A PETRIFIED ENGLISH SOLDIER.

Wonderful Discovery Made in Sackett's Harbor Upon a Battlefield. Sackett's Harbor, July 8.—Sackett's Harbor has a real curiosity, one which has already attracted thousands to view it and one which will be a wonder for ages. It is the petrified body of a soldier. On Tuesday of the last week a detail of soldiers, under command of Sergeant Thompson, Co. "B" Twelfth Regiment, were excavating a place on the historic battlefield of 1812, for the purpose of erecting an iron flagstaff which had recently been furnished by the war department, preparatory to throwing to the breeze a beautiful banner which has been presented to the Twelfth Regiment by a party of New York ladies and gentlemen who were recently here. A depth of about seven feet had been reached when the excavators struck what they supposed was a rock, so hard as to defy their efforts. The excavators were puzzled and the party were amazed to discover that they had come upon the petrified body of an English soldier. The body was perfect in every particular, except on the left shoulder where the pick of the excavator had clipped off a piece about four inches long, but which piece can easily be put in place. The petrified form was taken out of the ground, and was found to weigh nearly 1,000 pounds. The wonderful discovery caused much excitement, and a party of Watertown gentlemen at once made an offer of $2,500 for the prize, but the offer was refused. The body is on exhibition here and will be kept here till August 1, when it will be sent to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, D.C.

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

Rome, N.Y., July 8.—Sing Lee, a Chinese laundryman, about 30 years old, was found dead in his basement laundry, No. 60, James street, last evening. He was last seen alive on Wednesday evening. On Thursday morning the curtains of his windows were drawn down and his door was locked. On a piece of paper stuck on his door was written, "Me go York New." His laundry was visited by numerous customers during the past five days, who supposed he had gone to New York. Yesterday afternoon an offensive odor was discovered to be issuing from the laundry basement, and upon entering the agent of the building found Sing Lee dead in his bed, with his throat cut and a stab in the region of the heart and abdomen, with blood on the bedclothes and wall, and signs of a struggle having occurred. A Chinaman who came here on Tuesday night from Montreal and worked with Lee on Wednesday undoubtedly committed the murder. A yellow shirt which he wore was found under the bed covered with blood, and the stranger had not been seen since early on Tuesday morning, when he said his description went up the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg railroad on a Montreal ticket. He spoke to Conductor Panburn of going to Ottawa. Sing Lee the murdered man, came here from Montreal a year ago, and had a large sum of money, which the murderer is believed to have stolen. The strange Chinaman is described as 5 feet 8 inches tall, rather thick set, wearing a moustache with long ends, but very closely shaven directly under the nose. His hair was cut in the American fashion, with a feather edge at the back of the neck, parted on the left side near the middle and brushed up to the forehead. His dress was of American style, trousers of dark color with crosswise stripes, outer blouse blue, black felt hat. He spoke English readily.

WEATHER AND WIND.

St. Paul, Minn., July 9.—A terrific wind and rain storm visited the western and southern sections of the state last night. The crops suffered most, whole fields being destroyed. Sparta, Wis., July 9.—A terrible cyclone swept over this place last night and did great destruction to farmhouses and barns. Rochester, N. Y., July 9.—Prof. Barnard, of Vanderbilt University Observatory, Nashville, Tenn., discovered, on the evening of July 7th, a pretty large, but very faint, comet in Ophiuchus. Its position was in R. 17 h. 21 m. 24 s.; declination, south, 4 b. 57 m. 18 s.; daily motion, 35 m. south-west. With the great telescope of the Warner Observatory Prof. Swift observed last evening that the surface of the comet was sprinkled over with very minute bright points, like a resolved nebula. This discovery will clearly entitle the discoverer to the Warner prize of $300 for the first discovery of a new comet during the year 1885.

HANGED TO A DOOR KNOB.

Three Mile Bay, July 8.—About 8 o'clock Mrs. Asa Wilcox, committed suicide by fastening one end of a pocket handkerchief to her neck and the other end to the knob of a door and then throwing herself backward, allowing the weight of her body to be the means by which she was choked to death. Mrs. Wilcox was about 65 years of age, and had been in low spirits for some time. About ten days ago she attempted to drown herself in the bay. Her husband died some years ago and left considerable property, and Mrs. Wilcox, since that time, has been expending a good deal of money endeavoring to purchase the shares of the heirs, with a view of keeping the estate intact. It is supposed that this trouble so weighed upon her mind that she became temporarily insane. Mrs. Wilcox leaves two daughters, Mrs. Jimma, of Three Mile Bay, and Miss B. A. Wilcox, of Clayton.

RAILSTONES EXTRAORDINARY.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 9.—At Chatham, Columbia county, railstones fell Sunday night measuring from one to four inches in diameter. People were knocked down and severely wounded; horses ran away in fright; dogs went jumping up the street barking from cuts; the roofs of a few residences; one hundred and thirty-six panes of glass in the windows of the Methodist church, one hundred in the village school house, and a photographer's sky lights were demolished; corn was cut away entirely, leaving only the stalks standing, and robins, sparrows and other birds were found either dead at the feet of trees or with broken wings or legs. The storm was apparently about four miles in width and did not last over ten minutes. Hardly any wind accompanied it, and but little thunder and lightning. The damage is estimated at $30,000.

A MYSTERIOUS DISEASE.

Libon, July 10.—A mysterious epidemic has broken out in this city and in various other parts of Portugal. The victims are attacked without warning and die within a few minutes after the seizure. The disease is a mystery to the doctors, who, as yet, have found no effective method of combating it.

A SOCIETY HIGHWAYMAN.

A Fashionable Lion Arrested at the Head of a Gang of Robbers. Fitchburg, Pa., July 8.—An interesting trial is now going on in the criminal court here, a prominent society man being charged with highway robbery. The accused is Dr. James P. Buck, a noted practitioner, and a year ago the lion of fashionable society. A gang of young robbers has infested the surrounding country for years, and the most daring highway robberies have been committed. Finally, after months of detective work, Dr. Buck was arrested, charged with being the leader of the gang of desperadoes. The arrest of the men caused the greatest consternation, and few believed the charges. His standing in society placed him above suspicion. The accused man was apparently very wealthy. He spent money lavishly and drove several fast horses. His villa at Brad-ford was exceedingly grand and was furnished magnificently. The accused of the doctor was Frederick Alpert, an insurance agent. The evidence of Mr. Alpert is to the effect that in July last Alpert was a guest of Dr. Buck, and the two started in the evening to cross the river to see a gentleman about insurance. While passing through a piece of woods, the doctor started on a run for the ferry, and two men started and shot at him, knocking him down and robbing him of $500 and his watch. After the robbery Alpert overtook the doctor, who was lying on the ground moaning. The doctor said he had been robbed. His gold watch was still in his pocket, however. Alpert says the doctor told him just before he was shot that he had no money with him. The doctor wanted the matter hushed up. One of the detectives employed by Alpert secured the information which led to Buck's arrest. It was found that for years he was connected with the "Gordon gang" which infested this neighborhood, and acted as a ringleader for them as in the case of Alpert. From the proceeds of the robberies he was enabled to live high, and let the impression go on that he was rich. Gordon, Geary and Crusan, who were members of the gang, pleaded guilty, and having been convicted upon other charges of robbery, were sentenced to the penitentiary, Gordon for 55 years, Geary for 20 years and Crusan for 20 years.

ADVANCE IN DUTIES.

On Friday the customs department were informed of the following changes in the tariff. Brandy, advanced from $1.45 to $2 per gallon. Other liquors, paying $1.32, to be advanced to $1.75. Refined sugars to pay 10c. per lb. and 35c. per cent. duty on sugar to be advanced from 25c. and 12 1/2% per cent. to 30c. per lb. and 12 1/2% per cent. respectively. There are other changes of which notification will be sent later on. The merchants look upon the changes with surprise. There is at present considerable sugar in bond here. The inland Revenue officers were notified of the following advances: Spirits, from $1 to $1.30 per proof gallon. Tobacco, from 12c. to 20c. per lb. There are little spirits or tobacco here at present liable to the increased excise duties.

CHILDREN PLAYING FUNERAL.

Wilson, N.C., July 4.—Willie Sams, aged 6 years, son of a farmer living near here, yesterday killed his infant brother, aged 3 months. The child had been given him to hold. He had some time ago attended a child's funeral and manifested great interest in its burial. Yesterday he got a small box, and after scooping out a grave in the sand, he placed the infant in the box, nailed down the top and buried it, going through the form of delivering a prayer and singing a hymn. After he had filled the grave he went home and told his mother. He said it "was just like Mrs. Arthur lit the baby's funeral." The mother hastened to the scene, the grave was opened and the infant found dead, with its right arm broken and its skull crushed.

MURDER AT MORRISTOWN.

Morristown, N.Y., July 9.—A horrible murder was committed here about 7 o'clock last night. Two men, John O'Donnell and Joseph Murphy, began quarrelling on their way from work. Words led to blows, when O'Donnell struck Murphy several times on the head with a plasterer's hod, fracturing the skull. Medical aid was called in, but of no avail, as the man died within three hours. The murderer made his escape in the confusion and although search parties are out in all directions he has not been found as yet.

MISTAKEN DESCRIPTION.

The Editor, British Whig. Dear Sir,—In this week's weekly paper it is reported that a young man named Schuyler Carl, a baker of Verona, had stolen a horse and a buggy from Kingston. Allow me to make a correction and say he is not a baker, nor is he a resident of Verona. Our only baker is Mr. W. Rousdale, and it would be a very unjust thing, and possibly injurious to his name or his business mixed up in such a disreputable affair.

MASONIC BELIEF IN GOD.

Hamilton, Ont., July 10.—The Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada is in session here. Grand Master Murray said he had decided that one who does not take an oath or administer one, cannot be made a Mason; that no person can be initiated who does not believe in God.

A RESULT OF INFIDELITY.

TRIAL OF THE REBEL CHIEF.

His Lawyers Hopeful of his Acquittal.—The Ground of Def. Acc. Ottawa, July 8.—Mr. Lemieux, one of Riel's counsel, leaves for the west to-day. He says the government have positively refused to assist in paying Riel's witness expenses. Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Quebec senior counsel, said in Montreal yesterday that he would not except to the jurisdiction of the court, but however, on the same grounds as in the coroner case; secondly, I will plead that the rebellion was justifiable in some respects, and thirdly, that Riel is insane. For weeks past I have been working day and night on the case; I have all my papers prepared, and am confident that Riel will be acquitted. It is understood that Mr. N. Greenshields has also refused to allow the trial to be made a political affair. When Lord Lorne went on his trip to the North-West in 1881, it was announced that he would go entirely at his own charge. What will be the astonishment of the people when they learn that an account is being presented to the government by Messrs. Purcell and Ryan, Section B contractors, for transport, etc., furnished to the gubernatorial party on their trip from Peri Arthur westward. Yet such is said to be the fact and it is further said that the bill is being put through all right. The amount out of it is ascertained. Ottawa, July 9.—It is the intention of Riel's counsel to summon Sir David Macpherson, Minister of the Interior, Mr. Carson, Minister of Militia, and Sir John Macdonald to appear at the trial to give evidence in the production of papers in possession of the Government which, it is alleged, have been suppressed, but which the counsel believe will reveal some important facts regarding the late rebellion and will prove of great value to their client. The question, whether or not the right of the Dominion Government to constitute courts in the North-West Territories is ultra vires of the British North America Act will, it is said, be raised, and if Riel is sentenced by the court before which he comes up for trial at Regina, on the 20th inst., it is contemplated to take an appeal to the Privy Council in England to have it set aside on the ground that the court had no constitutional existence, as Sir David Macpherson is at present in England and cannot be summoned an effort may be made to have the trial put off on that ground.

Regina, N. W. T., July 9.—Riel's imprisonment is evidently agreeing with him, as he is getting fatter every day. His mind, however, is not so much at ease regarding the result of the trial as heretofore. He is ever ready to walk with the guards, and ask loud public feeling is. For some days past he has been busy writing. The result is a lengthy document, which he has handed to a Justice of the Peace of the Mounted Police. It refers to the rebellion and his actions since being called into the country. It Riel will benefit by information on his companions, the general opinion is he will do so.

Regina, July 9.—Riel has expressed himself confident of the result of the trial. Deputy Sheriff Gibson last night served him with a list of witnesses for the Crown and jury panel. Riel said it was satisfactory to see that he was in Turkey after all. Messrs. Durbridge, Osler and Scott are busily engaged, and as soon as the charge is drawn up a batch of half-dozen prisoners will be brought before Judge Richardson. The witnesses for the Crown will include Gen. Middleton, Col. Irvine, Major Crozier, Indian Agent Lash, J. R. Astley, C. E. Harold Ross and J. A. Jackson, Prince Albert; Gen. Kerr and John Kerr, Batoche; D. A. Stewart, Hamilton; S. W. Jarvis and Captain Young, of the Winnipeg Field Battery. The panel from which the jury will be selected will be thirty-six. The total number being whites, residing along the Canadian Pacific from Moccasin to Moose Jaw.

Mr. H. Lejeune, Justice of the Peace, of Regina, has been asked by Judge Richardson to act as his associate on the bench on the approaching trials. Mr. Lejeune has accepted. The prisoners, when circumstances will permit, will be tried in batches of six.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

Notable Facts.—Intense heat augments the annoyance of skin disease and encourages the development of febrile disorders, wherefore they should as they may, be removed by these detergent and purifying preparations. In stomach complaints, liver affections, pains and spasms of the bowels, Holloway's ointment rubbed over the affected part immediately gives the greatest ease, prevents congestion and inflammation, checks the threatening diarrhoea and averts ineffectual cholera. The poorer inhabitants of large cities will find these remedies to be their best friend when any pestilential miasma, or when from unknown causes, eruptions, boils, abscesses, or ulcers, break out, the presence of taints or impurities within the system, and call for instant and effective curative medicines.

NOT THE CATTLE QUEEN.

A Betting, Hoarding, Food-Eating, Money-Snatching, Female All the Same. Atlanta, Ga., July 8.—This city has been taken by storm. The whole town is wild over the remarkable action of a beautiful woman who registers herself at the hotel as Mrs. Salm, Queen Cattle Queen. She is handsome of face, has a commanding and queenly figure, travels alone and apparently has no end of money. She claims to own several cattle ranches and much real estate in several eastern cities, and if she were the real Mrs. Salm, the veritable cattle queen of Texas, her story would be true. But it has been ascertained by a newspaper man that she is a Mrs. Salm, of Houston, Texas, and an adventuress. Her beauty has assailed the hearts of many of the most prominent business men in the city, and her wise suppers are the grandest ever given in the city. The newspaper man who insinuated to her that there was no "I" in her name was felled out of the hotel by the enraged female, who swung a pair of revolvers very threateningly. She got offended at one of the members of the hotel owner's family and offered to buy the hotel and throw the whole family out of doors.

THE DASHING WIDOW.

The woman is only about 28 years old and claims to be a widow. Thursday she sent to a livery and asked that a "phaeton and six" be sent to her hotel. The liveryman had some experience in driving four horses but six was too many for him. The woman insisted and said she would furnish a driver. The phaeton and six prancing steeds were sent down to the hotel and soon afterwards the "cattle queen" was standing up in the carriage with a couple of friends seated in the rear, holding the reins and playing the whip freely. She looked like a ringer for a six horse chariot in a circus, but she managed the horses beautifully, which were driven up and down the streets at full gallop. She is now recognized as a fraud, but that she is a perry, wealthy and remarkable woman none can deny, and the excitement over the fair adventuress could not be greater were she the lady she represents herself to be.

Reviving an Orange Lodge.

L. O. L. No. 316, which has been dead for some time, has been revived. On Thursday the members of the lodge met and elected officers as follows: W.M.—Dr. Mackenzie; D.M.—T. L. Snook; Chaplain—G. Brown; Recording Secretary—A. Carlton; Treasurer—Fred. Carlton; D. of C.—F. Thompson; I.T.—W. Forrester; O.T.—G. Laturney; Trustee—G. Brown.

At the close of the lodge meeting the newly elected Worthy Master, Dr. Mackenzie, invited the members of the lodge to dine with him at the Union Hotel. Here a rollicking time was spent until after midnight. Enthusiastic speeches were delivered and patriotic songs sung. The health of the doctor was drunk with great heartiness.

Cruelly Murdered.

In the Province of Ontario every year thousands are being slowly murdered by taking unsuitable, untried nostrum for such complaints as costiveness, indigestion, liver complaint, kidney troubles, etc. who might easily gain lost strength and energy by using McGregor's Speedy Cure.
