use to take their papers from the Price 2d. to which they are directed, they are forming the publisher, and the paper | very Friday morning. to take a paper from the office, his pupils once a week through "Watt's opening of Parliament, January 31st :-the boy briskly replied "The flower

ar's hands is far from being in the hands | Paris fore the time will have come to "shout right in no degree to relax my naval and miliises in our minds---What is the prospect? | peace shall have been concluded. We are of the opinion that we may expect brought on by events in the South of Europe, one of the most important and trying political another very fine crop of wheat, and our my attention has not been withdrawn from the orderle ever experienced, yet order was preser- any force, except that heroic one that came down there is much, continued to grow until a plicable to his dominions, and tending to the weather came, it came in earnest, and the part of Europe. frost has held a firm grasp upon the soil for commerce, and free navigation with the Republic Cities the location of the State offices and Goeven long weeks, a good portion of which He of Ch are considered favorable circum- shall be laid before you. for winter wheat. The danger to | Gentlemen of the House of Commons: the wheat crop, if any, is therefore in the . The estimates for the ensuing year will ture, and the fact of such uninterrupted such a manner as to provide for the exigenci il so late a date, augurs en uninterrupted concluded. spring time, when it comes, so that we My Lords and Gentlemen. find no circumstances in the past, or pros-pe tive ones in the future, unfavorable to withstanding the war, the burdens, and sacri-venience. Justice should decide the question, the wheat crop. Such are our impres- people-the revenue of my Empire remains at the claims of the Several aspirants to the tions in reference to the prospective crop. | unimpaired staurant, in the lower part of the city, has | have so nobly afforded me; and they may be asa ring-tailed monkey for a pet, which he sured that I shall not call upon them for exermually leaves at his place of business, on tions beyond what may be required by a due relocking it up for the night. When the nity of the empire. morning, nothing was to be seen of the ternal improvements which I recommend to marks:monkey, but no aperture could be discov- your attentive consideration. ered by which he might have escaped. tant particulars between the commercial laws of as most strongly, on going through this cor-This mysterious disappearance baffled Scotland and those of the other parts of the loudly called, was at last observed peeping trade. Measures will be proposed to you for rethrough the door of the stove, into which | medying this evil. he had crept for comfort after the fire expired .- N. Y. Commercial.

SAM SLICK'S STATISTICS.—Now doctor, liable to pay local dues, and passing tolls, has us---we mean the proligious amount of mental liable to pay local dues, and passing tolls, has work that Napoleon underwent --every page been the subject of much complaint. Measures Yankees, nor the colonists themselves, know | will be proposed to you for affording relief in almost might be quoted in corroboration; and anything of, that is about the extent and im- regard to these matters. der British rule. Take your pencil now, posed to you, which will doubtless receive your our pencil has marked. nd write down a few facts I will give you, attentive consideration. of square miles of territory in them, whereas | councils and guide them to the promoti all Europe has but three millions some odd | the great object of my invariable solicitud undred thousands, and our almighty ever- | the welfare and happiness of my people. asting United States still less than that I The imports for 1845 were between ten and lessons are given every night to all who and eleven millions, and the exports (ships will come. During one evening rhetoric and lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and can think of lity, he confesses himself blase, and ca English to fight us, we had but two and a keeping; the next, music, &c. Thus every half, these provinces now contain nearly half, these provinces now contain nearly to three, and in half a century will reach the given by competent citizens, who are clergyada 68. The united revenue is nearly eral, and other productions in the world, ensuing season, as last year, between Hamilton, without mercy. In Spain he must hang a score fested, until the object of its labor was achievand peopled by such a race as no other Toronto and Oswego, forming an admirable concountry under heaven can produce.—Nanection between the Great Western and Oswego made responsible for disorders. The French control of the worst characters:

The priests are to be ed. Hoping that Providence may so dispose of the extensive missions carried on by the Church, pointing particularly to that ure and Human Nature.

Piety is not an end, but a means, through trary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions. If subscribers orue their subscriptions. If subscribers orue their subscriptions. If subscribers orNew York Have as much from removal as the old city of Kingiy less. In fact, the statements put forth everyas much from removal as the old city of Kingit was moved by Rev. Mr Clark, seconded by where are, that the city is in a retrogressive Rev.Mr Dobbs, and

FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 22

The Queen's Speech

ning year, have necessarily occupied my se- their erection.

tould give vigor to the operation of the war. I head of river and foot of Lake navigation, have deemed it my duty not to decline any over- | nearer the boundary line between the two prov- There can be nothing more important to individald do for the applicant. The peti- tures which might reasonably afford a prospect inces than any other place which has been set was that the pre- of a safe and honorable peace. Accordingly, cupied as Capital, and is not densely packed home, than to hear matters discussed, and to how to him when they met in when the Emperor of Austria lately offered to and over-crowded like Toronto. The Commer-French, to employ his good offices with the Em- | ber of years. Not long since it was the point | practical application, be productive of the most nowledge of the world displayed in perer of Russia, with a view to endeavor to from which the produce of the Lakes was tran- beneficial results. When a city is prosperous bring about an amicable adjustment of the mat- shipped to Montreal. When the Rideau enjoyed and progressive, all citizens must, more or less, ters at issue between the contending powers, I a large proportion of the carrying trade, it was THE WHEAT PROSPECTS.—The Alton the offer thus made, and have the satisfaction to reuce Canals, the improvements in the St. Law- My purpose will be to bring before the public (III.) Courier says:-Although the wheat | inform you, that certain conditions have been rence, the enlargement of the Erie Canal, and of last year is not all marketed, and agreed upon, which I hope may prove the foun- the introduction of the American bonding sys-

er, the fact stares us in the I lu conducting these negotiations, I shall be be added her waning commercial position. ut a few months will elapse be- careful not to lose sight of the objects for which nother fact may be added with reference to another harvest home." And the question tary preparations, until a satisfactory treaty of ings, such as have been witnessed in other cit- military engineering, that Kingston might, with nion is based on the following reasons; state of things in the North; and in conjunc- ved. The early winter was very mild, so much I tion with the Emperor of the French, I have We do not consider it necessary that the Scat that the late sown wheat, of which concluded with the King of Sweden and Norway of Government should be in a large commercial later date than usual. When cold preservation of the balance of power in that operates to the disadvantage of the poor.

I have also concluded a treaty of friendship, ed advisable to make the leading round was covered with snow | I have given directions that these treaties (a third rate city) for its Capital; the General that a war between Great Britain and the Uni- things, were thankful for what had been done the part of the returning officers, who permitted

d weather for so long a period, and un- of war, if peace should unfortunately not be fices which it has unavoidably imposed upon my irrespective of minor considerations, and looking enlightened patriotism of my loyal subjects, for overlooked. A Monksy Trick .- A keeper of a re- the continuance of that support which they earch for some time, but Jocko, being United Kingdom, has occasioned inconvenience

Measures will also be proposed to you for im proving the laws relating to partnership simplifying those laws, and thus rendering easy the employment of capital in comme The system under which merchant shipping and when you are alone meditating, just | Upon these and all other matters upon which chew on 'em. First, there are four millions blessing of Divine Providence may favor you in. Canada alone is equal in size to A novel educational plan has been started in Eugenie Clary, Joseph's sister-in-law, must man, Robert Jackson, Esq. will stand first on tending not only to fit youth for life in Time, but Great Britain, France, and Prussia.—The Atton, Illinois, and has operated well. Certain afterwards a young man proposes for his sister ral of the Ordnance.

| looked on a rumor about the Canadian Church | Pauline. The young man is poor; therefore, he | I trust this communication will be acceptable, becoming independent, considering this independent. Great Britain, France, and Prussia. The Alton, Illinois, and has operated well. Certain either be broken off or concluded. Shortly the list, and should be populated Master-Gene- in Eternity. It was with great sensitiveness he pace as large as Holland, Belgium, Greece, joined and rented a large, fine room, and warm is not to be thought of. Two months more, and and be found interesting to your readers. There dent spirit not always a safe one. The trials of sold included) between nine and ten mil- elecution are taught; the next evening's exer- no resource but pure selfishness. Thiers and lions. At the commencement of the A- class are upon architecture, drawing, mathe- other friendly historians mention how deliberate- people more useful—that do more for a nation's prove the faith of Christians, and the purity of merican revolution, when we dared the maties, &c.; the next, penmanship and booksians after the battle of Austerlitz. They had may paralyze trade and abridge public credit, prospective attacks? Could anything be demous amount of eighteen millions of men, school teachers, book-keepers, &c. This isolate the group and cut off their retreat by hung upon their exertions; the eyes of the prevent the Jewish fail. Could they rest on the

the Monthly Sale of Needlework in connection | suit the government; and Joseph is to distort or e highest culture. Wherefore it may be with the Ladies' Missionary Association of St. Joseph is advised to leave their Constitution to smarked, that those who pursue piety as Andrew's Church, will be held on Monday next the inhabitants of Corfu, "for the present."

Seat of Government to Moutreal.

be the claims of Kingston, and we also notice that turn to Kingston. There are many reasons w country, taking population as the basis, than any other city, Ottawa (late Bytown) perhaps parisons, enterprise is wholly deficient among excepted. The city is strongly fortified, indeed parisons, enterprise is wholly deficient among be deemed impregnable. If the people of this city, amount of the most valuable lands in the city, to favor you with several communications ings, that could be conceived. By fixing the was 7 when great stronghold of Russia in the Black Sea, has state of things which existed at Quebec and of yielded to the persevering constancy, and to the now exists in Toronto. After allowing ample

Kingston is a very healthy place—has the best But, while determined to omit no effort which | market we believe in either Province, is at the myself and my august ally, the Emperor of the | cial position of Kingston has waned for a numconsented, in concert with my Ailies, to accept prosperous, but the completion of the St. Lawpart which has passed from the produ- tions for such a treaty will shortly be opened at to the great loss sustained by the sudden remove stion of a general treaty of peace. Negotia- | tem, have all tended to divide business; so that al of the Seat of Government from there, ies. During the time the Seat of Government some trouble and very little expense, become > vernment. The State of New York has Albany from the columns of some American journals so that those who differed from them in many bec having obtained his seat through fraud on Government meets at Washington, on the quiet ted States would certainly lead to the conquest by her missionaries; in her form of doctrine, his name to be inserted in the tickets ballotted and busile of the sea-board, and sectuded from of Canada. I do not attempt to dispute the ever busy and restless upheavings of the point with conceited Yankees; it may be so, or beautiful liturgy, she stood deservedly high, and Warranto" was sued out by the protesting op-

speaking of the selection of a permanent Capital for Upper Canada, we should decidedly prefer da are entertained by some respectable gentry of Toronto on that ground; but there are other | New York, it may be well to look to and make honor of being the Country's Capital, we are issued, containing " the confidential correspond- a sensible individual. loors and shutters were opened yesterday There are many subjects connected with in- ence of Napoleon with his brother Joseph," re-

The First Napoleon

Were we asked what points have impressed respondence, we should unbesitatingly say that they are Napoleon's exhaustless endurance labor, his unfailing versatility of resource-his of arms and ammunition in the ordnance stores, doing the will of God. unmitigated contempt for the people of his own and every other country-his disingenuousness even in the most intimate relations of life--- his habitual unscrupulousness as to means for attaining his end. But cur space will not warrant the more we read, the more we are astonished. tance of the North American provinces law in Great Britain and Ireland will be pro-

is at Genoa, be gay and amuse himself, adding control of Robert Jackson, Esq., of whose abili- lukewarm and dead, it lost its missionary char- Varden coming in second. live. Was be so very tender in his domestic rela- speak; but every one acquainted with that gen- subject of "education" as touched upon by the games kept up, in order to foster in our youth tions? On the 5th of the following month, he | tleman must admit, that, if true British blood and | preceding speaker, as furnished in our schools | such manly and athletic exercises .-- Herald, thinks he may be fool enough to marry. Next loyalty to the Queen go to make an Artillery- and pronounced it Sadducean in its character, day, he tells Joseph that his engagement with

We are requested to inform our readers that solely used for the dissemination of rumors that his mind.

Matters and Things in Kingston.

Sin :- The city of Kingston has the reputation of being in such an inactive state, and so devoid of enterprize, in consequence of the listlesaness lone, Mr Churchwarden Rudston was called passed into a proverb that the city itself, its with prayer; the Secretary, Mr O'Loughlin, read in Canada ever suffered transactions, are becoming every year beautiful- prevented inserting. state, instead of a progressive one.

Now, though it must be admitted that the or the United Church of England, throughout commercial and manufacturing state of the city | the world, is a subject of devout thanksgiving will not bear a comparison with others more highly favored, and possessed of more energy that there are to be found within ber, points caland enterprise among its citizens, yet, it is not ling for much humiliation, that God would not correct to think, that, because we suffer by com-

It is not my intention at present to enter into place against invasion in the country. Until a discussion respecting the exact quantity of enalways been-to keep a strong military force at citizens, or to what extent this enterprize may the Country's Capital. There is no place in with safety be carried. Let it be sufficient at for keeping up a strong militia force as King- present to state that it is my intention, at some Besides this, Government owns a large future time, and that time not far distant, in a spot too the best adapted for public build- that will show to you, and to the public, the adusion of Parlis- | Capital at that place, the buildings could all be | vantages which we possess for carrying on all es to his mind, one day desired a young signal and important success: Sebastopol, the which would be a great improvement upon the our business transactions may be carried.

I find that, to carry out my views with respect room for buildings, a sufficient quantity of Gov. to the information promised in my former para-The naval and military preparations for the ernment land could be disposed of to pay for graph, personal examination will have to be made, and much time will have to be spent, in acquiring information upon which to base sound conclusions, and to form a correct judgment, nals who have adopted a certain locality as their see subjects brought forward which will, by a have a share in its prosperity and advancement such matters as will give a fair knowledge of the present and future prospects of this city.

> is to its manufacturing position out of the question formidable place-capable of resisting almost so unmercifully upon sebastopole. Not only is Fort Henry eligibly situated for resisting an atmade upon the city This is certainly one advantage which we possess, and, at the present, not an inconsiderable one, when it is fulminated threatened, and hopes of the acquisition of Canathe best of our advantages, and assure the adventurous Americans who will be fool-hardy enough to come upon such an undertaking, that they will have more than a "bone to pick." they visit Kingston with the object in view of dispossessing the rightful proprietors. This is all I will say about this ridiculous subject; it seems to me to be more worthy of the disturbed brain of a madman, than the sober reasonings of

In connection with our admirable position for combativeness among many of our citizens. we possess forts and redoubts, we also have men there are men to use them, and these not individuals who have adopted the military profes- God made of the Church, as an instrument of proved equally as unfortunate as McLeod, and sion, but the civil one, who are so imbued with civilization, and the means for the propagation Deacon again proved the victor. company of Artillery, without any connection was peculiarly missionary, and here lay the of a start. It was really amusing to see how with the Provincial Militia. This is the best cause of its success; where the Church was alive excited the little felows became. Cheer after movement of the kind, for Kingston must al. to its duty, it followed the example of the primi- cheer welcomed the victor on his honors. Was Napoleon sincere or was he vacillating? ways stand more in need of Artillerymen than tive Christians, "stretching its borders and about thirty men and boys entered. The race On the 9th of August, '95, he bids Joseph, who of Riflemen. This company will be under the strengthening its stakes," but when it became was cleverly won by an Irish lad, young Mr. is downright misanthropical, and cares not to ties and qualifications as an artillerist I cannot acter and the Divine favor. He referred to the

I am, Yours, &c., CATABAQUI. Kingston, Feb. 2.

in the Building on Princess Street, a few doors above this office, formerly known as the North last, is encored at, over and over again. The 1806, bids of railroad freights, have prevented their movestating broadly | ment for a market. The Brattleboro Argus | O'Loughlin, and

Church. The attendance was not so good as or former occasions of the kind, but still there were and future prospects of the Society were looked on with warm appreciation and sympathy. On motion of Mr Munos, seconded by Mr Maof many of its most public citizens, that it has the chair. Rev. Wm. David open d the meeting mmerce, its manufactures, and its business the Report, which, from want of space, we are Resolved, 1st. - That the present high position to God, without whom nothing is strong, noth- ken of would be met. enter into judgment with her, and praver for with singing and the benediction. his guiding, comforting and protecting presence.

spoke of the position occupied by the united will be held this evening. churches of England and Ireland as deservedly seems to be the policy of Government—as it has terprise to be found among our most prominent high, from being the bulwark of Protestant christianity, from enjoying the esteem of all other denominations, and from having received tian Association, in your paper of to-day, has, I in a long career so many evidences of Divine favor. She had been brought through trials, vi- of our destitute poor. cissitudes and dangers, and now occupied almost the highest position that a church could attain; yet it was to be hoped that she was not lief of destitute families by means of a concert. thus elevated to fulfil the Roman proverb, "that those whom the gods wished to destroy, they tizens, and if Messrs Murdoch, Ambrose, and first promoted to the highest dignities." It was also to be prayed that if she yet be enveloped in a good cause, will again consent to make arin the gloom which threatens the christian church, a long day of grace and gladness may on a large audience. follow. There was great cause for humiliation of the members of the church, for no doubt in it were many errors; over these he would rather buting to the relief of our suffering poor. throw the mantle of charity, and hope that, by prayer and diligence, the church would arise superior to all attacks made on her purity. The Rev. Mr Dobbs felt impressed that they > had met under no ordinary circumstances, as, for instance, the late anniversaries, but as members of one church, and he would therefore confine bimself to speaking of those things which York Central Depot, in that city, in such quenmore exclusively concerned its welfare. The tities, that the employees in that department resolution he conceived to be emineurly scriptu- are busy day and night. The trouble produced Leaving its commercial, its agricultural and ral, and said that at no time in the church's his. by the snow has caused an accumulation at this tory was there more need of humiliation for its point perfectly unparalleled by that of former A- for the present, I purpose to speak of this city errors, and they had at no time more cause to years. as a military post. It is obvious to every indi- be thankful for the high success vouchsafed to England and Ireland as more than nominal, and Nantucket has been cut off from communication hoped that the union of the church in Canada with the main land by the ice. The Nantucket with that in England would long continue. Inquirer of the 6th inst., announces with Looking over the world, it was found that, large capitals, Eleven days later from America. wherever Britain's commerce or arms had gone, the steamer Island Home baving landed her there was Britain's Bible, and wherever Briton's | mails and passengers at Quidnit. The news sons might be, there was Britain's church also, was important, including the election of Mr it was in this feature, he thought a great part of Banks as Speaker, Foreign and California intelher strength lay. He then spoke of that posi- ligence, &c., &c. tion in which the church had been placed by Providence: in her labors she had been blessed, her mode of church government, and in her for the opposing candidate, a writ of "Quo it may be otherwise. But, now that war is be thought that there could be no church found posant; whereupon the spurious member has more scriptural in its worship and teachings. persuaded the Council to conduct his defence in Yet, for all this, its members were verily guilty law at the expense of the city! in many things, such as the neglect of church privileges, in the matter of education, and a fearful ignorance as to their responsibility; there was no season more befitting than the present and created a great deal of sport; more than a for humiliation in this respect. The Rev. gen- thousand persons were present. The Stewards tleman concluded by urging upon all the accep- were the Sheriff, the Mayor and Mr A. J. Mactation of the finished work of redemption, and donnell who entered into the thing with much the necessity for watching unto prayer.

Moved by Rev. R. V. Rogers, seconded by won with ease by Mr McLeod, who was more Captain Smith, and

Resolved, 2d .- That, as the Church is God's instrumentality in carrying out his purposes and plans throughout the world, whilst it is our the hurdle race; this was the keenest contest of defence, there seems to be no lack of a spirit of privelege to be members of a branch truly apos- the whole. Mr McLeod led the start, but on tolic and scriptural, we would rest our expec- taking the last burdle slipped and fell, when tations for the future, not on outward organization-not on the mere possession of truth in our to garrison them; if there are large quantities | s audards, but on faithfully and affectionately | inhabitants. The increase of population project is christened the Alton Polytechnic In- less and kneeling, they were cooly shot down. have been compelled to acknowledge their usebreaking it. This being done, and they defence- whole world have beheld their deeds, and many purity of their doctrine? The early Church was With a lying tone of sentimentality he writes fulness. Let us drop a tear upon the graves of anism. It was universally admitted they had "I fancy that I still bear the cries of these our heroic countrymen, who obeyed the call of among them truth in all its clearness, for llion and a half, and their shipping The Oswego Times says:-" We learn by a wretebes whom it was impossible to save." duty, and fell in the discharge of it. While no Church exalted the Bible more; they had these facts and see what an empire is it is probable the splendid international line of finance officers had cheated him; "I had made the splendid international line of finance officers had cheated him; "I had made the splendid international line of finance officers had cheated him; "I had made the splendid international line of ful of the sufferings of the Crimean army, and them not to rest in these; they had no Generals are to be enriched. The people of events that this great calamity of war may be on by the Church, pointing particularly to that Italy, and "indeed of every other country, must averted from every language and people," of Sierra Leone, where there is spoken every language known in Africa, and the labors of Ministers there, and what a multiplying harvest they promised. Great was their responsibility. and numerous their/privileges .- He urged on The quantity of potatoes new stored in the them, in conclusion, the use of the one, and the

The Rev. Mr Rogers spoke of the use which McKenzie and Mr Deacon; when McKenzie

Moved by Rev. Mr Bower, seconded by Mr pal form of Government; it should form part of the frequent intercessions of every member. Chat the Great Head of the Universal Church would speedily accomplish the proposed plans of dividing the present Diocese of Toronto; and place

The Rev. Mr Bower referred to the newspaper enough present to testify that the past working discussion about the appointment of the bishop of this diocese; he thought no one had a right to interfere in this matter; we had a sufficient guarantee in the appointment of the Archbishop of Canterbury, that the gentleman, whoever he might be, would be fitted for his office. There was much need of a Chief Shepherd here, one of a missionary character, and, as the resolution expressed it, " after God's own heart"; the people in the back townships lacked spiritual teaching; -and were the appointment of the bishop confirmed by his being established in his diocese, he had no doubt but that the want spo-

> Mr O'Loughlin seconded the resolution. collection was taken up, and the meeting closed

The meeting of the Parochial Society in con-In moving the resulution, the Rev. gentleman | nection with St. John's Church, Portsmouth,

> TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS. Sir, - The appeal from the Young Men's Chrisfeel assured, excited much sympathy on behalf

May I be allowed to suggest through your columns the plan of aiding the fund for the re-Our city has much musical talent among its ciothers who have before lent their valuable aid rangements for a concert, they may depend to-

In addition to the pleasure of listening to good music, we would feel that we were contri-

I am, Sir, Your obed't serv't, A " CITIZEN."

Kingston, Feb. 21st, 1856.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser is informed that freight has been pouring into the New

He looked on the union of the churches of LATE NEWS IN NANTUCKET .- The Island of

A member elect of the Corporation of Que-

Snow-Shoe Races

This interesting affair came off Wednesday. The first match was for a mile; which was

than a match for his competitors. The second was a walking match; won very cleverly by Mr Charles Gildersleeve. The one that created the greatest interest was young Mr Deacon passed him, and gained the A race for a half-a mile then followed, which was well contested; the brush lay between Mr

The boy's race-little fellows under thirteen--a love of glory, that they willingly afford time, of his will toward man. In order to carry out then came to the stand. It was amusing to see us in citing proofs from the text. Indeed, as when their daily avocations are over, to organ- this, it was necessary that the Ministry should how those fine little fellows skipped over the regards the one fact that has more than all struck | ize themselves in military companies. We have be enlightened, for, unlike the illiterate fisher- snow. Young Leckie, a elever little frilew, won already two rifle companies, thus formed; and a man of the early Church, they had no direct fit. the day. The Sheriff's son fell on the art; he project is on foot to establish an independent ness at the hands of God. The early Church like a brick, but the foremost MAN had too much

Great crecit if due to the Gentlemen who got

The Mid-Watch.

looked on a rumor about the Canadian Church FROM BAYARD TAYLOR'S " POEMS OF THE ORIENT." I pace the deck at dead of night, When the moon and starlight fail,

> And heavily flaps the sail. On the darkness glimmers the binnacle lamp, With feeble and lonely spell: No sound but the passing sentry's tramp, Or his measured cry: "All's Well."

And the cordage creaks to the lazy swells.

To and fro, with accustomed step, I walk the deck alone, And I think of the thousand watches kept In the year forever flown; Of the friends in whose manly fellowship I labored long ago, Till death relieved their watch on earth. And they went to rest below.

I think of the gallant ones who died When our broadsides shook the sea. And sorrow for them subdued the pride Of our cheers of victory; Of those who fell in the fevered lands. . Or sank in the whelming wave; Those corpses waste on the barren sands. Or float in a fathomless grave.

And the looks revive that were faint and dim In the shadows of the years. And I scan them o'er till my eyelids swim With the strange delight of tears; They people the dark with their pallid brows As they silently throng around, And the sea its phosphor radiance throws. On the faces of the drowned.

So many a noble heart is cold That shared my duties then I have looked full oft in the face of deat And let him come in his chosen tim Some friend will think of m And I shall live in the lonely hour Of his midnight watch at one