants, Syracuse, N.Y. It is an annual affair with this firm to give its employees an outing, provision always being made for the friends of the employees to accompany them.

The steamer was gaily decorated, flags tasty case. and streamers fluttering from every position of advantage. Stationed on the bow of the steamer was Gaylor's famous Cen-Central New York.
