Toronto's progress within the last ten years is referred to as "phenemenal," The word is inappropriate, but it is that usually employed in the characteri. zation of the city's greatness. But Toronto is really making wonderful headway. Its borders have been greatly extended, and its population has been largely increased. It is now considerably over 100,000. Of course the civic debt is growing into huge proportions. It dosen't appear to trouble the corporation a great deal. The financiers for the city are, politically, of the same faith as the financier for the dominion. They are bound to go it as strong and as long as they can. They assume that the people like debt and taxation, and of both the raterayers will get enough by and bye

A WORTHY TRIBUTE.

Hon. O. Mowat accompanied Sir Richard Cartwright to Almonte on Tuesday and made a speech which has been deemed most worthy of him. In reviewng the course of events he said :

"The first Premier of Ontario was an Eastern man-Mr. Sandfield Macdonald. The successor of that gentleman is our present leader in Dominion affairs -- Mr. Blake. While comparatively inexperienced in parliamentary life-(eheers)-Mr. Blake established a government which the Conservatives assailed in vain. Though but four years in the legislature Mr. Blake succeeded in overturning a government which was supported by all the Conservatives and a large section of Reformers. I have held the fort, I am happy to say for 13 years, but it was Mr. Blake who gave the fort into my hands. Every Reformer hopes he will long live to lead the Liberal party of Canada. Our opponents advise us to throw him overboard, and select some other leader. The Liberals do not propose to follow any such advice. They know that the best way is to go contrary to what their opponents advise. While Mr. Mackenzie was in office he was charged with every offence by the very parties who, now that his health had been for the time broken down in the service of his country, are expressing hypocritical sympathy with him.'

Mr. Mowat has raid tersely and frankly that which every one knows to be a truth. Mr. Blake gave to Liberalism in this province a stimulus which has continned through all these years. He won the victories which gave to the party the power to resist the attacks of its enemies. But because he has not succeeded as well in the dominion some people, not very Liberal at any time and with doubtful political escutcheons, would have him removed. They forget that there are antagonistic and discordant elements which intelligence and argument cannot affect. Low cunning and corruption are the means employed by unprincipled men to guide a dominant party and prolong its rule. Mr. Blake has no sympathy with politics of this character and he will never be premier of Canada if his advancement to that position be dependant upon them. Nor would the sound solid sense of the people have it otherwise. The time is coming when Canada will look to him as her political saviour, and the indications are that that time is not far distant.

HOME WITH A SENSATION.

THE STORY A COUPLE OF LADS TOLD-IT IS NOT THOUGHT CREDIBLE.

Eugene and Frankie Melonfant and Boyd Young, three small lads, went to Barriefield Thursday on a nutting expedition. In the evening when they returned to the city they gave publicity to a sensation which they say they witnessed. They state that while they were gathering nuts from under some trees, near the shore of the Cataraqui lake, they saw an Indian and a squaw emerge from the woods and approach the shore. The Indian carried what daughter-in-law. seemed to the lads to be an infant. In one hand he held a knife. At the shore the Indian appeared to cut the infant's throat, the boys say, with the knite, and plunged the blade twice into the body at the armpits. The boys heard a noisea little feeble moan. When all was over the Indian cast his burden into the lake. The squaw, the lads said, calmly surreved the whole affair, and when the hild had been got rid of she and the Indian went back to the woods. The story was told to the police by a brother of one of the boys who says "he saw the murder committed." The lads were interviewed by a reporter and told the story given above. They say they can-

The gates of the exhibition grounds were closed fast against the belligerents, ladies screamed and wept, men were seen hurrying away with bleeding heads as stones, brickbats and other missiles began to fly about. There must have been fully 150 men in the crowd and some outsiders had narrow escapes from the flying stones. Constable Mackenzie was present, but was wholly powerless to stay the progress of the row. He managed, however, to get the names of the principal participators. The cause of the quarrel was whiskey, which inflamed an old feud between some parties, and the outcome was "blood." Seven or eight persons were more or less hurt, but none very seriously. The dispute, it is said, by a great many present, arose out of a discussion on the Riel matter, of whether or not the Metis chief should suffer. Never has a remedy given equal satisfaction in all diseases of the liver, stomach and bowels as have Hamilton's pills of mandrake and butternut. They at once strike at the root of the trouble, give aid to the torpid, inactive liver, restore tone to the digestive apparatus, and premote a supply of new, healthy blood. Though disappointed hitherto, do not fail to test the wonderful efficacy of Hamilton's pills. Sold by all dealers in medicine, and by N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston.
