Toronto, Feb. 21. The House divided on Wednesday night on The Mr Dorion's amendment, when the numbers were found to be - Yeas 27, nays 63.

The second paragraph of the proposed address being again read, and a debate arising thereon, on motion of Mr Murney, the debate was adjourned until Thursday.

To-day, before the House proceeded with the business of the address, Mr Powell said he desired to take up the question which had been given notice of by Mr J. Macdonald relative to to the new arrangements of the Crown Lands Department, which, by excluding persons having business to transact with that department, was a great annoyance to himself and others.
