THE MARQUIS OF LORNE.

He is Mobbed by the Tories at Brantford-Pelted with Rotten Eggs.

London, Oct. 24.-It is now evident that the parliamentary campaign will not pass off without serious rioting in many quarters, as the party feeling, which was already high, daily grows more bitter. The Marquis of Lorne, Liberal candidate for Hampstead, went down to Brentford, a town seven wiles west of London, to deliver a campaign speech. While addressing the electors a mob assaulted him with rotten eggs, and some of them, gaining the platform, smashed his hat over his head. The supporters of the Marquis rushed to his rescue and a fight ensued. The noble lord now became so thoroughly frightened that he hastily departed from the scene, ran through the streets in a drenching rain to the railway station, and immediately departed for London. Meanwhile the row continued, the supporters of the Marquis being severely handled, and, becoming discouraged at their desertion by their champion, finally retreated, leaving their contestants masthe platform and passed a resolution condemning the policy of the Liberals. When the Queen's son-in-law made his appearance as a Liberal candidate for | September, on the 7th. Hampstead it occasioned considerable surprise, and when he put forward, in ly 20,000 lbs (six loads) of September cheese, his address, advanced Radical opinions, the surprise was greatly increased. He opposed Chamberlain's programme of free education and advocated the imme-

He championed the principles of the Free Land League, and, with a view to the encouragement of subdivision of land, suggested that the sales of large estates, en bloc, should be subject to but buyers would only offer gl to 102. heavy taxation, while the sales of land, to be divided into smaller lots, should was stronger at 10½ to 10½c, with 11c asked, of the hen fruit is of doubtful republic duty free. Troy, Oct. 24.—This afternoon the great single scull race, for the championship and a stake of $2,000, was rowed off Pleasure Island, south of this city, between Hanlan, Toronto, and Teemer. There was a five feet freshet in the river, and the west-shore, the most desirable course, was selected by Teemer, who won the toss. Before the men tossed for positions Hanlan was the favorite at odds of 10 to 6, but when the positions were announced several even bets were made, shough Hanlan still had a slight Mostreal "G zette's" Review.

In New York State nearly all the cheese have been moved out or contracted for, and the same is nearly equally true of the other cheese counties. The home trade in the States has begun to play a very important part in the situation, for the reason that the the surprise of the crowd, challenged demand has been more directed to finer goods as the manufacture of skims and half skims which found a market in the south and west has been largely discontinued, and incidentally it may be mentioned that sales have been made in New York for shipment At the turning buoy Teemer was four | to Ohio. The improvement in general York trade is comparatively independent of exporters, in fact it may be said to be indifferent about selling for export at all unless full prices are paid. The greater the home consumption in the States becomes the greater is the probability that the foreign demand will be directed here, in which case we could wish the bear estimate of production and spocks to be realized. The time people, a furloug from the finish, stopped | mend what the Utica Herold has to say to to bathe his face with water dipped from their attention. There are light stocks in the hands of middlemen in the old country, light exports from New York, a largely retered his shell and paddled down to his duced production of fall goods in Canada, and an unusually large home trade in the States, while prices here are relatively lower. If there is to be any demand for cheese we stand an excellent chance of getting good share of it. It is in order for the bears to adduce a few facts in their own sup port-if they can.
