BATTERY'S AQUATIC SPORTS.

The Sports Were Skilfully Contested and Largely Attended-Batterymen Proved Themselves Fine Swimmers, Divers and Rowers-Final Event to be Decided To-

When the officers and men of "A" field battery, R.C.A., undertake a venture they invariably nake it a success. Their athletic ville. sports are always well contested and carefully planned and carried out, and in every case attract a large number of spectators from among the civilian friends of the

On Saturday last a well arranged programme of aquatic sports was carried out at the wharf in the barrack square, under the direction of a managing committee of officers, non-coms, and men, and in the presence of a large crowd of spectators, military and civilian, who witnessed the events with an interest that never flagged from start to finish. The Home Reading Union.

KINGSTON. August 16.—(To the Editor) Permit me to draw the attention of your readers to the home reading union, which it is desired to form several circles in this reading city of ours. The secretary in Canada is Mrs. Skelton, 233 Mansfield are in Cambridge, England, and the lead- Irim Up Your Garden. ing literary men write in the monthly magazine which each subscriber receives. There are three sections which a circle can choose, and a magazine connected with each section. A circle (five is the smallest number for a circle) gets a list of books line at right prices. and chooses which they will take, better than a brother afar off," and it saves it being cumbersome.
