

WHAT'S TO BE GAINED?

In there anything to be gained by the... of the devil and the deep sea...

MEANS TO AN END.

It is quite apparent that the government... has gone on the short side in...

HON. MR. BLAKE.

The Young Liberals, in giving Hon. Mr. Blake the first place of honor...

destructive and dangerous in the conduct of... the lips in political crime against...

HE LOST HIS BLOOMING BRIDE.

At a Glance in the Life of a Bridgeman at Gananouque—He covered at Kingston.

FROM BLIND TO MOURNING.

A Canadian Blind Quickly made a Widow—Sudden Change in Life.

THE RECORDS OF CRIME.

A Crime that baffles Detection—A Poor Girl Sensed to Be Hung.

Do Your Children.

Have fits or convulsions, grind their teeth, pick their nose, have a bad breath...

DEATH OF G. W. FEWICK.

One of Kingston's Best Citizens Passes Away—His Residence in Kingston.

Another old and prominent citizen has departed from this world...

TOKONTO EXHIBITION.

ALDERMAN CARSON HAS A GRIEVANCE—COMPLAINS OF NOT GETTING FAIR PLAY.

Ald. J. CARSON, in a letter to a friend, speaks about the horse show at the Industrial Fair, Toronto.

SPORTS AND RECREATION.

Arranging For Several Prize Fights—Points on Baseball and Cricket.

Fullagers and Gilmore were arrested near Toronto on Wednesday night...

Accidents to Children.

On Thursday the youthful son of Mr. Harper, Williamsville, fell of a threshing machine and broke an arm.

GENERAL ITEMS.

Items for the Week supplied by Our Readers and Grandly Reduced by Correspondents.

Thursday, Sept. 17th. The bridge over the Rideau Falls this morning was crowded with people...

GENERAL ITEMS CONTINUED.

Saturday, Sept. 19th. A terrible fire broke out at the mill of the late G. W. Fewick...

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

No Camp Meeting to be Held. It was recently decided to hold a Methodist camp meeting at Glanville...

The Williamsburgh, N.Y., and Kingston Lacrosse Clubs will play a match during the Midland Central Fair week.

The Napanee Auction.

At the Napanee Auction one Smith was sent to the Central Prison for one year for arson.

The Prussia Win Prize.

At the Toronto exhibition G. W. Robinson took first prize on his tandem pony and second prize on a single pony...

A Tramp's Close Call.

Peter Porter, a tramp, stood at Place d'Armes about 8 o'clock on Thursday, waiting for a train.

The Fishing Difficulty Settled.

The fishing difficulty between Inspector Merritt and Mr. Sexton, Reeve of Portmouth, has been amicably settled.

Killed on the Track.

A despatch from Syracuse, N.Y., gives the following sad information: James W. Mooney, son of Mr. Mooney, formerly of the Kingston foundry...

Moore vs. Cation—Action for damages for assault.

Verdict for $100 for plaintiff. Deroche & Madden for plaintiff; G. Gibson & Clute for defendant.

McCormick vs. Denzel—Action for ejectment for piece of land on Amherst Island.

Verdict for plaintiff. Deroche & Madden for plaintiff; John McIntyre, G.C., for defendant.

Herring vs. Brooks—Action for the recovery of price of some windmills.

Verdict for plaintiff for $90. A. L. Jordan for plaintiff; Brown, of Picton, for defendant.

The Orange Picnic.

About 300 people attended the Orange picnic at Patterson's grove Thursday.

Sad Death at Gananouque.

On Friday afternoon, after two days illness, the wife of Dr. Dumble died at her home in Gananouque.

The Prussia's Loss.

The prop. Prussia, burned on Saturday, was bound from Fort William to Duluth, light.

KEELEY CONCERT COMPANY.

On Wednesday afternoon the Keeley Company left on the Hero for Adolphus town, where they gave a concert in aid of the new Anglican church.

Sanitary Commission will be appointed to examine Riel's mind.

to be composed of Drs. Vallee and Lachapelle, of the Province of Quebec, two medical men from Ontario, and one from the United States.

Galveston city and island are experiencing a veritable deluge.

For five days the rain fall has been incessant. Since the 1st of Sept. 17 9-10 inches of rain have fallen. This record is without a parallel.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

GENERAL ITEMS CONTINUED.

Saturday, Sept. 19th. A terrible fire broke out at the mill of the late G. W. Fewick...

The bridge over the Rideau Falls this morning was crowded with people...

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

No Camp Meeting to be Held. It was recently decided to hold a Methodist camp meeting at Glanville...

The Williamsburgh, N.Y., and Kingston Lacrosse Clubs will play a match during the Midland Central Fair week.

The Napanee Auction.

At the Napanee Auction one Smith was sent to the Central Prison for one year for arson.

The Prussia Win Prize.

At the Toronto exhibition G. W. Robinson took first prize on his tandem pony and second prize on a single pony...

A Tramp's Close Call.

Peter Porter, a tramp, stood at Place d'Armes about 8 o'clock on Thursday, waiting for a train.

The Fishing Difficulty Settled.

The fishing difficulty between Inspector Merritt and Mr. Sexton, Reeve of Portmouth, has been amicably settled.

Killed on the Track.

A despatch from Syracuse, N.Y., gives the following sad information: James W. Mooney, son of Mr. Mooney, formerly of the Kingston foundry...

Moore vs. Cation—Action for damages for assault.

Verdict for $100 for plaintiff. Deroche & Madden for plaintiff; G. Gibson & Clute for defendant.

McCormick vs. Denzel—Action for ejectment for piece of land on Amherst Island.

Verdict for plaintiff. Deroche & Madden for plaintiff; John McIntyre, G.C., for defendant.

Herring vs. Brooks—Action for the recovery of price of some windmills.

Verdict for plaintiff for $90. A. L. Jordan for plaintiff; Brown, of Picton, for defendant.

The Orange Picnic.

About 300 people attended the Orange picnic at Patterson's grove Thursday.

Sad Death at Gananouque.

On Friday afternoon, after two days illness, the wife of Dr. Dumble died at her home in Gananouque.

The Prussia's Loss.

The prop. Prussia, burned on Saturday, was bound from Fort William to Duluth, light.

KEELEY CONCERT COMPANY.

On Wednesday afternoon the Keeley Company left on the Hero for Adolphus town, where they gave a concert in aid of the new Anglican church.

Sanitary Commission will be appointed to examine Riel's mind.

to be composed of Drs. Vallee and Lachapelle, of the Province of Quebec, two medical men from Ontario, and one from the United States.

Galveston city and island are experiencing a veritable deluge.

For five days the rain fall has been incessant. Since the 1st of Sept. 17 9-10 inches of rain have fallen. This record is without a parallel.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev. J. R. Jacques, D.D., for ten years president of Albert College, Belleville, is engaged by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York, to supply their pulpit for a month, in the absence of the pastor.

Thos. D. Hicks, of Portland township, has returned after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Watertown and Adams, N.Y.

Rev