ebb. Clouds of snow were flying like upon the subject." sheeted demons over the whole heavens. In company with nine others, we left Vernon for Oneida Depot-a distance of six miles. The sleigh was an open one: we were compelled to sit upon the outpost rim of the box, with our feet dangling in "giry nothing." The wind was directly in our face, and blew with an energy and fierceness that was decidedly diabolic. At 1 was found to be almost insensible. Mr and principles will be maintained. Cuyler, of the Albany Transcript, who was one of the party, was reduced to the consistency of an icicle; a small boy in front and a big dog behind were severally frozen speechless. We certainly never before suffered so severely from cold .--Utica Herald, March 31.

Colp .- Two suburban correspondents | Huron. in differents counties write us that the mercury in the thermometer in their localities indicated only 15 degrees above zero, at sunrise, this morning. An im-can smile while the other is pinched."

it. The cat also came out and stood by widely diffused. him some time, and then walked slowly away.

lution was as follows:

"Whereas it has been found advisable to change the name of this Post Office from Tun DiFFICULTY AT Rio JANBIRO,-We have is desirable that the village shall bear the American ship of war, but the following letter, he departed in the Northern Light. same name ;-Resolved, that from and af- dated Rio Janeiro, February 13, which we find ter the 1st April the name of this village in the English papers, gives fuller particulars : -shall be Florence."

POST OFFICE NOTICE

B. DEACON, P.M. Post Office, Kingston, ? 4th April, 1856

also a good Jobber.

Sailing of the Ocean Steamers. that astonished beholders. So delighted were Asia. Mar. 22. . Liverpool New York. The President of the Republic of Costa Rica to PROM UNITED STATES.

IJ Single copies of the Daily News may be dies, children, and gentlemen in a certain | bad at the counter of the publishing office |

a. Single copies of the Chronicle and News | to break those of our brethren, and to extermi-Sontaining the news of the week may be had, in | nate their oppressors. rappers for mailing. Price 4d. each. Issued elicited a few statistical facts which show that rancors. No more factions, no more fratricidal martial law was being established. A TEDIOUS SLEIGHR DE .- Friday was the apprehension is not without foundation. awful. The wind howled terrifically. The The Watertown Journal, in quoting them, says: thermometer was down for below zero "The following figures throw an alarming light "

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 5.

NUMBER OF FOREIGN AND NATIVE VOTERS. Foreign. Albany, New York, 2,905

It is not denied that the politics of the larger | America. cties exert a commanding and controlling in no time could we see the length of the that influence will be still greater. It is also God will give us the victory, and with it peace, sleigh for the snow that heat piteously worthy of remark that in most of these cities the concord, liberty, and the union of the great down upon us. Now dragging wearily foreign population is gaining rapidly on the Central American family.

The Brockville Monitor printing materials and depth, and now plunging into pitchholes. copyright have been purchased by Mr McMullin, On our arrival at Oncida one of the ladier author of the History of Canada, &c. Its name > contemporaries that O. R. Gowan, Esq., has arms, and therefore he holds Costa Rica respon- rather have the famine!" been directed by the government to proceed to sible for the evils which may ensue. In a sub-Goderich, for the purpose of making enquiry in- sequent proclamation and "general order," adto certain alleged land defalcations; and that dressed "to the people of Central America," he | The European Times, in an article of some It is probable that he will succeed to the office intimates that his efforts to establish friendly re- length on this subject, concludes with the sub- we select two or three anecdotal paragraphs :- full confidence was unanimously expressed that of Crown Land Agent for the County of lations with the neighboring States, have proved joined :---

before the Queen and Prince Albert, by the with scorn and disdain. Contempt and con- brings an account of occurrences connected with der the Empress suffered so much." Mr Caird's Sermon has attracted universal sages we have sent to the other Governments. pression prevails, to some extent, that the attention, not because it contains any " new The only reason given for such conduct is the next month will be April. -- Not so: it thing," but from the earnest eloquence with presence of American forces in the state of NL has been arranged at Boston and New York for For some time the Empress would not believe bigation of circumstances quite irrespective of due attention to the things of this world is set "Against the service parties and service gov. with negroes from the coast of Africa, and respectively and property and in fact it become negotiate to force it force it force it force it force it become negotiate to force it fo forth. Nor does the reverend gentleman at all veroments of Central America, the Americans cently a slaver, manned by an American crew and, in fact, it became necessary to force it from be made to the Canadian Government for pres-Quaint old Fuller says, "Let him who hesitate to confound the hopes of the religious in expects one class of society to prosper in worldling; he is not satisfied that a Sunday proffered friendship has been rejected. the highest degree, while the other is in well kept will in any-wise balance the sins of a only make them feel that our enmity may be as doubt of the fact that this horrid traffic has re- (says the Daily News correspondent), is really be effectual." distress, try whether one side of his face mis-spent week; he has no idea that man can dangerous and destructive as our friendship attain to the height from which he fell by a due "The troops of the army of the republic will adherence to ordinances and the works of the assume and wear the Red Ribbon. A FAITHFUL Dog.-Mr E. Meriam, law. His preaching is of that kind which, of Brooklyn Heights, writes to the New pointed with momentous inquiries, and uttered on the 11th of March, immediately after the restanding between this country and the United and Louis after his father; Eugena from his may be considered expedient for the purpose of the death of a dog who for some years The reader cannot but shrink from the searching bad been in the habit of assisting him in light which the dising the day in the reader cannot but shrink from the searching same evening, on parade, the red badge was before congress relative to the enlistment and to be his godfather, and Joseph in compliment to his intended godmother, the Queen of Swe-Tite, hr P., That Messrs. Weguelin, Hubbard, night, by waking him every hour when ed before our gracions Queen, it contains no the clock struck. This dog, during a ten flattering allusions to the glory of her empire, for the ever changing campaign life in the tentyear's residence in the family, had so won | nor to the love which all her subjects bear | ed field." upon the good feelings of all, that there towards her. The preacher would seem to was not a dry eye in the house when he say that there is no royal road to God's favor; religion knows no aristocracy, no kings or royal a German and a French company. Mr Meriam adds: after I had put his blood; the pious peasant is greater in the king body in a box I called in two large dogs dom of heaven than the great ones of the earth, would-be liberator of Central America, is duly is semetimes called the "bluster" of American has drawn forth some comments from the Exhauster of the American aminer newspaper. that had seen him in the street; they Her Majesty showed her approval of these throttled, and his gang of adventurers are there is an under current of strong common. In reply to the ing seemed to understand and feel. One of "words fitly spoken," and it is to be hoped that scattered in every direction by the serviles of them brought a bone with him, and left the solemn truths which they set forth will be Costa Rica.

We understand that the Rev. G. Douglass is about to Preach a Course of Sermons, having CHANGE OF NAME. -- A meeting was special reference to Young Men. The first of held on the 22nd ult., in the village of Vic- the Course will be delivered next Sabbath Even. toria, (Lambton,) having for its object a ling in the Wesleyan Church, Sydenham Street. change in its name. The principal reso- Subject-" A Life of Pleasure." Service to commence at 6 o'clock.

A misunderstanding arose between the English during the whole of which river passage, we had subscribers to the fund for the endowment of the of truth will be offered up on the altar of fudge, the 1st December, and to have all accounts and French Admirals and the American Common not been able to procure a mouthful to eat, and Bishopric of Kingston, conditioned on the ap-Butchers.—According to the London dore in Rio Janeiro, which at one time wore a a number of my tellow passengers found themrather serious aspect. A steamer called the selves landed at Castiflo, with empty stomachs of the Rev. T. Hincks, all reside in Medical Times, the highest rates of mortality are found among the butchers. The this port to coal and water. On the eve of her ficers a fine opportunity to indulge their genewriter states that the red injected face of departure, Admiral Johnstone received info rmation that the ressel was in reality a Russian laws with dinner tickets, which they did in an laws with dinner tickets, which they did in an laws with dinner tickets, which they did in an laws relating to the manufacture as to the healthy nature of his occupation. The disguise, conveying an enert none off-hand, whole-souled sort of style, quite as to the healthy nature of his occupation. quantity of munitions of war, Minie rifles, he savy refreshing to witness in this mercenary But this idea has been corrected by care- cannon, etc., to the Pacific, and that the gre ater | world; but, in fact, rather bewildering to the ful observation, and an analysis of the last number of her officers were Russians. The . Ad- unsuspecting ticket holders, when, after dinner, miral immediately pulled on board the Savann ab, their names were taken, and they were informed American frigate, and demanded explanations | that, as partakers of government bounty, they CELEBRATION OF ST. PATRICE'S DAY wigh ground, and refused to allow a search to be fillibustero ranks, under command of his Excel- at Mr. John Platt's jun., Nelson Street, Toronto, last, after school be exhibited signs of the male. IN MONTREAL.—In addition to the religi- made on board the steamer. Upon this the lency Gen. Walker. At this stage of operations, on Wednesday evening, March 19, to take into ous services and procession of Tuesday English Admiral threatened to send his steamers some of my friends becoming alarmed at the consideration the providing a homestead for W. all violence with a bride towards his father. last, in honor of the Patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the aspect of things, paid their passage down the Li. Mackenzie, Esq., M. P. P., by the people of Canada, as a token of gratitude for his unswery.

In the same steamer of the Patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the aspect of things, paid their passage down the Canada, as a token of gratitude for his unswery.

In the same steamer of the Patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the aspect of things, paid their passage down the Canada, as a token of gratitude for his unswery.

In the same steamer of the Patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the aspect of things, paid their passage down the Canada, as a token of gratitude for his unswery.

In the same steamer of the Patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the aspect of things, paid their passage down the Canada, as a token of gratitude for his unswery.

In the same steamer of the patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the same steamer of the patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the same steamer of the patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the same steamer of the patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the same steamer of the patron Saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out to overhaul the vessel should she leave the saint of Ireland, out t a dinner, attended by nearly one hundred should, he towed out by her to protect the however, proceeded; and when we got to Virble tried the door of the gunsmith shop, and finding the question was then put on the main motion. men-with their guests, was given at Mr turned to his frigare, bound his sails to the rough to land, we were taken across the lake to James Leslie, Esq., was called to the chair, it fastened, raised a window and climbed in. as amended. Year 58, nays 51. O'Meara's well-known Restaurant, St. and Riff man got up their steam, whilst the Secretary.

Alexis Street. The Chair was very ably and Riff man got up their steam, whilst the Secretary.

Alexis Street. The Chair was very ably as amended. Year 58, nays 51.

The House went into committee, and rose without reporting. Alexis Street. The Chair was very ably and Riff man got up their steam, whilst the Secretary.

Street. The Chair was very ably vanual ran ber gues out, and actually cleared more than fifteen, notwithstanding the New hymns. His friends were at the windows watch.

The select committee on the Argenteuil Elements of the Sabbath School hymns. His friends were at the windows watch. cillor, supported on his right and left by W. was patched up by the Commander of the Capt. Farnham then commenced the press sys Besolved, — That a committee be formed to ing him, and after he had finished the hymn, he S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the S. Rellingham and the Househall against the election to the second to the second th Murray, Esq., President of the St. Anderto the street declared that he was not satisfied. Bay, although they had payed for them out of the St. George's Society, and A. M. Delisle, Esq., Vice President of the St. America towed the Explanation. Thus far we know John Baptist Society. The President of the St. George's Society. The President of the St. George's Institute, C. Garth, Esq., vice President of the St. George's Society. The President of the St. america towed the Indefatigable, Rifler the Mechanics' Institute, C. Garth, Esq., vice President of the Bay and the Indefatigable, Rifler the Mechanics' Institute, C. Garth, Esq., vice President of the Bay and the Indefatigable, Rifler the Mechanics' Institute, C. Garth, Esq., vice President of the St. Ander having taken one or two on board the barge, Capt. F. came to me, laying the monyth ticket to California. On answer-the representatives of the Herald, Transitives of the Heral and Costa Rica. From the N.Y. Commercial, April 2.

The Nicarage a Transit Company's steamsh Star of the West, arrived this morning. On he outward passage she reached Puota Armas Mails will be closed daily (Sat- I the 18th of March, left on the 23rd, and touched

> The British war steamer Eurydice Capt. Tarrelton; mail steamship Hermes, Capt. Carrington, and American herm, brig G. W. Russel, 141 tf were at Punta Arenas when the Star of the West left. The first mate of the last named vessel, G. W. Rhodes, fell overboard night of March 15, and was drowned. His body was recovered the next day.

15, which fully confirms the news received yes- a few one storey houses in the city, not fit for an terday by telegraph from New Orleans, relative to the declaration of war by Costa Rica against the Provincial Government of Nicaragua. ollowing is our translation of the official pro-

all its Inhabitants.

COUNTRYMEN march to Nicaragua to destroy the impious and exorbitant charges for conveyance are made phalanx that has reduced it to the most shame- to those who are dissatisfied and wish to return ful servitude; let us march to fight for the to the United States, $35 being charged for the liberty of our brethren.

They call you, they await your coming to rise | sons, when the fare to others is but $10. against their tyrants. Their cause is our cause. Those who now revile, rob and murder them, andacionsly challenge us, and intend to impose upod us the same bloody chains. Let us hasten

THE REPUBLIC IN DANGER.—The fear of foreign | your oppressors. Here we come to fight at your discords! Peace, justice and liberty for all! War only to the filibusiers!"

To the conflict, then, Costaricans. I march

Your mothers, wives, sisters and daughters which he placed in a drawer in his office.

All loyal sons of Guatemala, San Salvador, sence on the surrounding rural districts; and and Honduras, march upon this horde of ban-unavailing that-"Our propositions of friend-RELIGION IN COMMON LIFE: A Sermon preached ship have not only been disregarded, but treated Rev. John Caird, M. A. John Duff, Kingston. | tumely have been returned for the amicable mes-in Nicaragua are bound by the common law of and sailing under the American flag, has been her embrace. self-protection to declare eternal comity. Our captured and condemned by the Brazilian Go-issued to each man in the garrison, which (says the Central American difficulties, and nothing to his intended godmother, the Queen of Swe- Tite, hr P., That Messrs. Weguelin, Hubbard, tired of the monotony of camp life in peace, sigh forbearance and a resolute determination on our

The arrival of 310 recruits for the Government, on the 10th of March, is mentioned. A nation, like an individual, is never more truly Ministry, as to whether they had made any ar-

Nicaragua as it is.

An American who has just returned from the speech of Mr Buchanan as the holding out of the off from the sense of its shocking insincerity. scene of General Walker's filibustering opera- olive branch, and we should be sorry to see the No sooner is a culprit nation brought to forced tions, writes a letter to the Courier and Enquirer, effect neutralised by a stiff and unbending atti- submission, after it has caused months or years disclosing a few circumstances of a rather peculiar character. Previous to his departure from New York he had an interview with Parker H. French, Walker's agent, whose answers to his Zone Mills to Florence, taking effect from already published a brief account of the diffi- be could not help thinking they might not be the 1st of April proximo, and whereas it culty at Rio Janeiro between an English and true. However, determined to see for himself, man, Trident, and the French frigate Poursuiting in the negative, and that I intended to land at Virgine Bay. he said—"Well, I want you." And Argus, were also invited who were on board, with loaded arms. Being the representatives of the River Platte, as announced, we who were on board, with loaded arms. Being the Moved by Mr Campbell, seconded by resist, I entered the barge. Upon landing and being introduced to Senor Don Carlos and others in authority, and threatening to complain to the United States Government, and convincing them that I had ample means with me, and was not dependant on government bounty, after considerable talk, I was released. But others who were with me were not so fortunate, but were compelled against their will and remontrance to go to Grenada, where, if they were not entimed into the army, they were made com- viously. missary clerks, so that they should be ready

Things went on smoothly until our arrival at the representatives of the Herald, Transcript.

I would like here to disabuse the public mind in regard to certain favorable reports that have been industriously circulated in reference to the We have a copy of El Nicaraguense of March | demand for mechanics. With the exception of shown to the patient. American barn, the natives live in huts made of reeds, and have neither the means nor the desire to obtain anything better; and so far from favoring Walker and his government, they hate the very name of American, and look upon every American as a fill bustero. Efforts are continually being made by the minions of Walker to prevent communication between passengers To arms! The moment has arrived. Let us returning from Nicaragua and those going there, passage down the San Juan river to such per-

THE RIOTS IN BRITISH GUIANA. - A COTTESPONdent of the New York Herald, at Georgetown, Demarara, writing under date of 12th inst., We go not to fight for a bit of land, not to states that property to the amount of $100,000 acquire ephemeral powers, not to obtain miser- had been destroyed, and a similar amount stolen able conquests, nor much less for sacrilegious during the riots there, incited by the notorious demption of all our brethren from the most ini- "Angel Gabriel," Orr. The property belonged to quitous tyranny-we go to aid in the fruitful Roman Catholic shopkeepers, against whom Orr work of their regeneration—we go to say to main y directed his attacks, and the blacks been denied, whether to mitigate pain, or to new Christian church on the 26th of February, them: "Brothers of Nicaragua rise; annihilate availed themselves of the confusion to destroy prevent the other evils that were to be appre- probably the first church that will have been side, for your liberty, for your country Union, and plunder. In the interior the blacks had hended. influence at the ballot-box in the States, has Nicaraguans, union! Forever immobate your been subdued; many of them were shot and > ROBBERY. - The Pilot states that on Saturday in the van of the national army. I, who rejoice | night last, after the Paymaster of the car departto see your noble enthusiasm this day, who take ment of the Grand Trunk Railroad had paid a moved as to the diplomatists having favorably pride in calling you my sons, desire always to portion of his men, he had over £200 remaining, brought to a conclusion every material point of with pain, but not surprise, the unfortunate cheer you. Their patriotic virtues will make in Saturday night or Sunday morning, the place us invincible. In doing battle for the salvation was broken into, by smashing a pane of glass potentiary. When it is issued it will create no Province is called upon to increase the supply. of our brethren we shall fight as will for them, and raising the bolt of the window, and the mon- sensation, as its results have already been "dis- That the crisis has all along been expected, evfor their honor, for their existence, for our idolisad counter and the independence of Spanish ey carried off. There is as yet no clue to the counted on the Paris Bourse and elsewhere.

>
> Of course the most is made of the hance and received will soon be

Costa Rica has refused to recognize that of Ni- purse to have to clear you, and show that you caragua; has repelled his overtures of friend- are innocent! A year of famine cost, lately, to ship; interfered in its internal affairs, and Canada only £500, while a fight of Irishmen The Colonist says:-It is stated by one of our provoked hostilities by calling its inhabitants to for a few minutes, cost us £5,165 5s. Let us

BRITISH RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES .- | COVERY.

tions," to which the American Minister referred. many a child of two months old, and that when "Moved by Mr Weguelin, seconded by Mr W. the slave trade which are sure to complicate our can prevent us from "drifting into war," aris- den, whose name is Josephine. own part, if the conduct of our ambassador at Washington bas been week and culpable, to there is an under current of strong common In reply to the inquiry, the Premier, after the as he swallowed them ! tude on the part of the British Cabinet.

HEAVY BEEF .- Mr Powell, butcher, Cobourgs, slaughtered last week a steer which weighed 1,700 lbs. It was fed by Mr Hinds, of Haldimand, realized £60.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Castillo, about sixty miles up the St. Juan river, in my power, I am enabled to answer that the says the Examiner, "what a glorious sacrifice into the expediency of closing the fiscal year on

Believe me, yours,

R.V. ROGERS. St. James', April 4, 1856.

Further by the Atlantic.

Birth and Baptism of the Imperial Prince.

London, March 18, 1856. great event since the departure of the Canada. It took place at a quarter past three toms having commenced twenty-two hours pre-

The accouchement seems to have been far from pire as witnesses. The consequences, of course, very marked.

were such as might have been foressen.

a less unpleasant manner is equally indisputa- Germany.

able, and the infant has already been christen- Whithall for the Protestant residents at Bournaed. In the baptismal act he is registered as Na- bat. Mr Withall, with his family and friends, poleon Eugene Louis Jean Joseph, fils de France. among whom was the Prussian Consul, was pre-This event may virtually be considered to sent at the ceremony." have taken place simultaneously with the contheir business. The absolute proclamation to state of this Company's affairs. The great capthat effect has been necessarily delayed until the | italists are once more at sea. The purse of Forarrival of Baron Manteuffel, the Prussian pleni- tunatus appears to be again exhausted, and the

The Courier of St. Hyacinthe, after some re- Napoleon. It will serve as a good invocation a meeting of some of the English stockholders marks on the heavy expense entailed upon the for him to resort to throughout his career; but we cut from the London Times of the 8th inst., , Province, for the arrest and trial of Corrigan's er except upon the imagination. Amid the con- The depreciation for some time in progress in murderers, winds up with the following argu- gratulations which people both here and on the the shares of the Grand Touck Railway of Caover the frozen ground, and now perched upon the crests of frightful drifts, now beupon the crests of frightf we must content ourselves with the leading Sylvester, do not murder people too often; four days of the same day), forty-five years ago, led to a meeting being held to-day of some of points. He complains that the government of it is such an expensive affair to the public the heir of the first Napoleon was born, amid cir- the most influential persons interested in the cumstances which seemed almost to promise undertaking, to devise means for restoring its him the Empire of Europe as an inheritance.

been increased by the announcement of the im- | ed, suggesting that, under the peculiar circumprovement in the health of the Emperor's uncle, stances of the case, the interference and aid of Prince Jerome. A few days ago his death seem- the provincial government should be solicited, ed to have been generally expected, but the la- and nominating a committee to co-operate with test bulletins strongly warrant a hope of his re- the London members of the Board in promoting Unfortunately, the "group of unsettled ques- one. It is stated by some that he is as big as originally entertained of it :-

superfluous "thunder" from Printing House- Prince Napoleon, he said to him, "you will, I ceived a fresh stimulant in the ports of the Ame- as fine and robust a boy as ever was seen. He is | "Moved by Mr Dillon, seconded by Sir William

Parliamentary.

appease public feeling in the West by his recall. | the House of Commons on a question put to the | mittee." Among them wers a company from New York, great than when admitting an error, and our rangements to insure that, after the conclusion > sense in the people of the Union, which will fashion of Governments when they are about to prevent unprincipled politicans from making make peace, expresses his confidence in Russian essential mischief, in the way of provoking hos- magnanimity, and spoke of the courtesy with tilities, provided the conduct of our own Go- which they have carried on the war. This is vernment in the case of an erring functionary is just the folly that some people pretended to aningenuous and straightforward. We regard the | ticipate. Happily, its routine character takes of ravage and bloodshed, than it is at once cried up as a pattern of everything that is chivalrous and worthy of imitation.

> In the present case the Examiner has incon- to married women, were read a first time. wounded at Alma and Inkermann, of immunity | Canada, and being claimed at Sebastopol for hospitals, which Mr. Sanborn, a bill to provide more effectually nally of the Hango massacre. When that last sentees. Sin: - Having made the most careful inquiry was indellible: "Whenever peace is made," on public accounts were instructed to inquire

A SAD CASE. The Dayton (Ohio) Journal intemperance. gives the particulars of the melancholy end of Mr Christie moved to amend the motion of a young man named Oliver Street, of that city. adding the words "by probibiting the traffic in

CHRISTIANS IN PURKEY UNDER THE NEW ... FORMS. - The Berlin correspondent of the Ton-

don Tomes, under due of March 8, says :-"A letter from Smyrn s of the 27th February," states that the Imperial Hat-Humayoun of the 18th of that month, authorizing the introducthe tion of the new reforms, was publicly read on morning of Sunday, the 16th instant, after a the 23rd; for this purpose Suleiman Pasha had long period of anxiety, the promonitory symp- assembled the dragomans of the different consulates, the Greek and Armenian Archbishops, the Chief Rabbi and all the members of the Medjlis, who are subjects of the Porte, and all the favorable, the sufferings of the mother having superior Turkish officials. After the hat had been of a character unusually protracted and been read, the Greek Archbishop expressed the severe, and such as to call for surgical inter- thanks of the Church to the Pedishah, and adference. That they did not terminate fatally is, | ded, that henceforth all the believers of his condition of that country. There is literally no I think, not owing to the delicacy or tenderness Church would look upon all Turks as brethren. The Pasha hereupon intimated to the Whatever advantages a Queen or Empress Greek and Armenian members of the Medilia may enjoy at other times, the barbarism of offi- that they were for the future entitled to cial state places her, on an occasion like this, ride to the Konak on horseback, and to bring in circumstances from which the meanest of her their own piges with them to the sittings sex would be preserved. According to the Pu- of the Court. There was no particular ceremotrie, about twenty minutes before the birth, the nial observed on the occasion. What the effect sufferings of Her Majesty assumed so decided a of the publication of the hat was on the Muscharacter that it was deemed advisable to call sulman population had not been vi ible, that in the princes and grand dignitaries of the Em- produced on the Rayahs, on the contrary, was

The Greek and Armenian Archbishops united "It appears," says the chronicler, "that the their congregations and celebrated in the Greek sight of so many persons produced an effect Church a Te Deum, at which the Armenian upon the Empress which suspended for a mo- Archbishop was present, and then another in the ment, the operations of nature." To this he Armenian church, which the Greek Archbishop adds: "Her Majesty experienced the most ex- joined in. Within a very few days the Greek cruciating agony, which the skill of the physi- resident in Smyrna had formed a committee to cians succeeded in allaying; and at a quarter realize as soon as possible their newly acquired past three o'clock the imperial infant came into rights of free education. Very speedily there are to be a boys' and girls' school established. That great and unusual precautions were ne- Such ample funds had been subscribed for this cessary to prevent the legitimacy of the young purpose that the committee had been justified in Prince from being questioned by future claim- selecting the largest, although the dearest, vaants to the throne, will be admitted by all; but cant site in Smyrna; teachers of both sexas, that these precautions might have been taken in was decided, should be procured from Protestant founded subsequently to the publication of the The subsequent accounts, however, are favor- hat. The whole edifice is to be erected by

Of course, the most is made of the happy au- | vitely humbugged and deceived, will soon be gury thus connected with the life of the young generally admitted. The following account of history shows that bright auguries have no pow- reserving further comments until hereafter :-

position. Mr T.M. Weguelin occupied the The satisfaction of the people of Paris has chair, and the following resolutions were adoptsuch an arrangement as may be deemed most From an immense amount of gossip and exci- advantageous for the shareholders, and for the The child is a remarkably fine and healthy | the line will ultimately realize the anticipations increasing, for the Brazilian mail this week the Emperor saw him he exclaimed, "no won- Reid, That having regard to the advantages which have resulted to the Government and peo-It is said that the Emperor wept abundantly, | ple of Canada from the support afforded by relations with the United States without any and that, falling upon the neck of his cousin, English capitalists to the undertaking of the fitting out slavers to supply the Brazil market that it was a boy. At length, being convinced, its merits, it is now placed, this meeting are of ent aid, either in the shape of a limited guarantee The Imperial infant, I learn from a credible | upon the share capital, or in such other mode as vernment under circumstances which leave no eye-witness, and not from the tattle of courtiers | may be judged expedient, and would be likely to rican Union. A British cruiser and an Ameri- described as rosy, plump, well made, fully de- Cubitt, That a committee be appointed to comcan ship-of-war were nearly coming into colli- veloped, and with a surprising abundance of municate to the English Board of Directors the sion off Brazil respecting this fugitive slaver. chesnut colored hair, resembling his father's. resolution adopted by this meeting to request

> Dillon, Laieg, M. P., Uzeilli R. Gillespie, and Count Stzreiecki, be requested to act as the members of the said committee, with power to add to their number, and that the Hon. Mr Na-A discussion which took place last week in pier be requested to act as secretary to the com-

> > good but the seeds scratched his throat a le

BY TELEGRAPH.

[Reported exclusively for the Daily News.]

PARLIAMENTARY.

Toronto, April 4. Yesterday the bill to smend the act to modify the Usury Laws, and to secure certain rights. veniently reminded those who are resorting to Mr Freeman introduced a bill to extend the those expressions, of the bayonetting of the provisions of the Insolvent Debtors act in Upper were afterwards found to be magazines, and fi- for the sale of the property of minors and ab-

and be printed and laid before the Legislature and the traffic in intoxicating liquors, with a view to devise more effectual means to suppress