had at the counter of the publishing office du Pas de Calais, contains the fellowing:

every Friday morning.

The Daily News.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 2

Rankin, Rhodes, Rolph, Jas Ross, Sanborn, | cester, Mass., a verdict of $7,250. atcherd, Jas. Smith, Southwick, Wilson, Dostaler, Dufresne, Evanturet, Fellowes, Ferres, for the education of her children. Fortier, O.C. Fortier, Fournier, Gill, Guevremudeau, lurcotte, lietding. -- DT.

The New York Commercial Advertiser of Fri- in this market. day publishes the despatch of Mr Marcy in reply As Improved Plane Fours. - A new plane deserted by any of my Conservative friends. to Lord Clarendon, in which the communica- fore has been invented, which has two key Mr Bowes.-With the exception of your own President has felt constrained to carry out his tion consists in the movement being placed on friendly terms with all the Conservative sent to Mr Crampton, and the exequature of the pendicularly within the body of the instrument. | was at the meeting which has been alluded consuls revoked.

closed, and that Mr Crampton starts in the morn- ate emblematical figures and inscriptions. that report in circulation I do not know. Howing for England."

No intimation has been made of any of the lifty died martyrs in the great cause. members of the corps diplomatique having redirect intercourse.

critical condition.

The Picton, Gazette has changed hands, Mr Moore having sold out to Mr S. M. Conger. The ly printed as any in Canada."

liasburgh, was completely destroyed by fire on with them from the Manufacturer:-Thursday week.

called out to avenge the insult :-

gentleman who knows what's what, wishes to [Com. Advertiser. pay a visit to the Seat of Government, to collect his little newspaper debts, or transact his Men in Power.

TERRIBLE STRAM BOILER EXPLOSION .- A Steam boiler of fifteen borse power, belonging to the Balance Dock Co., exploded in New York on Tuesday afternoon, with frightful, though

while the regulator, a ball of about 40 lbs. bring to bear public opinion, and since pub- an end to it at once. weight, was thrown over two whole blocks of the bear public opinion, and since pub- Attorney General M weight, was thrown over two whole blocks of buildings, falling with a fearful crash through lie opinion has lately been baptized by Speaker, I have already addressed the House meeting of which the hon. member for Wolfe conclusion that the Coalition Government was the roof of a house and lodging in a bed where Louis Napoleon as the controlling influence on the motion in your hands, I think, after the (Mr Felton) spoke. But from conversation with broken up, I placed my resignation in the hands a man and child lay, neither of whom were hurt, of Europe, we may perhaps hope that Italy statement of the gallant knight, it will be allow- gentlemen present at the meeting, I learned that of the Premier; and I think no person will say a man and child tay, neither of whom were hurt, not with standing the man was forced out of bed and the footboard broken away. Another huge piece, weighing about 600 the, struck the corplete, weighing about 600 the, struck the corplete that Italy is on the eve of a deliverance from Austria the meeting, a learned that I was wrong. The Premier then had it in that I was wrong. The Premier then had it in the approbation of several—how many I have his power to form a new Government; he could have asked for the assistance of the member for Str. Namer, Cape Vincent.—I case ware, A. B. nice of a five storey building occupied by Thom- and from the rest of her political and so- knight had alluded. From the time I entered made to Sir Allan McNab, that in their opinion Glengarry or the member for London. He could up the tin and forcing its way through the root. making a hole as big as a hogshead, and shat- A Whaleman Among the Arabs. -- occasion. The first act of my positical life was took immediate steps to counteract it. It was he said, on our withdrawal, that he could not were more or less injured, and all for nearly a quarter of a mile were shaken to the foundation barrels of oil, and 28,000 lbs of bone. The time that Conservative Opposition was organiavoid anything of the kind. And I made the be filled so as to allow the business of the countries. by the tremendous shock. A canal boat, lying whalemen during their voyage were often sed, till it became an Administration, received same request to Mc Roblin, Mr Sidney Smith, try to go on. When a dissolution was spoken between the dock and the pier, is almost a total in the vicinity of the wandering Arabs, my unswerving support. I think be will say and Mr Ferres. All those gentlemen are my of all my colleagues were opposed to it. If I Str. Untario, Lewiston. —22 stoves, 79 pieces wreck, every timber above the water being forged out of its place. Other serious damage was with the vicinity of the wandering Arabs, with frequently came down the coast from my leader. On every occasion that we took a of the kind should be made till the end of the keown what to do. I should have known where done to vessels in the vicinity; in one instance the Great Desert. Captain Ryder was party move in which he was our leader, he receia sloop had one entire side of her rigging car- once captured by some of them, while on ved my support as a second or a third. When- I said - Wait till he is in the House, and then it. The Lower Canadian portion of the Governried away, and a boat stove, the captain narrowly escaping with his wife, having but a tew seconds leftsthe spot upon the deck, where the seconds leftsthe spot upon the deck, where the seconds leftsthe spot upon the deck upon the seconds leftsthe spot upon the deck upon the seconds leftsthe spot upon the seconds leftsthe spot upon the seconds leftsth messenger of death passed with lightning speed captain was too courageous to be thus had the command of whatever little abilities I adjourn sine die. I heard of no further meeting themen. in search of proy. The floating church in the made a slave of, and he manfully resisted, bis course and giving an exposition of it. I the house of Mr Roots. Northern Macdonald. — Sir A. Moin search of prey. The floating church in the next slip received the blow with great fortitude but not without some pains, every sash being stove in on the side nearest the explosion. Had stove in on the side nearest the explosion. Had stove in on the side nearest the explosion. Fortunately at this juncture or cancus or any kind, until the meeting held at the house of Mr Beaty. Next day, Mr Niles and fought under him in Opposition faithfully and truly, and that I acted completely to his satisfaction was proved by the circumstance that mencement of their statement I saw it affected.

Attorney-General Macdonaid.—Sir A. Mcthe house of Mr Beaty. Next day, Mr Niles and Mr Conger called at my office, Hon. John Ross was with me at the time; and as from the comtion was proved by the circumstance that the meeting held at the house of Mr Beaty. Next day, Mr Niles and Mr Conger called at my office, Hon. John Ross was with me at the time; and as from the comtion was proved by the circumstance that the meeting held at the house of Mr Beaty. Next day, Mr Niles and Mr Conger called at my office, Hon. John Ross was with me at the time; and as from the comtion was discussed at a meeting of the Conneil.

Marine Insurance Company of Philadelphia.

EF bingle copies of the Daily News may be A WARNING,-A late number of the Courrier

"Two men lately entered an inn in Cambral, EF Single copies of the Chronicle and New ordered coffee, and died shortly after swallowontaining the news of the week may be had, in ling a cup each. The landlady summoned the grappers for mailing. Price 4d. each. Issued | police, who declared the men had been polsoned. 'Impossible!' cried the landindy, 'they have only drank a cup of coffee a-piece, and that can | the motion of want of confidence was resume do no harm. She at once drank a cup to prove by a personal explanation between Mr. Rhodes its innocence. The same result, however, en- and Mr Alleyn, with reference to some remarks sued in her case, as she was seized with terrible of the former delivered yesterday. box of lucifer or locofoco matches was found by- myself of the latest opportunity in this de

ro, Murney, Niles, Papin, Patrick, Powell, Pre- | ny for damages, and has just recovered, at Wor-tion is made to the British government that the boards, and is said to have greater power than personal friends. two grand planes. The principle of construc-

The Courrier des Etats Unis of Friday publish- has received from the Howard Society at Nor- General West, now the leader of the Assembly es a telegraphic message from Washington, dat- folk, a large gold medal for his services during also stated, that a report was put in circulation, ed 29th, stating that" the British embassy is the late yellow fever. On one side is a relief of that I was about to retire from the high posithe Good Samaritab, and on the other appropri- tion which I held in the Government-who ing, with the intention of immediately embark- About one hundred physicians went to Norfolk ever, it was stated that on that occasion, during her sorrows, and of them upwards of Ferres was instructed to convey to Mr Attor-

CAN A JUROR BE ARRESTED ?-In the Supreme ceived instructions to act on the part of the Court, New York, Mr. Justice Davies British government during the suspension of presiding, a decision was given as to the right to arrest a juror. A juror in the panel of the Supreme Court Circuit, it appears, was arrested the sheriff in a civil case. He was then taken Senator Sumner, who was recently brutally on habeas corpus before Judges Davie, who deassaulted in the Senate Chamber, is in a very | cided that a juror cannot be arrested on a civi

THE FIREWORKS DISPLAY .- Mr Wm. McMillan, oo the floor of the house new editor writes-"I shall also carry out folly to whose experience in such matters was entrusted the getting up of the Fireworks on the peated by several members of the Conservative the course hitherto pursued by the Gazette. It | Queen's Birth Night, feels naturally not a little | party who were there, that the remark was so has always been known as a political paper, hurt at the reflections which appeared in the made. It is also stated by Col. Tache, that he and has always steadily maintained the advo- Daily News on that head. He took much inter- handed over the entire arrangements for Upper cacy of the Conservative cause." He also says, est in the affair, giving his time and trouble grathing now, therefore, comes to this. I received "It is my intention immediately to procure a tial failure of the fiteworks from causes over a message from the then Attorney General, on large assortment of new material of the best | which he had no control, entitle him rather to | Sunday, that unless I retired on Monday, at quality, and I will furnish a sheet as handsome- sympathy than unkind remarks. To shew that three o'clock, my Upper Canada colleaguethe cause of the failure was the haste in which would resign on the following Tuesday. If durthe fireworks were got up, Mr McMillan has ing my absence, when I was ill, any communi The store belonging to Mr Dempsey of Ame- | banded us the following letter received along | cation from the Executive Council, or from lan, Esqure .-- Sir .-- Enclosed is a memoran- tage of the Government that I should retiredum of account :- Three eases and one bundte | that from my being unab'e to attend in my place The Whig fires a shot at somebody. It is to sticks sent per American Express to-day, in the house, my holding a seat in the Cabinet be hoped we may have no injury to herald; for | Since you left we have had very unfavorable | was injurious to them—the same messenger who in the present growing military spirit, there is a | weather for colored stars, lances, &c., it being | brought that communication would have taken fear that one of the rifle companies might be still I hope the works will all go off to satisfaction pretty good authority, that a fire tion. In future it would be advisable to give an | Was directed against me from Some folks consider themselves very illtreated | order at tast two weeks before shipment. I could | from whence it was little expected. by Ministers and Members of Parliament, and then send works with which I would be satistically stated and many the said he would take and medium descriptions. when the publisher of a newspaper, or a private | manufacturer. Yours, &c., G.S. LITHINDALE. -

The legitimist and Catholic journals of private business, he writes to a member of the France are violent against the plan of M. Cabinet, or to some influential member of Par- de Cavour for the secularization of the supported by the Conservative Members of this liament, expressing his wish, who forthwith Italian Legations. They even stigmatize house by their own showing, and the defection ses of some one Parliamentary Committee M. de Cavour's act in presenting to the was on the part of the adherents of the bon. of a general nature, and led the visi- Government of France and England the Postmaster General. Why they thought proper tant is summoned to Toronto by the Ulerk to memorandum and verbal note, which you this I do know, that there is nothing which Committees, has all his travelling expenses and have no doubt already published, as im- I undertook but I have religiously carried out pounds per diem all the time he is absent from | pertinent, as an outrage upon the rights of | -nothing which I undertook but what has been home, which time is determined by the nature of the Pope, and as wanting in respect to the carried out to the fullest extent. Then I say his business at Toronto; for as to going before powers to whom they were addressed. But I was removed by my Conservative colleagues a matter of moonshine! Now what we of the aside from the merits or demerits of the British Whig complain is, that while several of Count Cavour's documents, this language have been faithful to my party ever since I came our contemporaries, very two-penny of the Catholic journals is easily under- into Parliament. I have never left them; and fellows, are thus fed, todged and paid at the stood. It is questionable whether the political head should be offered up a peace offervant, and as poor as a rat, are obliged to travel plans recommended by the Sardinian Min- ing to Reformers, that it was the duty of my at our own expense, or stay at home. No won- ister for the settlement of this much vexed friend the Inspector General—that it was the middle common-sense—(laughter)—party, Hon. da was broken up by the retirement of those two der some Canadian Journalists toady to the Italian question will be adopted, and I duty of my friend the Attorney General to have learn that France has thrown upon Eng- be removed, he has fulfilled all his duties. We land the duty of drawing up a plan which | did not think it our duty to tell him that will be more acceptable to all parties. The should retire, but there is a defection from the bold and, if you please, impertinent lan-guage of Count Cavour, has at least had by every Conservative in the house? It was the good effect of arresting every body's the duty of colleagues, unless there was some strange to say not fatal, consequences. The attention upon the evil consequences of a good reason shown to the contrary, to have attention upon the evil consequences of a stood by me, and not to have abandoned me; longer continuation of the Austrian occubat if it was desired that Sir Allan should go but if it was desired that Sir Allan should go was that in consequence of the conversation to that, notwithstanding those caucuses and meet Saies 50 bb; at $15.—Prime Mess Beef quiet at 1,500 luke was blown from the dock up Pike pation, and has shown to the world the out of the Government, then it was the duty street, a distance of three hundred feet! the delicacy of the relations which exist be- of my friends to have said, - It will be our safety valve being found some distance beyond, tween Piedmont and Austria. It will duty to retire with him. That would have put making a hole as big as a hogshead, and shattering nearly all the windows of the establishment. Another five storey building in the vicinity, occupied by T. & R. Lewis, presents a clinity, occupied by T. & R. Lewis, presents a least of Africa, where she can be said, on our withdrawal, that he could not which it formed a member on entering which the letter to be sent should be signed by the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolitical life, was defeated, and we changed the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolition to the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolition to the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolition to the gentlemen present. I asked Dr Clarke impolition to the gentlemen present in the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not which it is to the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not which it is to the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen present in the said, on our withdrawal, that he could not with the gentlemen presen frightful appearance, several sashes being stove 18th from the coast of Africa, where she our places from Ministerial Benches to those of mediately to go and see our friends, and pre-eral asked me if I could hill up their places so has been cruising for several months in the Opposition -at a meeting of the Conservative vent anything of the kind. I also saw the mem- that the business of the country should be car-Many other buildings in the neighborhood search of whales. She brought home 310 Opposition, the gallant knight was elected their ber for Niagara (Mr Morrison), who had been at ried on without a dissolution. I said that I

Provincial Parliament HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

(Reported for the Globe.)

Thursday, May 29. After the usual routine business, the debate or Sir Ailau McNab-I am desirous of availin Confidence Vote.

Little Farm.—The London Times, in enumerating some of the consequences of the late war, says in the jauntiest manner possible:

The following is the vote taken last night:—

The following Yeas - Messrs. Aikens, Bell, Biggar, Bourassa, last year £35,000,000 more than we should have by hon, members in the course of this debate, position successfully to administer the affairs of me that the only way that he could justify his tion of my promises, of my promi Brown, Bureau, Christie, Cooke, Chas. Daoust, done, but for that little freak of the Emperor and to bear them in mind during the course of the country. There was no difference between refirement, was not to accept that notice of devented and I did dot think I was acting in the country. There was no difference between refirement, was not to accept that notice of devented and I did dot think I was acting in the country. There was no difference between refirement, was not to accept that notice of devented and I did dot think I was acting in the country. There was no difference feat, but to come down to this house and reproperly towards any man in the house, or my properly towards any man in the house, or my or the constituents that sent me here, to olton, Jackson, John, Laberge, Loranger, south Carolina, last summer suffered the loss of an aim on the Albany and Boston Railroad, in forming a government. Munch some and many summers, Market, Mark be able to refresh their memories on the subject. there is no distinction in substance between Morrison took his place, he did it in the most me. This was not a secret. It was as well Explation.—The Boston Post says that Mr that Mr Drummond, in his explanations, stated which allusion has been made, and at which all the control of the con Herbert, M. C. from California, who killed the that Cot. Tache informed him that he knew hon, friend from South York (Mr Gamble) was put the question to him in this way--" Sir, you no breach of faith, of no breach of honor. Bredeur, Burton, Cartier Cassault, Cauchon, Cartier Cassault, Cauchon, Chapais, Clarke Conger, CrawCayley, Chabot, Chapais, Clarke Conger, Crawford, Crysler, J.B. Daoust, Desaultiers, Dionne, ford Cayley, Chabot, Chapais, Clarke Conger, Crawto the widow of the deceased a neat house, setthe present Administration. As I was going to the upon her a handsome anality, and provided mothing of the arrangements made, as far as the members of the administration from Upper Canthe present Administration. As I was going to the present Administration, and offered him your confidence. I may have been imprudent. Heap as many Attorney General MacDonald. Mr Drummond also stated that he never was consulted about CALIFORNIA MUSTARD - There is found grow- the changes so far as regards Upper Canada. had adopted or party obligations within the not to go out, and to advise Mr Spence to re- er, having tried every means to keep the Cabinat aont, Labelle, Laporte, Larwill, Leboutillier, ing wild in that most wonderful of all lands, He also stated, that at the Council Board on Marchildon, Masson, Meagher, Mongenais, a kind of mustard that is said to be more than one occasion, he had implored the considering what course they should adopt in own advice, by joining us and assisting to sup- a man of honor, to go into a new government. O'Farrell, Polette, Poulin, Politic, Price, Rob-inson, Ross, Sol.-Gen. Smith, Shaw, Summerville, Spence, Stevenson, Supple, Tache, Thib- he ground up a thousand bushels for market. It against the Premier. Sir Alian MacNab. These is said that it can be sent to New York and sold statements, made by Mr Drummond, were not for a profit, at a less price than the current rate | contradicted by any of the members of the late Administration. I also heard the member Toronto, Mr Bowes, state, that I had not been original purpose, and that passports have been around a bollow cylinder, which is placed per | members of this house. Then Mr Ferres, who and who was instructed to enter into communi-REWARD OF MERIT. - Dr. Horwitz, of New York, cation with my late colleague the Attorney ney General McDonald that in the event of my resignation, the Conservatives were prepared give Mr McDonald their support. Mr Felton also was present at the meeting, and he said that the object of that meeting was to get rid of the gallant knight. Mr Felton. -It was not the same meeting at | which I was present; there is a distinction between the meeting at which I was present. process during the existence of the panel on did not desire to say one word of what I witnessed at those meetings, except what was said

Sir Allan McNab .- Well Sir, it has been remajority of that Council, had been sent to my New York, May 20th, 1856 .-- William McMil- | bedside, saying that it would be to the advan-If the matter had been left over, I would myself have brought the question up, and if I had found that I was in the way, I should have taken the course which any man acutated by honorable feelings and a high sense of duty, would from Upper Canada. I cannot feel but that I said-I do not see why Sir A. MacNab should > Parliament I have acted with perfect accord he ought to retire. That was mentioned to me have asked for the assistance of other gentlemen with the hon, and gallant gentleman on every in this house by two or three gentlemen, and I of the Reform party in the house, if he chose; but try or in the house, was gained by the hon. gen- I understood it. Upon this notice being given We were told by gentlemen in this house, but it of a composite character. Although the hon, given, that the Coalition Government had re- Conservatives and Reformers could be main ment to carry on the administration of and although he says he cannot identify with those who are willing to sacrifice : yet he agreed with me in joining the Post a common party. Although the gullant kaught my ground for refusal on the floor of this house. I tion of the crew, it was impossible to go on with says he cannot identify homself with those who I considered it would be cowardly for us to the government, and I was a free man. have called themselves progressive liberals, yet | withdraw merely on such a notice, and for the | Mr Holton.-Free as a party man? Free to that it was what he would have expected me to | we know it.

bled to-day of the Conservative party." Mr | election?

the conclusion come to at the meeting to for the purpose of supporting the Government, given will show that I have not lost the confi which we were not invited, was that, while Sir and keeping the member for Hamilton in his dence of those gentlemen who formerly acted Allan would be at the head of the party, they de- place at the head of the Government, I used with me, and under the premiership of the sired that I should conduct its affairs, and be as | every argument in my power; and the Postmas- | hom. and galant knight. I have refrained as it were its mouth-piece. For the accuracy of | ter General will remember that we spent hours | far as possible from saying a single word this statement, I can appeal to Mr Burton, Mr after with Mr Morrison for that purpose and at to wound the feelings of any honorable mem-Powell, Dr Clarke and Mr Gamble. I think | length he consented to come into the Govern- | ber, and especially of the hon, and gallant the gallant knight said he would assume any ment, and the overnment of Sir Allan McNab | knight, a gentleman for whom I have at position in the party that the party wanted him remained firm. The b came the vote of want of ways entertained, and now do, the most since e to assume, and I stated at that time just as I had | confidence; and I appeal to all my Conserva- | respect. I could call witness to prove that I done before, and have done since, that as I had | tive friends, to the general supporters of the Go- | never, by any attempt, either in conversation. acted under that hon, gentleman from the time | vernment, and to Mr Southwick if he be here, if | otherwise, tried to affect the position of the hon of the formation of the Conservative Opposition I did not use every argument, and all the influ- and gallant knight. Had that bon. gentlema. that I would continue to do so, and that so long ence in my humble power, to induce them to adopted a different course from that he did, the as he would lead I would follow. Mr Hillyard sustain the Government, and to vote confidence. results might have been different; but he was Cameron said he was glad to hear me say so, and From the Opposition benches-No doubt of it; per fectly justified in taking his own course. He clandestinely in the matter, as he told me of it | the Lower Canada portion of it, and for the pur- | house and the country to judge of it. beforehand. The next thing I heard of steps be- pose of saying that the Government, so far as ing taken affecting the position of the gallant | Upper Canada was concerned, was a Coalition knight, the Postmaster General or myself, was | Government, while the Government, as far Lowthat I was told by Mr Burton that in conse- er Canada was concerned, was a homogeneous quence of these rumors, and the rumors that Sir one. (Opposition cheers.) Hou. gentlemen Allan being confined to bed was about to resign, | might cheer and laugh, but I never understood he had summoned a number of gentlemen to that the Commissioner of Crown Lands and the meet. That was the first intimation I had of member for Shefford were of the Rouge party. the meeting. In the afternoon of that day, Mr (Opposition cheers.) I always understood that Burton, Mr Rankin and Mr Ferres came to- me | they were of the orthodox French party.

at my office. Mr Ferres acted as spokesman, and | Mr Papin-I would ask if the Commissioner said: "Mr Macdonald, we have been appoint- of Crown Lands, and the Commissioner of Pubed to see you. We represent a meeting assem- lic Works, were on the same ticket at the last

Rankin, I think, saying that he was at the meet- Attorney General Macdonald .- 1 cannot aner they are true or not. We do not ask you when the Hon. Mr Ross retired—that he would whether they are true or not. We do not sug- retire when a verdict was given against him in straight State; $6,121 a $6,371 for extra do; that in case of Sir Allan retiring, in case of Government was originally formed by Sir Allan dence in you, and will be satisfied with any re- Conservative Government could be formed, and and $7 a $10 for extra St. Louis. construction in which you have a prominent that it was necessary to obtain Liberal support. before, that so long as Sir Allan would lead I member for Toronto and the member for Carleton for small lots of favorite brands. would follow. Mr Ferres went on further, and | who had occasionally given their support to the the meeting, was the complete unison of action | against it, Therefore, the Conservative support Conservatives who supported the Jovernment, stronger than it had been, but in my opinion was with some exceptions, and the great body of weaker. If then it was true that at the time of moderate Reformers who gave their support to the formation of that Government a Conservasame statement was made to him. I think it and, beyond all doubt, Mr J. C. Morrison, if he ern. Oats are in demand as better prices; sales was next day that the member for Essex (Mr had continued an independent member, would at 36 a 38c for state, and 38 a 40c for Western. Rankin) came to me and stated that on con- have still continued his confidence; but it is not | Provisions - The Pork market continues dull which I have just referred, there had been a joint ings, and rumors of dissatisfactions, and al- $15a18,50. meeting of the Conservatives and Reformers though I knew that dissatisfaction existed, I tried Ashes. - Friffing sales are reported at $6,25 for supporting the Government. I was not present with all my energies to support things as they Pots and $7 for Pearls.

and oldest daughter were lost in the and severe course and are sometiment was proken up. I describe the country had objections to the name of them. On every occasion he was the mover out the country had objections to the name of and opicinator of every course, and are hour and the solicitor general and the s property is estimated at $250,000. The only on shore always went in companies and on shore always went in companies and and originator of every course, and any hom? Sir Allan MacNab, but that was in conversation, and formed no portion of the message, as strong pressure brought to bear from without.

S. Rowlands is agent for the above-named companies and strong pressure brought to bear from without.

S. Rowlands is agent for the above-named company in Kingston. Office No. 4, Wilson's Buildings, Wellington Street, tleman, and not by me. The hon, gentleman the retirement of the Hon Mr Ross took place, would be improper for me to mention to menti in forming the present A ministration, formed But, although I feit at the time that notice was that if Sir A. McNab retard, the union between he ceived a fatal stab that the probable conse- tained. But the Government was not broken found be could not form a Conservative Unvern- | quence was that it could not last, when the up torough any action of ours, or of the Con-Postmaster General might be at any time aban- servative gentlemen who placed confidence in elf doned by his friends, yet I took a different me, and it was only after the coalition was bro e, conse from that of the Speaker of the Upper | ken up that I was a free man. I followed the House. I refused to accept that notice as an member for Hamilton while he was a captain General and the liberals of Upper Canada morning expression of want of confidence, and I stated and I was a subordinate; but after the deser-

that meeting I was informed that a number of the | and support - has he forfeited it?" "No" | such epithets and reproaches on me as you like members of the Conservative party, who had "You have also taken on yourself the but this I contend, that having performed my not hitherto been committed by any course they responsibility of advising the Hon. Mr Ross portion of the contract, having stuck by my lead. walls of the house, had met for the purpose of main you must show your confidence in your logether, that I had a right, as a gentleman and knight nor myself were invited to attend. At | weighed with him; and I believe that he then | any one else. As to the obligations I owe to These the other meeting, in Sir Altan's bed-room, the agreed to the proposal, originally made by Sir the party that supported me, and the constitu course to be taken by the conservative party in Allan McNab, that he should come into the Go- ents who elected me, that is a question I am the house was fully considered, and it was veroment. When the Government was threat- | ready to answer to my country, and to my conannounced by more than one gentleman that | ened with the retirement of the Hon. Mr Ross, | stituents. I hope that the vote which will be

could e ther have assented to a reconstruction of say. At the beginning of this session, the atten- Attorney-General Macdonald. Very well; no , as he chose; but I do not blame him for acl. tion of the country and of the members of this hon, gentlemen know it, and I am very glad in g as he did, and I must say that I have not house was called to an article in the Leader, they do know it. Then they know that I did -v- in any way tried to influence the withdrawal or written by whom or suggested by whom I have erything in my power to sustain the govern- the confidence of my Conservative party from no means of knowing, stating that Mr Hillyard | ment of Sir A. MacNab. If I was desirous of the late government. The hon, member for Cameron had called a meeting of Conservatives | putting Sir A. McNab out, and obtaining place | He stings (Mr Murney) will do me the justice to--11 or 12 members of the party-for a specific for myself, is that the course I would have ta- | co niess that, and so would the bon. Mr Cameron purpose, the general idea being conveyed that keu? I fought the ship to the last. No exer- we re he here. They would be justified in assertthat purpose was to form a party for himself. I tion was spared for the purpose of sustaining in z, that by no act of mine have I in any way But before that article appeared or that meeting the Government. And if it was defeated at produced the results which have followed. was held, Mr Cameron came to me and asked last, it was not by the vote of any ne of those ha ve no more to say. I regret extremely that what was to be the policy of the Government on gentlemen who attended the first Conservative this house should have been so long occupied Separate Schools. I told him what it was to meeting. After that vote we were put in an by the statements which I have made, but I am be, and he said he was pleased to hear it, and Upper Canadian minority. And when I say | sure that, situated as I am, the house will erhad summoned a number of Conservative friends, that, I ask gentlemen opposite if they did not cross me. I thank the house for listening to me not members of the Government, together for use every exertion to secure an Upper Canadian | so patiently, and I have stated as nearly as I the purpose of consulting them on that question. | majority, for the purpose of contrasting the Up- | cam all the circumstances of my case. I have The hon, gentleman, therefore, did not at all act per Canada portion of the Administration with submitted it just as it is, and it will be for the

> A COLLEGIAN CUT HIS THROAT. -A TONING baan named Bradley, in Bowden College, Maine, in a fit of delirium, cut his throat on the evening of the 23d inst. He also very severely cut the arm of a fellow student, who attempted to verest the razor from him. The gash in Bradlay's throat was a frightful one, and he bied about a quart. He became within a hair's breadth of severing the artery. It is thought that he will recover.

NEW YORK MARKETS,-MAY 30. Flour, &c .- The export demand for Flour has quarters ing, although he did not consider himself to be- swer the question, because I do not know. When tailen off materially, and holders with a strong long to the Conservative party. Mr Ferres con- we found that we were in an Upper Canada desire to realize, are compelled to set to a tinued: "We have heard certain rumors of minority, the Postmaster General very properly decline of one shilling per barrel on common gest to you that we are dissatisfied with things this house. He had before told me that he would $5 a $6 for common superfine to good extra as they are. But we have come to convey to you do so. And here I have to remark that when the Michigan; $5,871 a $6,371 for common to good there being a re-construction, we have confi- McNab, he had himself admitted that no purely $6,50 a $7,25 for common to good extra, do.,

position." I replied that there was no founda- He called in the assistance and got the support | the market is scarcely so firm for common destion for any of those rumors, that I was exceed- of the Hincksite Liberals. Since that time he criptions. Sales 600 bbls at $6 $6,624 for comingly flattered by the compliment paid me; but has not gained any accession of strength from mon to good superfine, and $6,75 a $8,25 for that I could only repeat then what I had said the Conservative party. On the contrary, the fancy and extra. The latter price only realized stated that among other subjects discussed at Government, had tatterly voted more often inferior Whea offering, and the market for these and feeling that had grown up between the at the time the Hon. Mr Ross retired was not prime lots are scarce and firmly held; sales 8,000 f bush at $,68 a 1,80 for good to Frime Southern, and $1,69 for fair White Canadian.

the Government. He stated that all the great tive Government could not be formed, still less bush. prime Northern were made at 85c, deliverquestions having been settled which formerly could a Conservative Government be formed ed. The Corn market is somewhat unsettled; divided them as Conservatives and Reformers, when the Postmaster General resigned. The good and prime parcels are wanted to complete middle common-sense—(laughter)—party. Hon. da was broken up by the retirement of those two prices, while all other kinds rule dull and droopgentlemen may laugh at the term common sense gentlemen. Several gentlemen of the Liberal ing; sales 25,000 bush at 58 a 61c for mixed but that was the nature of the communication party had voted a continuance of their confimade to me. Mr Spence was sent for, and the dence-Mr A. Morrison, Mr Roblin, Mr Conger, ulting parcels, and 55 a 59c for old mixed West-sideration of what had happened, he thought it to be expected that those gentlemen would have and drooping. Sales 400 bbls at $18,50 for ill as best to put in writing what had taken place, in continued their confidence to a purely Conser- $16,50 for prime Mess, and $14,75 for prime a letter to Sir Allan McNab, and he showed me vative Government. For these reasons, I retir- Beel steady sales 200 bbls at $7a$8 for country imports - Port of Kingston.

Elmer; 25 uxs 25 hif bxs raisins, M.Rourk 1 ox, 3 bbls turpentine, G. Baker & Co.; 2 fron sales, 2 bols oil, 3 boxes clocks, 3 boxes weights, W. Harry & Co.; 1 bell, W. Wilson; 1 carboy, J. Grange & Co.; 1 bbl turpentine, H. Fraser; 2 doz shovels, 2 doz spades, 2 bdls wire, 4 bxs tacks, D. B. Booth; 2 bbls, 4 cses, 8 bxs tobacco, I case cigars, S. P. White; 50 doz spade handles, T. Drammond; I case machinery, J. H. Pickard; I case paperhang: ing, A Urquhart; 4 bols tar, S. Moriey; 1 bx bardware 6 ovens, E. Chown; 3 chests tea, A. Tierney & Co; 30 balls poles, J.E.P. Irwin, 20 bas or toges and 19 bois apples, G. Worthy; 25 bbis .. pp es, B. Stacy; I box, T. J. Auger.

stove in on the side nearest the explosion. Had a replaced by the circumstance that it not been for the fact that a few moments beit not been fact that a few moment Arabs dead. Fortunately at this juncture for the explosion all the workmen were called from the dock to make tant a rope, there must have been a fearful destruction of human life.

But as the matter now stands, so far as we can learn, only two persons were injured, and that learn, only two persons were injured, and that learn, only two persons were injured, and that learn, only two persons were injured, and carried the wounded man to his vesting from the dock to make tant a rope, there must have been a fearful destruction of human life.

But as the matter now stands, so far as we can learn, only two persons were injured, and that they wished to convey to the constituents and the ground was taken unanimously and legal department of their statement I saw it affected the was called on to form an Administration of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they came from a meeting of the Council, and the ground was taken unanimously and legal department of Upper Canada. In doing so, I thought he was only giving me my due, for if me the information that circumstances might knight, it was I, one who willingly acknow
This Company is one of the most respectable in the position of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I sent for him. They stated that they could not submit to a distribution of Mr Spence also, I s arn, only two persons were injured, and that slightly, by flying fragments of timber; one upon the arm, and another upon the leg.

Sel. Capt. Ryder recovered from his sell. Ryde Will of one or the Pacific's Passengers.

Whaling vessels on the coast, and the seams a life to suggest or coarse to propose for the benefit of the party, on to occasion did I make that they might not at some future time be those suggestions my own, but consulted with charged with bad faith. They mentioned also bearing The Canada. We all cordially agree in this view. Sir A. MeNati did not express himself in favor those suggestions my own, but consulted with charged with bad faith. They mentioned also bearing The Canada. We all cordially agree in this view. Sir A. MeNati did not express himself in favor those suggestions my own, but consulted with charged with bad faith. They mentioned also bearing The Canada. We all cordially agree in this view. Sir A. MeNati did not express himself in favor those suggestions my own, but consulted with charged with bad faith. They mentioned also is wife and oldest daughter were lost in the the natives, who are represented as being those suggestions my own, but consulted with charged with bad faith. They mentioned, also, bearing. The Government was broken up. I lishment, thus enabling them to resume business