Negroes Deserting Their Homes to Help-Wild Outburst of Religious Frenzy. MOUNTVILLE, S.C., August 27 .- A wild outburst of negro religious frenzy has taken place here, the chief purpose of which is to assist at the burial of the devil. Two months ago several negro revivalists began their work in a little church in the suburbs of the town and caused unbounded frenzy among their devotees. They started out by declaring that the Lord had decreed that the church should have a bell. The funds were collected and the bell was put in give the bell its opening test, and for six hours, in relief of one hour each, the ding dong was kept up.

Shortly after the ringing began several sisters pretended to discover in its Suspending the ringing for a time, the farms and homes have been neglected and the people are standing in groups about the building waiting for the appearance of the devil so that they may bury him.

Train Didn't Wait.

London, August 27 .- About 100 mem All bers of Fairbanks post G.A.R., en route to the Buffalo encampment, were buncoed out of 50c. apiece while on the train between Windsor and London yesterday. A fine appearing man, with smooth and per. sussive voice, sprang up from somewhere and offered tickets for sale for dinner, which, he said, would be served at London. The vets were very hungry and the mention of dinner was sufficient to cause many of them to dive into their pockets and proof them to dive into their pockets and produce the 50c. that was asked.

Every soldier who purchased a ticket worked up an enormous appetite before the train reached London, and when it finally did arrive there was a mighty scramble for the dining-room.
