Relieving Force Killed a Large Number of Orakzais.

WAS SENTENCED TO TRANSPOR-TATION FOR LIFE.

Sharp Conflict And Then Victory—The Fate of an Editor-British Should Assume the Offensive - The Ameer Thought Not to be Directly Concerned in Uprising-Bravery And Loyalty of Native Officers-Section of Khyber Rifles

Were Disarmed-Instigators Arrested. SIMLA, August 31.—The column under colonel Richardson and detached party, sent to relieve the police posts at Lakka and Saifaldara, found them hard pressed by Orakzais. A sharp conflict ensued between the relieving force and the rebels, resulting in the repulse of the latter with considerable loss. The posts were relieved and their garrisons withdrawn.

of the native newspaper, Mahram, published at Islalpore, has been sentenced to bar of British Columbia. and publisher of the paper, Harmolkar, has been transported for seven years. The sentences were imposed in consequence of the publication in the Mahram of a seditious article applauding the propaganda of committees in India and elsewhere in favor of independence.

London, August 31.—The correspondent of the Times at Simla says that no orders have yet been issued regarding the expedition to Tirara, though the actions of Orakzais show how imperative it is that the British forces should assume the offensive. The Orakzais, however, made no attempt to attack in force any point where the troops are likely to meet them. The wisdom of the occupation of the Samana range in 1891 is now demonstrated. But for that occupation the Miranzai valley would have been devastated.

Public opinion now generally inclines to the belief that the ameer is not directly concerned in the uprising. His decision to answer the government letter is proved by the fact that he sent a duplicate copy of his reply by way of Kandahar, so that it would be received by the government in the event of the Peshawur routes being closed. This duplicate has just reached New Chaman.

PESHAWUR, August 31.—It transpired that several of the native officers at Fort Lundi Kotal showed the utmost loyalty and valor when that post was attacked, One of them, who received a bullet wound in his shoulder, continued, despite his injury, to fight, and encouraged his men until the fort was captured. The subadar who conducted the defence of Fort Lundi Kotal was killed during the fighting. Among the attacking force were two of his sons, while another son fought by his side. The subadar who commanded the company when the enemy entered the fort, collected his men and gallantly cut his way through the ranks of the attackers. He lost several men, but reached the road to Jamrud without the loss of a single rifle.

It appears that only a small section of the Khyber rifles stationed at Jamrud were disarmed. They were on guard the night when the news of the fall of Fort Lundi Kotal was received, and the officers, fearing that some of them might desert with their rifles, disarmed them and placed other tribesmen on guard. The other Khyber rifles are still trusted.

The arrests at Quetta on August 24th of three Baluchastan Sirdars is considered most important step, as two of them, Mehrullsh and Yarmuhamed, were the instigators of recent raids in that quarter. Their arrests will prevent much trouble in Baluchastan. A majority of the Baluchastan chiefs have visited Quetta, and all declare that there is no further reason for enmity on the part of the government.

Reason For The Clause. AUBURN, Maine, August 31.-Senator Frye says that senator Chandler is mistaken regarding his statement that the tariff clause providing for a ten per cent. additional duty on foreign manufactured goods brought into the United States through Canada was passed by a legislative trick. Senator Frye, continuing, referred to the fact that all tariff laws for a great many years have contained a ten per cent. discriminating clause on dutiable goods. "The committee," says senator Frye, "recommended that this provision be amended so that the percentage be reduced, but did not name the reduction. Their purpose was simply to have the law in the best phesible condition whenever, if ever, the congress should, after full consideration, determine upon discriminating duties." In conclusion senator Frye said : "Of how this amendment was secured I know nothing, but that it was by a legislative trick, in the playing of which the conferees were participants with knowledge, I do not believe, nor do I believe that any senator other than Mr. Chandler harbors for a moment such a suspicion."

THAT ELECTRIC ROAD.

Ex-Mayor Inglehart Thinks the Scheme Feasible One.

Watertown, N.Y. Standard. Considerable interest is being taken in the electric railroad scheme. The idea of running the road from Thousand Island park, a distance of about seven miles, is thought to be an excellent one.
