

THE KINGSTON DISTRICT

WHAT OUR INDUSTRIOUS STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS WRITE.

The Events of the Week that Concern the Residents of the Midland District—Little Escapes Notice, and Each Locality can Find Something of Interest.

GLENVALE, Feb. 26.—An enjoyable time was spent by our young people at A. Glassford's last Thursday evening.

BREWSTER'S MILLS, Feb. 26.—The hauling of cord wood is almost completed and now preparations are being made for summer wood.

YONGE FRONT, Feb. 26.—Harry Ferguson is at present very ill.—John Root had a bee on Saturday drawing logs to the mill.

ROBERTSVILLE, Feb. 26.—David Riddell contemplates engaging again on the Ottawa & Parry Sound railroad.

FALLBROOK, Feb. 26.—People are busy hauling lumber and wood to Perth.—John L. Playfair has returned from Kingston.

DESMOND, Feb. 25.—Quarterly service held here on Feb. 24th. It was a large gathering.

OLDEN STATION, Feb. 25.—Seldom are such piles of wood and logs seen at this station.

MORVEN, Feb. 26.—Visiting parties and auction sales all the rage.—F. Van Slyck sold by public auction, his herd of about thirty cows on Thursday last.

NEWBURGH, Feb. 26.—C. H. Finkle has had forty-six head of cattle dehorned.—R. B. Hope has retired from the hotel business.

CLOYNE, Feb. 25.—Farmers are busy drawing hay from Denbigh to Snyder Depot, and also to this village.

SHARPTON, Feb. 27.—George Lee's barn and stable, together with contents, hay, straw, considerable grain and over fifty fowls besides other things, were destroyed by fire last night.

CLARENDON, Feb. 26.—Herbert Cannon is becoming very popular as station agent. He is very obliging.

TAMWORTH, Feb. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Rose went down to Kingston with Sidney to have an operation on his foot.

OSO, Feb. 25.—Wm. Harrison is busy hauling a quantity of stuff to the track for M. Chambers.

ROCKFORD, Feb. 27.—We are glad to see Prof. Hodge, of Wilton, here again.—Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Miss Kate Shipman at Mallorytown.—Miss Mary Sullivan is on the sick list.—Miss Lottie Williams has returned from Brockville, where she made a visit.

CATARAQUI, Feb. 27.—Mrs. J. McKim is very ill with the grippe.—E. J. Northmore's horse ran away, Tuesday evening, between Westbrook and here.

FOSTERVILLE, Feb. 26.—Myles Murphy had a bee drawing wood to Elgin on Saturday.—M. L. Jordan and W. J. Carty are getting out timber.

SHARLOT LAKE, Feb. 26.—There has seldom been such a rush as this season in wood and logs.

VERONA, Feb. 25.—The Foresters met on Saturday night. They talk of giving an entertainment soon.—Joseph Saxten is visiting us again, selling horses and apples.

SUNBURY, Feb. 26.—Andy Solomon is training his trotter for the coming races.—The Salvation army intends holding a banquet on March 7th.

ELPHIN, Feb. 26.—Revival services will be held here next week, conducted by Rev. Mr. Buchanan, of Lanark.

TICHBORNE, Feb. 25.—Charles Dermott, laid up for some time with a cut foot, is able to be out again.

PERTH, Feb. 26.—Mr. Arthur is soon to remove to Smith's Falls.—Rev. John Wilson, B.A., of Wolford, preached in the Methodist church last Sabbath.

LANSDOWNE, Feb. 26.—The assembly in Stewart's hall, on Thursday evening, was very successful.

PETWORTH, Feb. 26.—Those on the sick list are improving.—The services in the Free Methodist church, Sunday, were well attended.

OSO, Feb. 25.—Wm. Harrison is busy hauling a quantity of stuff to the track for M. Chambers.

BEDFORD, Feb. 25.—The farmers who have been suffering from high water on West Rideau met at Ferry on Tuesday, 19th, to enquire into the cause and further discuss their claims. The caretaker of the dam was notified to attend. He, however, did not make his appearance.

SOPERTON, Feb. 26.—Walker Tabor is visiting friends at South Augusta.—Freddie Chant, Lake Lydia, spent Sunday at home.

IVY LEA, Feb. 27.—John B. Wheeler is on the sick list.—Bert Ivey is able to walk again after being laid up a long time with a cut foot.

SEELY'S BAY, Feb. 27.—On Saturday last a team belonging to John Hudson ran away from the saw mill and while passing R. Tate's on their way home one of them ran against a tree and was instantly killed.

KEELERVILLE, Feb. 27.—Large crowds from Keelerville attend the revival services at California.

MILFORD, Feb. 26.—Miss Curry and Mrs. Trumpp have been spending a week with friends in the village.

STOCK, Feb. 26.—Wood drawers are taking advantage of the excellent sleighing which still prevails.

FREDERICKSBURG, Feb. 27.—The hay business is beginning to show signs of activity. There is quite a little coming in for shipment.

THE LATE MRS. RICHARDSON.—The death occurred in Kingston, on Thursday, of Mrs. Richardson, wife of James Richardson, Brockville.

case the Union factory, but so far without success.—R. G. Purdy, of Ernestown, has purchased Marcus Johnson's farm of one hundred acres, at Morven.

PALMERSTON AND CANTON COUNCIL.—Feb. 16.—All present. On application of Messrs. Delbert Wood and John Allan, the council was formed into committee to examine the portions of road in dispute.

GLENBURNIE GLEANINGS.—GLENBURNIE, Feb. 27.—Preparing summer wood in the day time and driving parties at night seems to be the order now.

Over in New York State.—Divorced: Mr. and Mrs. Cady S. Combs, Jefferson county.

Water town parties are talking of fencing in a portion of the pine plains near Great Bend and starting a skunk farm.

Ballantyne Items.—BALLANTYNE, Feb. 23.—On Monday evening a merry sleigh load attended a concert held at Sunbury.

The Late Mrs. Richardson.—The death occurred in Kingston, on Thursday, of Mrs. Richardson, wife of James Richardson, Brockville.

The str. Merritt will probably be owned by a company of Belleville and Picton men this season. She will be improved considerably and be placed in the same business as last season.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

THE KINGSTON MARKETS.

The Prices Gathered on the Market Square and Elsewhere.

KINGSTON, Feb. 27.—Since the roads have become beaten and travelling is convenient the markets have been better attended.

Roll butter is worth from 17c to 20c per lb.; packed, 18c to 19c per lb.; butter, prints, 20c to 25c per lb.

The vegetable department has been well patronized lately. Celery is always in demand at 50c per dozen, or three bunches for 10c.

Middlings, $20 per ton; bran, $17 to $18 per ton; cornmeal, $1.75; bakers' flour, $1.90 to $2.10; family flour, $1.60 to $2 per cwt.

The grain market is a little steadier this week and it looks as if it will remain so for a while longer.

Markets Elsewhere.—MONTREAL, Feb. 19.—Trade is dull, with low prices.

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—Wheat, 64c to 64 1/2c; red, 62c to 62 1/2c; goose, 60c; barley, 48c; peas, 64c; oats, 37c to 37 1/2c.

Table with 2 columns: Stock Name and Price. Includes Canadian Pacific Railway, Duluth, Commercial Table, Montreal Telegraph Co., etc.

Table with 2 columns: Stock Name and Price. Includes Montreal Produce Markets, Flour Receipts, Patent Spring, etc.

A Plain Talker.—Brockville Times. A young preacher, named Rev. Mr. Thomas, Gananoque, occupied the pulpit of the Wall street Methodist church, Sunday.