ral commanding the forces, it appears that | trial-Leader. the Vulcan, with the 17th Regiment on sail thence for Quebec yesterday, the 9th Pirce 2 instant. We also learn, on good authority, IF Single copies of the Chronicle and News for his command, in the Persia, on Satur- | very Friday morning. day next, 12th July. Dr. Alexander, C. B., Inspector General of Hospitals, is appointed Head of the Medical Staff in Canada, and leaves England immediately. He has served throughout the whole of the Eastern campaign, and was Surgeon of the 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, when stationed in this city.

NEW DISCOVERY .- A fine natural harbor on Lake Ontario, a tew miles below Presque Isle, has been opened by a strange freak of dame nature, and Consecon is now open to steamers of the largest class navigating the lake. This is no humbug. for the steamer Chief Justice Rolinson last to the thriving town of Consecon, the 10th inst., in lat. 53-12; long. 42-25. through the new outlet lately formed from Weller's Bay, as soon as the wharf is completed, which a spirite I gentleman of Conecon is now constructing. We believe it tween Cobourg and Oswego .- [Belleville Intelligencer.

THE CROPS .- Everywhere the face of the country is charming. A lively green overspreads the fields in every direction; all round. in some places, the peculiar tinge that denotes the approaching maturity of the wheat is! beginning to appear. Any one looking casually upon the waving grain, would exult in the prospect of a profuse harvest, and increased plenty, to make Jaques & Hay, together with all the adjacent hard labor. The gold seekers in California and glad all hearts. The insect which has in buildings, lumber yards, wharves, &c., were en- Australia, no matter what was their previous to assume any responsibility, direct or indirect, previous years ravaged many a fair field tirely destroyed by fire this P.M. that gave delight to the farmer before he The fire burned with such rapidity that the their high-wrought expectations, deemed them must therefore decline to fix any day for its disof the milky kernels, and the farmers ex- others badly injured. short spell more of steady ripening weather, property will be immense. and the fullest expectations of the wheat grower will be realized .-- [Whitby Reporter, July 12.

Washington, July 10. in the territories. The motion was fully the American government was a mere "elec- see that their domestics demean themselves given notice, if he had an opportunity of doing successful; sectional rancor was fully tioneering experiment," and contends that all are empowered, in case admonitions and serious party majority voted the 20,000. If ever lie opinion in America was favorable to Mr printed, they will simply lumber the al- Crampton; says it is an entire mistake; thus ready over-crowded store-room of the Su- kicking away one of the principal grounds asperintendent of Public printing. Nobody sumed by the British Government for its moderwants the bill. All who care to do so ation and forbearance. If the English mind have read and re-read it in the public jour- should take a "sober second thought," and renals, until it has become as notorious as the consider its hasty conclusion to retain Mr Dallas last dying speech and confession of the and swallow Mr Marcy's compound soap pills. wretch who swung at Tyburn. The Sen- it would afford great satisfaction to a large proate printer will make his profits, and the portion of British subjects in both hemispheres. grocers will rejoice at a fall in the price of The English government and people must now wrapping paper.

A JUVENILE HERO .- Some few days ago, as a gentleman in a buggy was coming over the Cataraqui Bridge, he took up a their government became "sassy." small Drum Boy, belonging to the Ninth Regiment, it raining heavily at the time. Seeing a medal on the boy's breast, almost as big as the lad himself, he asked him where and how he got it. "Afthe taking Clarendon) considers unworthy of belief. But ple which marks their characters for the remainof Sebastopol," was the ready answer; be accords to our government the full right of der of their lives. Their extravagance in the "and I mean to get its fellow soon." forming its judgment in regard to the duty of the House of Com- cause they agreed with that party in their an-"Indeed," said the gentleman. "Yes, ment of its own laws, and on that ground re- characteristic of the servant girls of America. mons, as the guardians of the national honor tagonism to compact, and their desire for the indeed," rejoined the boy, " we are sure to by sending passports to Mr Dallas. Yet he styles pronounce a verdict upon this question which servative party, however well the greater por have a war with the Yankees, and the way the proceedings on the part of our government of attire the ladies whom they serve, and it too should be worthy of their reputation for justice, tion of it desired the churches to remain upon I'll walk into those fellows, will soon get one of "an unfriendly character," and while pro- often happens that, in order to indulge this un- fair dealing, and good faith among other coun- their former footing-is now freed from these me another medal." "Did you ever see fessing a continuance of friendly feeling on the becoming taste for finery, after having exhaust- tries. Such a course would tend more to win associations which afforded their opponents a a Yankee !—he is a tall chap seven feet language that implies an intention not, for the language that implies an intention not, for the high, able to eat you up, and jump over present, to appoint a successor to Mr Crampton. driven to the expedient of sacrificing their in- States' Government had been "deceived, irri- which was considered to denote a party devoted you into the bargain; what could you do Thus Mr Crampton's credit is saved, British dig- tegrity and bonor, ending their career in pros- tated and offended," as an hon, member on that to the maintenance of a system now repealed, with him?" "Could'nt I cut at him as he nity sustained, American wilfulness gratified, titution and utter disgrace. It is a general com- (the Opposition) side of the house had asserted, does not now apply in the same sense as it once came down? replied the small warrior. and direful war averted. Our own people hardly anticipated a conjoint realization of such apthe Government but to their fellow-subjects, to sion of parliament, we cannot ascertain wherein So putting the boy down at the Barrack parently inconsistent results. They reckoned city, that they are much addicted to "picking pass its censure upon those by whom the in- lies the difference between Radicals and Con-Gate, the gentleman drove away, well satis- with considerable confidence upon the last three; and stealing," and the no less debasing vice of terests of the two countries had been perilled? servatives; the division list finds the names of fied that British Supremacy in Canada but these, they imagined, would necessarily cost drunkenness. Everything must be kept under the sacrifice of the first. If Lord Clarendon has the sacrifice of the parties ranked together. And why was safe for the period of that young managed, or thinks he has managed, to avoid lock and key, and a strict eye kept over their tion of Mr Moor's remarks; but he persevered in and chirfly because the Radicals have placed soldier's servitude .- Whig.

Supressed Munder. - Edward Adolphus Long- ouite satisfactory. circumstances : - About a week ago the Chief of years ago, on the Dublin and Kingstown road. confiding England. he was mentioned as having been a magistrate. Is the Enquirer a supporter of President tion before the Police Magistrate. He stated to his Worship that it was his brother-in-law that | following extract testifies :to him 24 hours before he sent it to the Chief. can people and the civilized world, than To corroborate this statement, he repeated the management of this enlistment question correct. The prisoner further stated to his ment with a confidence which, for other cause Worship that he was two years out from the has long since foreaken it. old country where he served in the constabulary. He was in the Montreal Police, up to two months ago, when he came to Toronto. He had frequently been taunted with the crime

had at the counter of the publishing office

that Lieut. General Sir William Eyre, K. sontaining the news of the week may be had, in propensities: C.B., will leave England, with his Staff, | vrappers for mailing. Price 4d. each. Issued

The Daily News.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 16.

Arrival of the Canadian.

QUEBRC, July 15. The steamship Canadian, Capt. Battantyne, | was severely cut, and M. Peeples was killed. arrived in Port at half-past five this morning, with four days later news from Europe. has a large number of passengers.

Consols 954. concerning Ministers in the American enlist- notwithstanding his entreaties not to do so. The it would certainly obe convenient to the House They were then to go and rob a little store not far ment question, was rejected by a majority of 124. intent upon hostility draw a revolver, which lay, but, as any day I could name must neces- not made. That night I sat out of doors almost made an exploring expedition on Saturday a.m. The Canadian met the Anglo-Saxon on dall, who then threw him down and continued will not think me importunate or unreasonable clothes, as they have done several times before, Euglish Wheat 7d lower.

Liverpool, Tucsday evening. We must expect the Grain Market of the intention of Captain Young to call United Kingdom to be influenced mainly by the at the new port regularly on his trips be- weather, for at least 2 months. The Continents markets, from scarcity of present stocks remain on the whole unsustained. We have to note a reduction of 2d to 3d per bushel in all descriptions of wheat since this day last week.

Indian Corn .-- Sales limited and reduced 2

Conso's closed 954 to 954.

Fire in Toronto.

Toronto, July 15th, 1856.

sent in his reaper, does not appear to have workmen jumped from the upper storey of the selves fortunate to be enabled to earn their indirectly give my consent, on the part of the made his insidious appearance in the heart building, and several were killed, besides many bread by the most menial employments, which, Government, to the discussion taking place.

The New York Courier and Enquirer, which boasted lately of its having incurred the odium of being favorable to British interests by its The Senate yesterday consumed nine anxiety to preserve "friendly relations" with only half done. Cheap lands in the new settlemortal hours, from noon till drowsy eve, of Great Britain, having always maintained that merts offer inducements to enterprise and ina sultry day, in renewing agitation upon no hostile spirit existed on either side to war-Slavery. Mr Douglas made himself re- rant the assumption that either desired an intersponsible for the revival of debate upon ruption of the amicable disposition so long ex- and say they "can't get anything to do." this disturbing question, by a motion to isting with each other, now manifests a little print 20,000 cepies of Toomb's hill for sensitiveness at the creditable manner in which bear with patience the taunts of the Americans. It serves them right. They should by this time have thoroughly understood the American pational character, to have been qualified to administer the proper kind of diplomacy when

In commenting upon Lord Clarendon's mas-

terly despatch, the Courier says :this, of course Americans have no reason to com- conduct. These involve a degree of attention putting his motion, which, was negatived by a forward no exclusive platform. They cannot plain, for Lord Clarendon's reply to the de-spatch on the Central American difficulty, is ing of such "drabs" peculiarly onerous and un-

No doubt of it, for it affords the Americans Police received a letter stating, that the pris- another opportunity to display their cunning oner had committed a murder in Ireland, some and tact in circumventing too credulous and

On this information the prisoner was arrested Pierce? If not, he is unquestionably a strong necessity of a good character to ensure confibeen happity exempt from the worst trials of on Saturday and was brought up for examina- backer of his late most obnoxious acts, as t wrote the letter to the Chief of Police-that be | If the Administration of President Pierce had did it out of spite, and that he showed the letter | nothing worse to answer for, before the Americontents of the letter which was found to be would, and well might, now be awaiting indg-

The following hard hit at the British Governnow accused of, but being innocent, he did not ment occurs in Mr Moore's speech in Parliapay any attention to it.-His Worship said that | ment, a portion of which we republish else-

ed, Butler deposed that he sailed in the same present respect of the people of that country, season. sip as the prisoner on the 13th June, 1854. He nor its future forbearance. It was inconsisdid not see the prisoner or his companion until tent with the dignity of this country and of its oner admitted to him that he was a deserter. Heard some talk about the murder then. When had neither the heart to atone for an offence Those who intend to drive out will find the new the vessel arrived at her destination, the prisoner | nor the spirit to resent an indignity.

We copy the following Military intelli- and his companion were put ashore in the night | The pugnacious spirit of our affectionate Yangence from the Quebec Chronicle:—From Worship considered the evidence was such as to the increase of caloric in the atmosphere. Between red-hot politicians and a glowing sun; they have a hot time of it "down South," as wit-II Single copies of the Daily New: may be ness the following brace of paragraphs; the quire some stringent check to their bellicose

the 3rd instant, Hon. Edmund Martin in the member for the University of Oxford, the noble there is no safety anywhere. Two or three days chair. When the committee to prepare business | ford stated that he expected the answer of her since a train came through, and the waggeners was about to retire, Mr Jesse Peeples, a member | Majesty's Government to the last communica- said there were three waggens, partly loaded | of the House of Representatives of South Caro- tion from the Government of the United States with provisions, standing by the road, and three lina, asked Mr Martin why he did not place him would be laid before the House in the course of a men lying dead beside them, one of them partly on the committee. On Mr Martin stating that | week. After the noble lord's statement, I at eaten up by wolves. It is said also that there the had not thought of him, Mr Peeples gave him the lie, and was thereupon knocked down. general fight ensued, in which Dr E. H. Martin, of Savannah, son of the Hon. Edmond Martin, obtained, because so many young men, healthy the more confirmed in thinking it a right one. The large Cabinet manufactory belonging to and strong, would rather be idle than turn to "standing in society," when disappointed in in regard to a discussion upon this question. business of trafficking in dry goods and other doing so the forms of the House afford him the merchandise is overdone, while the more creditable and remunerative business of farming is dustry, which should be gladly embraced by the " young men about town," who make wry faces does not end inger life. to most families in towns and cities, it certainly ent moment? by the mistresses their services have become pleasant. For the sake of the employers and the employed, some effort should be made, in a general way, for imparting to that indispensable fice of the New York Kansas League, from the class of persons a knowledge of the important | New York Settlement in Kansas. relations they bear to the interests and happiness of a large portion of the community, the central and highly advantageous position, ninedence and regard, and a sensibility of the deep some of the free State settlements; but it will responsibility involved by the intimate social be seen that they have been greatly distressed position they necessarily occupy. Mistresses, by want and alarm. Other accounts confirm also, are open to censure for the frequently im- this letter :proper demeanor toward their servants, who are neither saints nor angels to bear without resentful feelings the tyranny frequently exercised toward them. But we have no desire to extend our remarks in that direction, lest we might be deemed personal; and we find we have strayed far from our text-the "Servants Hungary.

Kendall was fined $10.

Hotel accommodation being rather scarce as Perth Road the most direct route.

Great Britain.

RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES. In the House of Commons on Friday night,

Mr Moore said, I wish to put a question to the regard to the motion of which I have given no- went out as a scout, to see whether the road tice. Some papers were laid on the table 10 or | was open, that our teams could go out after pro-12 days ago in reference to the American ques- visions. After traveling several miles one of The Savannah Georgian states that a public tion and a few days afterward in a reply to an our party received a shot from a hidden enemy meeting was held in St. Peters Parish, S.C., on inquiry from the right hon. gentlemen, the which cut off his suspenders. Thus, you see, once consented to postpone my motion until we are four or five others lying dead at Cedar were in possession of that answer.

that occasion from the Home Secretary in up- rumors, but many too true. One of Buford's braiding the right hon. Paronet the member for | men, who had come up here, as is now sur pos-Droitwitch for anticipating the coming discus- ed, as a spy left a few days ago, and, on his An affray occurred at New Orleans on the 2d sion, and from a jesture of the noble lord in re- way, at Hundred and Ten Mile Creek, met instant, in which G. W. Kendall, late Postmas- ply, as I thought, to a question I had put, I sup- traveller, to whom he incautiously communicater of that city, and T. S. McKay, late U.S. Dis- posed that the Government had consented that ted his plan, which was, to murder a certain trict Attorney, were the actors. According to some definite day should be fixed for the discus- min who offended him, leaving others to guard the Delta, Keadall collared McKay and proceed- sion upon the subject. We are now in posses- a neighboring house, where several young men In the House of Commons, Mr Moore's motion | ed to thrash him in quite an effective manner, sion of the papers to which I have referred, and slept, to prevent them from going to his rescue. latter, however, in seeing that his adversary was that a definite date should be fixed without de- off. For some reason, however, the attempt was The steamer Indian arrived on 7th inst., at 11 | was at once knocked out of his hand by Mr Ken- sarily be uncertain, I hope the noble lord all night, and my family did not take off their the assault until the bystanders separated them. when I ask him to name some day next week. when we have expected attacks. Plunder seems Both parties were taken before the Recorder Under the circumstances, the motion I shall now to be the object of the enemy. Yesterday a when McKay declined to make any charge, submit will not be couched in the same terms as man came to me, who had been travelling the one I have placed on the paper.

A CHANCE FOR THOSE WHO WANT EMPLOYMENT gentlemen will not think it is from any want of, for provisions, in hopes to evade the maranding Bear thou the burthen of this wrong thyself, -Over 2,000 laborers and tracklayers are now courtesy to him that I am obliged to say I can- parties. He said if we wanted floor, we must of opinion that, in the present state of our re- losing it. Lake Huron Railroad. Let those young men lations with the United States, it is not desirwho are wasting precious time, waiting for able-it would not be conducive to that settle-"something to turn up," and who have, in nine | ment which, I am sure, it is the interest of both cases out of ten, more pride than principle, countries to bring about (hear, hear) that the cease lingering about our cities, living in mean should be made the subject of a discussion in dependence on their relatives or friends, and at this house (Cries of "Hear, hear," from the once proceed to earn their bread by the sweat Opposition benches.) This opinion is, I think, of their brows on railroads and farms, where shared by some hon. gentlemen who do not agree in the general policy with her Majesty's. more hands are required than can readily to Government (hear, hear,) and I am therefore

That being the case, I am sure the hon. gentleman will excuse me for saying that I am unwilling, on the part of her Majesty's Government cussion, as by so doing I should, at all events, must determine whether, under the circum tanis much better rewarded than the latter. The on his motion, and if he should determine upon afford every other private member [Hear, hear, After debate on other subjects,

Mr G. H. Moore said it was necessary for him to inform the House that he was not statisfied with the answer he had received a few minutes since from the noble lord with regard to the relations between this country and America When he recollected that the noble lord had already granted a day for the discussion of that question, before the papers bearing upon it were SERVANTS IN HUNGARY .- The conduct of ser- completed; and when he recollected also that vants in Hungary is certainly no better than it the Home Secretary thought proper to taunt the converting Kansas into a Slave State, Lord Clarendon maintains the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be, and merits the application of restricting the character and should be applicated by the character and should be applica through the operation of an Executive conduct of Mr Crampton. Taking his que from tive measures; but what would the same class ting a coming discussion by a premature ex-Commission. This was a palpable elec- the Loudon Times, he would make it appear in England say if they were subjected to the pression of opinion, he (Mr Moore) must say the tioneering trick, but it served, as well as that Mr Crampton was not (excuse the vulgarany other expedient, the Democratic pur- ism) "what he is cracked up to be." He dispose of keeping up excitement in the South, claims entirely what some of his cotemporaries display of finery in their dress, or to indulge in and why he would deem it his duty to persevere over its sectional crusade against freedom were solicitous to establish, that the action of unseemly diversions. Masters of families are to in bringing forward the motion of which he had

Kansas took place. Mr Douglas himself cretion," that he had not acted in good faith, and shall not prejudice the health of domestics." holes and corners of official intrigue. He was Central America. While in countries which are performed the part of senior wrangler, had contravened the spirit of the neutrality Meaning thereby that culprits may be placed bound to say explicitly, that he saw nothing in peopled by men whose fathers identified might experience has conferred upon him. The the erroneous impression that enlightened put- chastised to any amount, providing the process induce the House to pause in pronouncing an gle for d min ney to- lay, which took place when Cats-per bushel Though we are no advocate for corporeal pun- rious not only to the public service, but to the see generally the races with which the Saxon Indian Corn-56lbs ishment, it must be admitted that house-servants | credit and honor of the country, to leave the element has commingled establishing their in- Provisions-Beef, Mess, per bl in this country are a great nuisance, and fortu- discretion of the Government. But there was In Canada and Australia a single insurrection nate is he or she who can dispense with them. a more important question than this involved. in each has marked an era; in the dependencies But as they are an "institution" indispensable | What was the state of public opinion at the pres- of other countries a rebellion is not even a no- Pork-Mess maids enjoy more privileges and immunities, and thought that, although there was no case for cious they are willing to abide by it sooner than higher wages, than in any part of Europe; and present hostilities, yet that there was reason for experimentalise with another. With such a yet, withal, they are, in nine cases out of ten, a watchful and resentful jealousy of outrage up. Conservative material, rational, shrewd politimost ignorant and inefficient. Their inordinate inion had been drifting, in fact, into a state remember and which would be im- Private do. at 90 d.s., inion had been drifting, in fact, into a state pregnable, and which would leave their oppolove of change, which prompts them to leave which might be the prelude to war, since a feel- nents destitute even of a cry which would com- Private good places for the mere sake of novelty, just at | ing of national humiliation, and a sense of na- | mand anything like a response in the country. a time, too, when, by dint of constant drilling tional exasperation might hereater lead to hos- While the association of the family compact tilities. [Hear, hear] Was it wise and just, with the Conservative cause was often prejuditherefore, in the House of Commons to remain | cial to the latter-while the nomenclature of some value to their employers, engenders an silent, and to leave the public to sit down and the party was associated with those who con-

The evidence on which Mr Crampton and the unsteadiness of habit, and a voidness of princi- bite their thumbs in ignominious silence? tended for the maintenance of the State churchprevent such a feeling from growing and fes- | whose feeling were Conservative, although they tering in the minds of the people of England; identified themselves with the Radical body, bepronounce a verdict upon this question which servative party, however well the greater por

Affairs in Council City, Kansas.

The following is an extract received at the of Council, City, enjoying a remote, as well as a

Conneil City, June 14 and 19, Every man sleeps on his arms who has any. all being in hourly fear of being surprised and by Messrs. Hartman, Gould, and others, and the robbed, or murdered. Three of our citizens left Globe already professes to have but a shaken here for Kansas City the first of this month for faith in our system of responsible government. provisions, but no tidings have yet been receiv- The Canadian Conservatives of the present day ed of them. There is no safety here for proper- may be known by their opposition to these proty or life. Things look darker with me than ev- posed changes, and the country is with them in er. Two of my family lie sick of bilious fever- their opposition. Save the views which are held We trust our readers will not overlook one of them delirious a part of the time, and as by parties with regard to maintaining a militia REVIEW force, public opinion does not mark any other he did not see any responsible and receive which some country and to receive with same vessel as the prisoner. On being examinated and must suffer the consequences; I had been and country at a pleasant and must suffer the consequences; I had been one of the start o and a star of little to myself. what they may, if they are with us on this show an advance of 3s to 4s per barrel on the face. We have not flour enough to last us three | point, they are to all intents and purposes Con- | week. days, and no money to buy more, while I cannot plication of the term in Canada.

so completely blockeded by guerilla parties that no man dare travel on it except the great Santa Fe traders. Murders are perpetrated all along the road, and if a man happens along with team or on horseback, he is sure to be robbed of his money, if he has any, and his horses besides. Several of our citizens have been robbed of small noble lord at the head of the Government with amounts-all they had. A few days since Creek. Human life seems to be no more re-Judging from the expressions which fell upon garded than a dead dog. There are many false about the settlement, trying to raise a posse to Lord Palmerston replied-I hope the hon. go with three or four waggons to Leavenworth

Conservative Policy.

From the Prototype.

As Ca nada grows older, and as her people acquire more stake in the country, as they attain distinction and competence, or see them attainable by steady industry and perseverance, so they become more Conservative in idea, and more tenacious of the liberties which they enjoy. In a new State where 'interests are not established, where adventurers cone, like Henry of Perth, but to struggle for their own hand, we see the parties in power ever holding fast to all which can contribute to their supremacy; while, on the other side, the masses are restless and desirous in their own country, they regarded as mean [Hear.] Of course it is open to the hon. gentle- of violent and rapid changes. We see this conpect to realize a full average crop. A 5 P. M. The fire still burning, and the loss of and degrading. In Canada there is more room man to make what arrangements he pleases. He dition of things illustrated in new colonies and now States, and where the antecedents and edufor physical than mental labor, and the former ces, it is consistent with his public duty to bring cation of their people are not qualified for sound policy, we see the unconceding rule of the dominant faction and the levelling contentions of same means of bringing it forward that they the others prolonged. But when men who have been reared under free institutions, such as those of Great Britain, who have been imbued with British sentiments, and are naturally jealous of individual rights; where such men colonize a country, the liberal element is soon made apparent in the determination to resist despotic government, to maintain law and order, and to accomplish great changes by moral sussion. Your Arranged by a Committee of Brokers expressly Spaniard and Southern Statesman adopt a more untutored, and a shorter, and therefore less permanent method of erecting or abolishing political systems. But their physical victories leave after them a spirit crushed but unregenerated. wishes thwarted, not dispelled nor satisfied, and resolves not turned, but rendered more firm and bitter by punitive injustice. Such results conquer, but do not convince; they suppress, but do not eradicate.

> The very tardiness with which men of British extraction and educational training adopt new views, are content to seek their ac complishment. opinion, and that it would be unwise and inju- | mose countries were in their primitive state; we | Peas-White, do ... velty. And all this tends to prove that our Why, there were tens and hundreds of thous- people are naturally moderate by nationality; is desirable that their deportment should be gov- ands of men, not ignorant or unwise, but men! that their growing prosperity has of a sequence erned by a higher sense of duty and obligation of sound understanding and with a high-min- made them more contented with affairs of state than they seem to recognize. In the principal ded sense of justice, who had a strong convigues well as of business; that their proclivities Butter-inspected No. 1 cities of Canala and the United States house- tion that this country had been humiliated are constitutional and not destructive; and wronged in the late transactions, and that so long as a political system is found effica-

Was it not their duty, on the contrary, to es-there was a numerous body of the people say of the principles which they advocated, "these form the basis of our prominent measures. these are our party questions, and by them are we known,"-- The theories of the so-called Libererals have not been developed much in parliament during this session. They have kept comparatively quiet about elective judges and elective sheriffs. They have let vote by ballot alone. And they have been perfectly mum about annual parliaments, and their other chartist hobbies. Nevertheless these are the characteristics to know the Clear Grit by; these are the topics which they agitate in their newspapers, and prate about at public dinners and on election hustings. The advisability of adopting a written constitution, after the American fashion, and in lieu of of our present transcript of England and America.

FOR THE NEWS. Noble old England, in thy conscious might, Thou'st curbed thy haughty spirit once again Returning good for evil, which is right-And answers goodly purpose in the main. But oftentimes too much of yielding gives Erroneous impressions to ignoble minds; And Nations who have grown as mushrooms live, Measure men's courage just by what they

Therefore his well to know to whom we yield, Lest our submission take the garb of fear-And bragging statesmen cry "they're glad to

Themselves and their bold armies from us Thy Merchant Princes, England, have too long

held sway. They scout at honor so that they gain pelf! They would bow down to "Jonathan" each day. And cry "Dear Yankee Cousin help yourself So you'll but buy our fabrics, what care we! You may go on and gain the Western Work.

If you'll be sure to call upon us o'er the sea, For our fine textures—THEY we have unfurled Instead of flags or banners."-This is fine For men in easy chairs to talk and think upon They much prefer life, luxury and wine! To standing on such fields as "bloody Inker-

Pacific England, I will tell thee a true tale, And if thou heed'st its import, it is well---All thy endeavors to keep peace will fail -Unless theu'lt give up this fair land and sell Thy very birthright to thy boasting son; For he'll go on demanding now, so well he's

By bluster, insult, and all mean abuse. Civility, he cities, to England, what's the use? Nor sacrifice the honor of thy noble son! . advertised for to be employed on the Buffalo and of opinion that in the present state of our re- losing it. From some wild savage region; he has done His duty nobly, and 'midst saunt and jeer His wondrous English patience still beld

Though oft we've wondered how such blood could

To see and hear what "Yankee Cousins" say ! There is a jealous hatred in their inmost hearts For all that bears old England's stamp or

This feeling forms by far the greater part Of all their early teachings-'tis the aim Of every putriot parent to impress this theme, So strongly in the soil of each young brain, That through life's dread realities and dreams Hatred to England is the undring strain Which colors all their lives and their elections, And gives the very hue to their complexions. Stand on thine honor now, brave England,

Firmness is a just cause,- is valor's nobles t Thou'rt dealing with a crafty foe. Demands

Are but the heralds of the coming storm. The "Ricans" and "Mosquetos" are small fish, He'll find "Canadians" a trifle larger, Less easy to be laid upon his national dish By sympathetic dodge or fiery charger.

Morrisbarg, July #2th, 1856.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, July 12, 1856. for the "Montreal Herald."-JOHN G. DINning, Secretary.

PRODUCE. Ashes-Pots, per cwt. .. Flour - Ca. Fine, per bbl 196 lbs 22 6 a 26 ? Do No. 1 Canadian 33 0 a 33 9 Do. No. 1 U. States, 30 0 a 32 6 do S. Wheat, 31 3 a 33 0 Fancy & Extra Sup. 35 6 a 40 0 Whatever had been done well during the late evidences the Conservative tendencies by which Indian Meal-196 lbs 13 6 a 15 0 aroused, and a full discussion of the de- parties and classes, with few exceptions, con- warnings should prove neffectual, to have re- war had been done under the pressure of nublic | they are influenced in their slow mode of proce- Oatmeal-224 fbs 20 0 a 21 plorable tragedy now proceeding in curred in the belief of Mr Crampton's "indis- course to forcible measures of household chas- opinion in that House and out of it, and that all dure. We have evidence of all this in the his- opinion in that House and out of it, and that all dure. We have evidence of all this in the his-L. C. Red, per minot Prime Mess do 57 6 a 60 0 Prime 85 0 a 00 0 Do. in bond, foreign insp. Unicspected

EXCHANGE. Bank Bills, at 60 d.s., onLondon, 104a00 prem. 3 d.s., onNewYork a 0

one of the leaders here, and must suffer the consequences. I returned answer, that they might come and take me if I was of so much censesequences and anti-destructive portion of the people; and let men who have bithvanced prices. The sales of yesterday were at erto acted with the Radicals call memselves the advanced rates quoted in our tables, which

> Wheat-A fair business has been done in Wheat, at 8s 3d for Canada mixed, 6s 3d to 7