Quietly about 400 men marched into the town. The jail was in charge of William Kenan. In front of the jail proper is the residence, and in that were acting jailer Robert Barnett, William

Block and Len. Wenzel, deputies. Shortly before two o'clock there was a knock at the door and when Kenan and others opened it they were confronted with pistols held by three masked men and into the jail. Three of the prisoners, Levi, Jenkins and Schultz, were on the lower floor, while Gordon and Andrews were in the upper tier. Levi, Jenkins and Schultz showed fight, and the former was shot through the breast, while the skulls of the others were crushed with a stool. Ropes were in readiness an adjusting a noose around the neck of each with several men at the end of each rope, the five prisoners were dragged a distance of 200 feet to an elm tree, where their bodies were suspended. It is said Levi, Jenkins and Schultz were dead before they reached the place. Justice of the peace Charles Loswell held an inquest over the five bodies next morning. None of the citizens seem to deplore the action of the mob, but on the contrary the hanging of three or four more members of the gang is being talked of, and it may be done. No troops have been asked for, and the citizens say they are not wanted.

Trip Planned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16 .- The long overdue steamer Excelsior, which left St. What Michael, Alaska, for this porb six weeks ago, arrived here this morning with sixtythree passengers and about $2,500,000 in gold. Of those who came down from Alaska all but two are known to have money but few were communicative enough to admit how much they had. F. Hayes, of Portland was conceded to have the largest individual amount, but upon being interviewed he would only admit having about $35,000. All unite in confirming the stories already told of the impending danger of famine at Dawson City during the coming winter. They say there are at least 7,000 people now in Dawson City and that more are swarming in every day, but that the provisions are already running short and the prospects of getting more are remote.
