Mr. Henry Cunningham, ex-President, compared the expenses and receipts of 1879 with those of 1880. Loss was covered by $100 in 1880 than in 1879.

The election of officers followed, and those chosen were: President—Sheriff Ferguson. First Vice-President—D. Nicol, Catorra.

Second Vice-President—W. H. C. Stark. Directors—Jno. W. Cunningham, Wm. Brodwin, John Simpson, Henry Wilmut, George O'Brien and Wm. Duff.

Mr. Henry Cunningham moved, seconded by Mr. John Simpson, that the President Vice-Presidents be appointed to see if the townships in the county would not forego their annual shows this year.

Mr. C. F. Gidderale, moved that it be a rule of the Society that at least three members be appointed each year on the Board of Directors who have not been Directors in the preceding year.

Mr. Calvin spoke of municipal assessments, and after brief speeches from Messrs. Meredith, Mowat, Sinclair and Baskerville, the debate was adjourned on motion of Mr. Watson.

Mr. C. F. Gidderale, moved that it be a rule of the Society that at least three members be appointed each year on the Board of Directors who have not been Directors in the preceding year.

Mr. William Harty called the attention of the gentlemen attending the Agricultural Society meeting to the fact that he had an interview with Mr. Langens, who is now promoting the growing of sugar beets in Lower Canada.
