WHAT OUR INDUSTRIOUS STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS WRITE.

The Events of the Week that Concern the Residents of the Midland District-Little Escapes Notice, and Each Locality can Find Something of Interest.

PITTSFERRY, Dec. 4.-Mrs. R. Wenborn is on the sick list. -T. A. Maxwell spent Sunday at Pleasant Valley .- Mrs. Stark is visiting relatives at Joyceville. | lage on behalf of a Chautauqua firm .- A | here just now, Mrs. Adair and Mr. -J. McLean has returned after spending a week at Eric .- Visitors: J. Burns, Alf. Graves and W. Vanhorn.

road from Crow lake here is a credit to tey, at J. Powley's; Miss Henzie, at Miss the government and its overseer in the A.M. Leaney's. person of James Tallen, Arden. It's a first-class job in every sense of the word. No man could have done better with the grand lodge organizer of the Orange asmoney. About $100 would finish the sociation, gave a lecture in the Orange small part left undone.

Green is very low at present. The fears | certainly left a good impression on his are she will not recover .- A. Pearson | hearers. At the conclusion of Mr. Ruthas not yet returned from his visit to | ledge's remarks Mr. Richardson, P.P.A. friends east. - The meetings at the mines | organizer, took the stand and addressed are very well attended .- Mrs. Offord is | the people in the interests of the P.P.A. also very poorly at present.-The cheese | He is a plain speaker.-Ralph R. Venus business has closed for the season.

FALLBROOK, Dec. 3 .- Times are exceedingly quiet here. - There is barely enough snow for sleighing .- There will be a shooting match on Friday, Dec. 7th .- Rev. Mr. Brown, Smith's Falls. will deliver a lecture in the Playfair woollen factory is running in full blast.

SMITH'S MINES, Dec. 5.—Capt. Boyd Smith talks of removing Joseph Harris in charge of his mines here to the south in the United States. The captain has a big mine down south and Mr. Harris is one of his most responsible men. We will be very sorry to see him leave this place as he is a useful man in this coun-

FISH CREEK, Dec. 5 .- Essa Thompson has been very sick and in fact is not well by any means at present. Mrs. D. Cornwall is also very sick. Mr. Good has recovered.-The mill is running in full blast again under the able management of Mr. Kish.-Roads are bad for such a fine fall .- Very low water in Creek at present.

MISSISSIPPI, Dec. 5.-H. McKinnon started for the shanty to-day with all the outfit .- Mrs. Campbell, of Clarendon, is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. Olmstead. Mrs. N. Clark was in Kingston on Thursday last .- Duncan Campbell, Oso, spent Sunday with Henry McKinnon .-The sheeting match passed off very quietly on Saturday .- J. H. Redmond returned from Perth on Saturday and is busily engaged painting.

YOUNG FRONT, Dec. 5 .- G. Root and A. Seman, Rockport, were the guests of A. P. Guild on Tuesday last.-Rev. Mr. Perley, Lynn, will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening.-John Root is erecting a very fine dwelling house .- Almond Polly met with quite a misfortune while milking a cow. It kicked him on the leg and he has not been out for a week, but is slowly recovering.

SYDENHAM, Dec. 4.-Rev. J. McEwen, normal secretary of the provincial Sun- Geraldi, Renfrew junction, at Mrs. J. day school association, was here on Friday and addressed an audience of workers and others in the Methodist church. -A. Bell, Charlie and J. Clement, who have lived in Toronto for some time, arehome again .- Reeve Corkill, of Loughboro, interds contesting the reeveship again. Report says he will be opposed by J. Woodruff. B. Buck, councillor, intends taking one step forward next

DESMOND, Dec. 4. -All are anxious to see snow enough for sleighing .- Our afternoon service is well attended .- Vis- | Campbellford this morning .- Rev. Sagar itors: Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Stirling; Mr. Patterson and sister, Morven; They will occupy Mr. Gordons house on Delbert Cassidy, Yarker; Mr. Curran, Sydenham; Mr. and Mrs. C. Vanalstine, at John Simmons'; Jeremiah Simmons has returned to Bell Rock,-James Low had a bee cutting up wood for the church on Monday .- John O'Connor is failing very fast; the rest of the sick are im proving slowly. - James Low has a very sick horse.

ATKINSON, Dec. 5. - A wedding took place in Gananoque on Wednesday morning, Nov. 27th. Father O'Gorman united James Kenney, Jones' Falls, and Miss Bridget A. O'Donohue. The bride was attired in a brown cloth suit with white chrysanthemums. Miss Josephine Nobes, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid; the groom was supported by his cousin, Michael O'Neil. The happy party drove to the residence of the bride's mother, and after a sumptuous repast, repaired to their home in Elgin.

ROCKPORT, Dec. 4 .- V. Hunt is preparing to build, a barn.-Mrs. P. Lambert is recovering from her illness .- S. Wilcox wears a smile on his face-it's a girl.-A cottage prayer meeting was wall are preparing to make Florida an- completed and will be ready for occupaother visit this winter .- Mrs. Fred. | tion by Jan. 1st. The building looks her parents a visit last Wednesday .- | lage .- Mrs. J. Price, teacher of the Arhis house.

town by the Sons of Scotland turned out | Croyden, having been away to attend the a grand success.-Mrs. P. Craig is very | funeral of his mother, widow of the late sick at present .- W. J. Webster, our John Milton Williams, which took place popular baker, is dangerously ill -Rev. on Saturday .- William Boomhower, who McIlroy and Mr. Barr passed through broke his leg a few weeks ago, is doing town, last week, on their way to attend | well .- John Babcock has sold his house the convention at Carleton Place .- We on Queen street to Jacob R. Moore .- Anregret to relate the death of Mrs Keys, other visitor has come to stay at Wilene of our oldest and most respected liam Miller's; it is a boy .- The weather villagers.-D. A. McRae, the singing is fine, but a little more snow is needed evangelist, is visiting our town at pre- to make good sleighing. sent .- J. Miller is having a new slaughter house erected.

visit to this locality last week, and our | en the record, shooting forty-seven wild local hunters followed his tracks for a ducks in two hours and a half .- Now couple of days without seeing him, that December is on weather prophets though they found two places where he say: A mild December, snow in Janhad tried to start housekeeping for the uary and a mild February.-Ice has winter.-Messrs. Middleton and Brad- | taken at the mouth of the canal but shaw reached here on Friday with their | hardly fit for skating yet .- J. S. Armsteam thresher and began their sixty- strong has gone to spend a winter in the first job for the season at G. Bradshaw's. | lumber woods.- James Dawson had a bee -T. Jones conducted service at the drawing pressed hay. -Miss E. Keys has mines. Blessington, on Sunday. Rev. returned home again from the foot of the N. Topping officiated here and an island.—Samuel Mozier, a very old man, mounced the next preaching service for | is very ill; his friends have not much Sunday, 16th .- A wave of what acts | hope of his recovery .- Elmer Woodman much like the grippe is passing over us; was in the village, Tuesday, delivering nearly every family has one or more suf- | beef .- John McKay has returned to his

our; among others D. Crain, J. Curry, T. | asking his mother and sisters to go there Scott.

CATARAQUI, Dec. 5 -R. Laird, M.A., T. Brooks has been canvassing the vil- There is quite a lot of sickness around numerously attended dance was held in Trumpour have been quite low for some the town hall, Tuesday night .- Miss time.-Leonard Wagar died, Monday, school next year. -- Mrs. H. J. Simpson is | Cleworth, ministering for a time in North OLDEN STATION, Dec. 5.—The new | visiting at Bath.—Visitors: Mrs. Whit- | Dakota, was out here visiting his sister, PETWORTH, Dec. 4.-Mr. Rutledge, hall, Saturday evening last. He took for his subject "Orangeism of the Bible." PARHAM CROSSING, Dec. 5 .- Mrs. Thos. Mr. Rutledge is a clear speaker. He has completed fencing the school ground. Mrs. Rush, very ill, is reported better. -Mrs. Boyce is visiting at her son's at Harrowsmith.-Several young men have gone to the shanties at Flower Station.

SEELEY'S BAY, Dec. 5 .- The new butter factory is making 400 lbs. of butter a church entitled "Mistakes." - Bond's | day. Patrons of eight different factories are bringing their milk here to be made into butter .- Mrs. Mary E. Preston is slowly recovering from an attack of sickness. - Mrs. C. F. Gilbert is steadily improving. - Mrs. A. Donohue is dangerously ill with an attack of inflammation. -A new comer at George Cheetham'sit's a girl .- William Berry, our esteemed blacksmith, is the proud possessor of a young daughter.-Mrs. S. Langford, Delta, was visiting here last week .- A. Likely is attending the temperance convention at Delta.

> DUFFERIN, Dec. 5.—A meeting of the patrons of Rose Hill cheese factory was held in Shaftsbury hall, in which a report of the season's business was read and adopted and a general expression of satisfaction manifested by all present. Afterwards an address was read by Alex. Grant to the cheesemaker, Win. Fitzgerald, and he was presented with a full set (six volumes) of Dr. Clark's "Commentary on the Bible," by Samuel Donaldson, in acknowledgment of their appreciation of his services since he has been among them. The presents were an acknowledgment of the appreciation of his friends for his business and social qualities. He made a fitting reply.

> CLARENDON, Dec. 4.-What might have resulted in a serious accident occurred last evening. When William Welch was returning to his home from the village his horses took fright and ran away, throwing him to the ground and inflicting a serious gash above his eye,-Our village is besieged by rabbit hunters this week, among them being J. Brown, Stanley house; C. H. Corbett, jailer; J. Hinds, American bottling company, and the Messrs. Potter, all of Kingston .- Visitors: Mrs. H. E. Landrum, Wolfe Island, at her father's; Mrs. Fred. Campbell's; Mrs. Dr. Dupuis has left for Kingston .- Gib. Geraldi has gone to visit his brother at Renfrew junction.

WILTON, Dec. 4 .- Rev. Mr. Clarke, B. A., Yarker, will preach a missionary sermon in the Methodist church next Sunday morning .- Rev. S. T. Bartlett, Cobourg, will speak in the interest of the bible society in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening.-Luman Jordan and sister Maggie are the guests of Thomas Mills. Their father who came with them returned to his home in and family have removed to Odessa. the Napanee road.-Preparations are being made by both the Presbyterian and Methodist Sabbath schools for Christmas entertainments.

IVY LEA, Dec. 5.-Mrs. Cross and her daughter, Chattie. has removed to Lansdowne for the winter.-Miss Ola Cross is spending this week in Gananoque with her uncle.-Charles Dano is laid up with a cut foot .- J. G. H. McCrea, merchant of Lansdowne, has had his country residence improved by having the roof newly shingled .- Wm. Tedford and Wm. Carpenter did the work,-Florence Carpenter spent Saturday and Sunday in Lansdowne. - Our schoolhouse received a much needed cleaning on Saturday last .- M. Shurtliffe is home again after spending a few weeks in the township of Dungannon, Hastings county .-Wm. Carpenter and wife spent Monday in Leeds calling on his two brothers, also to bid "good-bye" to his sister on her departure for her home in Mount Pleasant, Mich.

ARDEN, Dec. 4 .- The treasurer of the Arden cheese factory made the last payment to the patrons on Saturday for the held, Friday evening, at Mr. Dixon's .- | season. - Benjamin Ekhart, night opera-B. Slate has completed his well under | tor at the Arden station, has left the vilthe C.O.C.F. hall.-Mr. and Mrs. Corn- lage.-The new school room is nearly Weeks and family, Brewer's Mills, made | well and is an improvement to the vil-John Carnegie is building an addition to | den school, is seriously ill; she is unable to get to the school house .- Mrs. J. W. Lyman is also very sick .- James Wil-LANARK, Dec. 4.-The concert held in | liams and wife got home yesterday from

WOLFE ISLAND, Dec. 5 .- The sloop Laura D. was over to the island on Fri-CROW LAKE, Dec. 4 .- A bear paid a | day for barley .- T. J. Connelly has brok-

ferers from it -Miss J. Crozier spent | home in Watertown.-The Misses Pat-Saturday and Sunday at home. Her terson, of Kingston, were the guests of scholars are hoping she will remain with | Thomas Friend, on Sunday,-William them another year -Visitors are numer- | Furlong has written from Rochester and reside.

TAMWORTH, Dec. 5 .- D. E. Rose of Queen's, preached Sunday evening, brought Sidney Rose home last night. for Rev. W. H. Easton, absent preaching | He is sick with an attack of acute rheuat Cape Vincent.-The Free Methodists | matism.-Charles Jones, druggist, has have started a revival service. - J. Irish | returned home after two or three weeks has removed to beyond Westbrook .- W. | visit with his aunt at Cincinnati .-Amanda Gordon will teach the village after a severe illness .- Rev. Gilbert Mrs Stewart Wood. He gave an excellent sermon here Sunday week .- There was a small blaze at John R. Stinson's place, Centreville road, which might have been quite serious only for the timely aid of some men who happened to be near at hand .- We have had skating already on our river here. A young lad named Murphy, son of John B. Murphy, hotel keeper, went through the ice Saturday, and narrowly escaped drowning .- Mrs. John Stewart, Harrowsmith, and children, are visiting at Mr. Herchmer's for a week or more.

PARROTT'S BAY, Dec. 3 .- Ducks have been quite plentiful, and hunters are seen coming in with a good supply .-Miss Gertie Stover, ill at her grandmother's, Mrs. C. Nicholson, with typhoid fever, has returned to her home in Deseronto. Mrs. C. Nicholson accompanied her.-Mrs. John Baker is very low; Dr. Mabee in attendance. - Mrs. S. Fairfield has been quite ill, but is now convalescent .- R. N. Lapum has been re-engaged as teacher for 1895. This will be his fourth year here. - The Epworth League, in connection with the Methodist church, organized a few days ago, is doing a good work. They number about twenty active members. The officers elected were: Wm. Hartman, president; James Smith, first vice-president; Schuyler Smith, second vice-president; Annie Cook, secretary; George Cook, treasurer. Meetings every Thursday evening .- The choir of the Beulah church is practising for a tea-meeting in the near future .- Mr. and Mrs. Ovens, of Wilton, were visiting at Mr. Fairfield's last week .- T. H. Smith, tax collector, is around making his annual

A WEEK OF SELF-DENIAL.

How the Salvation Army Proposes to Raise Funds.

ALVATION army lads and lasses a re busy at their annual self-denial week, celebrated throughout the dominion from Dec. 1st to 8th, inclusive. members of the army, street. as well as its numerous friends, are asked to abstain from some or all luxuries, and in some cases officers and soldiers have determined to do without even such expenditure as is ordinarily considered necessary, in order to raise funds to support the army in its many different branches. They are also canvassing the city for aid. The social operations, especially have been such as will require greater efforts to raise an increased amount during this self denial week. The total amount aimed for it $23,000.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE

a ragraphs Picked Up About the Wharves And Elsewhere

board of examiners to appoint a hull inspector in the place of Capt. Har-Toronto on Dec. late of the Persia thought he may succeed in getting

W. Dewey, cook of the schr. Fleetwing. can beat any schooner cook in this district making a sea pie.

The prop. Algonquin unloaded 67,500 bushels of wheat and cleared Saturday night for Toronto to lay up the schr Fleetwing's sailors got $15 each for the trip just over. The vessel was just eight days on the trip. The Connolly Bros. will build a large dredge here, at a cost of $60,000.

Hume is preparing the specifications. The SS. Bannockburn and props. Algonquin and Rosedale got a 5c. per bushel rate on their cargoes of wheat. This means over $3,000 apiece. The boats were all lucky in getting through | holders of Riverside cemetery associathe Welland canal before ice formed. The vessels will make good money on their final trip.

Kingston Business College Notes. For this period of the year there is a good attendance in both commercial and short hand departments.

pairs and preparations are being made of the past. for one of the largest attendances in the history of the institution. Two new students entered on Monday, G. H. Horne, from Wolfe Island, and J. W. England, from the city. A public reception will be tendered Prof. G. A. Swayse (formerly, principal of the Belleville business college) in the college rooms, about the 17th inst. tered : C. F. Allison, Adolphustown; G. H. Horne, Wolfe Island; J. W. England, | with a few scratches and bruises, except speakers. To Hold Revival Services. PITTSFERRY, Dec. 4 .- Farmers are finishing threshing for the year. Miss Mary Barclay has been engaged for the coming year in Leeds school. They are going to hold revival services in St. Lawrence church next week. It is much needed. The Patrons of Industry held a large meeting on Wednesday night. Visitors from Glen Logie and Rose Hill lodges. Joseph Wenborn spent a few days with friends at Battersea last week. J. Thompson paid us a flying visit on Monday; Mrs. W. Boyd was the guest of Mrs. R. Wenborn for a few days.

-W. Carlyle, Dunbar.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.

ed by Miss Kate Baxter, sister of the bride was support-

groom, and Mr. Baxter by William Anderson, Montreal. Miss Florence Davis, a sister of the bride little girl of eight or nine summers, acted as maid of honor. She was beautifully dressed in blue. The marriage took place at ten u'clock. After the ceremony the company adjourned to the dining-room, where an elegant breakfast was spread. The gifts to the bride were beautiful and costly, an indication of the high esteem in which the couple are held by friends. Amongst these was a very fine gold watch and chain, the gift of the groom. The happy couple took the noon train for Montreal and Quebec where they will spend a couple of weeks. On their return they will take up house in Pittsburgh, where Mr. Baxter has a fine arm and a well furnished house. Mr. Baxter is one of the leading young farmers of the township. We congratulate him in getting one of our most amiable voung ladies.

Tuesday, at noon, with a lovely December sun at its brightest, the residence of R. F. Davis, Gore street, had a still brighter sunshine of happiness when loving friends witnessed the marriage of his daughter, Emma, to Captain Frank Strange, son of the late. M. W. Strange, M.P.P. The drawing room was charmingly decorated with flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Mackie, of St. Andrew's. The bride was attended by her youngest sister, Miss Grace Davis and by Miss Christine Loucks; the groomsman was W. B. Skinner. The congratulations to the happy couple were both hearty and sincere. The bride is one of the most amiable and lovable of young ladies and deserves the happiness so freely predicted. At the and bridesmaids was responded to by the the host and hostess, Mr. Davis made his in other years by this | blushing debutante. The presents were concentrated effort uncommonly numerous and tasteful. have been a remark. Amid showers of rice and well wishes able testimony to the Mr. and Mrs. Strange left for Montreal, army's development | Boston and New York. They will take and activity. All up residence about Christmas on Gore

ACROSS THE BORDER.

The Things the People of Cape Vincent are Talking About.

CAPE VINCENT, Dec. 3 .- The thanksgiving party held at Firemen's hall, Thursday evening, was a grand affair. Over ninety couple were present. H W. Marks is at Syracuse receiving medical treatment. The engine company of the fire department will hold a ball New Year's night. M. S. Cornair has moved into his new house on Market street. Charles Armstrong has been appointed postmaster at Rosiere, a small village near here. A meeting of the Grange was held Saturday afternoon. The Methodist church will have new seats and carpets. Rev. E S. Cheeseman will hold quarterly meetings at Point Peninsula, Dec. 8th and 9th. F. Well, of Philadelphia, will open a jewellery store at this place. The entertainment given by the bottle will meet in | King's Daughters at Firemen's hall, Tuesday evening, was well patronized. 10th. Capt. Scott | The programme was well rendered. Mrs. Gen. Sacket and family left for New York is after this job Friday. Capt. W. W. Sheley has purand it is generally | chased a large farm near Chaumont.

Gov. Flower has appointed Wm. W. Sherman, of this place, notary public. A found the house illuminated and filled with guests and a bountiful supper in readiness. Edward Cough and Miss Bridget Lacey were married at this place on Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Cough are both well known at this place. Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Cheeseman spent thanksgiving at Watertown. Miss Mary Kelsey has gone to Detroit to spend the winter: The schr. S. S. Hammond has laid up for the winter at Clayton. Mrs. L. N. Soule has purchased the Bicknell estate on Broadway and will erect a handsome block. A meeting of the stock- forty guests. tion will be held on Dec. 8th. Miss Ida Grimshaw, who was asphyxiated with coal gas a week ago, is slowly recovering. Jerome's hotel is fast nearing completion. There is a good deal of sickness in the village at present. R. J. J. Newman is repairing his store. The young gentlemen of the village are talking of able, and his father's firmness has been The college has been undergoing re organizing a club. The band is a thing

Consecon Occurrences. CONSECON, Dec. 3 .- We are having fine weather. Roads excellent. It is more like spring than winter, as ploughing has gone on till a few days ago. The C. O. railway had a bad smash-up on Thursday at Pettengill's curve. "The rails spread, causing the coach and mail The following students have just en- car to be ditched. No lives lost as there were but a few passengers. All escaped city; Timothy Lynch, Esmond; and J. one lady, who, when the coach went over, fell in the window. She was de-The class in penmanship was divided | tained here for a few days under the yesterday on account of the large num- | doctor's care, but has since resumed her ber taking this subject. There are now journey. A gang of men met on Sunday about eighty students in attendance. The | and removed the last of the wreck. John students are promised a number of popu- | Palmer and James Weeks and wives were lar talks by the different Kingston | the guests of Mr. and Mrs. and Annie Weeks. Thomas Spencer has purchased and moved into the house formerly owned by Jaceb Smith.

The steambarge, which went ashore on Baldhead, has been removed. R. Porter is very low with rheumatism. Our minister, Mr. Harrison, is holding a series of meetings at the Hillier appointment. J. Chase has, moved into Mrs. Stapleton's house.

A Beautiful Instrument. A Steinway grand piano, in excellent condition, can be purchased at a very reasonable figure from a family leaving the city. A rare chance. Apply for particulars at the WHIG office.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

A Grown Rem.

Peter Farmer, of Loughboro, has sent us in, through his friend. J. P. Lacey, Sydenham, a large wurtzel weighing 121 lbs. The peculiarity of it is its shape. It looks like a fat man's arm from the elbow down, having four well formed event occurred at | fingers and a thumb.

Took No Part In London.

J. L. Haycock, M.P.P., leader of the patron members in the Ontario legislature, says that the patrons as an organization did not take an active part in the recent bye-election in London Some patrons may have can vassed and worked as individuals but not with the consent of the seciety.

An Official Interpreter.

A cablegram has been received from London, Eng., stating that Lieut. Casgrain, a graduate of the Royal military college, has just pa sed an examination in the Russian language, getting 135 points out of 158, and winning a $10,000 prize. He will be appointed official interpreter for the British army.

An Honorary Testimonial Awarded. The Royal humane society, of England, has awarded an honorary testimonial in vellum to Herbert C. Kirkland, of Lyndhurst, Ont., for his gallantry in rescuing another boy named Beerman from drowning in the Rideau canal in July last. The testimonial was forwarded through the department of marine, Ottawa.

Had A Bad A-ceident.

On Saturday afternoon while driving to a religious service a young man named Leatherland met with a bad accident. His horse, frightened at the appearance of a girl with a red dress, shied and upset the driver, throwing him against the cemetery fence. When picked up his head was cut and there were several bad bruises on the body. The buggy was destroyed. The service was at Elginburg.

A Deserter Returned.

On Wednesday a man named Edward Duverney gave himself up to Chief Cameron, of Cornwall, as a deserter. He said that he and three other members of "A" battery had got on a "tear" a few weeks ago and left the service, with which he had been connected only a few weeks. Cameron wired the authorities and Bombardier McKinnon went down on Friday morning and brought Daverney back with him.

Death Of His Brether.

Augustus Southby Cochrane, eldest son of J. C. T. Cochrane. Brockville, died at Ottawa on Sunday. He was a brother wedding breakfast the toast to the bride of Capt. Cochrane, of the Royal military college. The deceased, forty-four groom and groomsman; to the health of | years of age, had been an invalid for some time. He was attached to the geomaiden effort and easily broke the re- logical survey. He was married to a The proceeds raised | cord for neat and graceful speech by a | daughter of the late Alfred Todd, parliamentary librarian, who, with three children, survive.

Had a Ciose Call,

Sunday evening last a small boy skating on the canal at Kingston Mills broke through the ice where it was twenty feet deep, and was rescued by his father, Robert Sargent, with a pike pole, just as he was going down the third time. The little fellow made a brave struggle for life, catching hold of the thin ice sometimes which was not strong enough to hold him. It was a narrow escape.

Queen's College Students.

The annual alma mater society elections occurred on Saturday with excitement, addresses and procession. The fortunate candidates are:

Pres., A. E. Ross, B. A.; first vice-pres. A. McIntosh; second vice-pres., J. M. Denyes; secretary, Toshi Ikehara (acc.); treasurer, C. E. Smith; critic, D. A. Volume; assistant secretary, F M. Graves; committee, Walker, (medicine). Baker, ('95), Supple ('96), O'Donnell, ('97.)

No Small Potatoes.

J. P. Lacey, Sydenham, recently offered three prizes for the best sample of potatoes, a bushel in each lot The first prize was won by Mr. Asselstine, whose bushel sample consisted of forty-four Lake Hebrons, weighing 61 lbs. Sidney Woods won the second prize with Dakota Reds, forty-four potatoes, weighing 60 lbs. Charles Davey won the third surprise party was given to Dr. G. Pot- prize with forty-four Rural Blushes, ter, Monday night. The doctor and wife | weighing 60 lbs. The samples were were out of town and upon returning | greatly admired by all who beheld them.

Free Methodist Events.

Cataraqui is having a lively time of it. The Free Methodists hold the fort and a great deal of interest centres in them. Parties drive from every quarter to attend their meetings.

Last week a happy wedding took place among this sect. A. Bridge's daughter. of Westbrook, was married to Andrew Howie by Rev. Mr. Sagar, amidst much enjoyment. After the ceremony a sumptuous spread was enjoyed by some

Viewed By a Trade Journal,

The "Canadian Trade Review" has editorial reference to the hazing at the Royal military college and remarks: "Altogether the place may have been adapted to turn out 'officers' but not 'gentlemen.' The manly stand taken by young Plummer was highly commendof the greatest service to the college. The pupils are called 'cadets.' The enquiry showed that many of them could be better described by that word with 'et' left out.

The Late Richard Draper, Richard Draper, sr., of Glenburnie, died on Monday after a week's confinement to bed. For months past he has been ailing. Deceased was born in 1810 at Castle Comor, Kilkenny county, Ireland, and came to this country in 1826. He settled at Barriefield, and three years later located at Glenburnie, and hewed out a house for himself. He died on the farm he cleared, and which yielded him a comfortable living. He was thrifty, honest and intelligent, and his comforts in after years were due to his toil and economy when hardships were nupioneer . advantages. many About 1832 he married Miss Mary Hickey, his widow, who shared his labors and reared a family of great respectability and integrity. Seven children were born, but only four survive, Mrs. Patrick Shortell, Pittsburg; Richard Draper, jr., un Glenburnie; John and Ellen at homesty Deceased was a quiet gentleman devoted to home and farm. He was not obtruvib sive, but when emergency required Atual capably filled the office of deputy-reeme of Kingston township from 1856 to 1868, He was a conservative and also a magistic trate for years. His death removes acon landmark from Frontenac. and solubano