Sea d Heads in children, and eruptions on the akin --- A certain remedy for these complaints. Ars Marston residing in Quebec, had two childrec afflicted with the most inveterate scuid heads; they were also much dishgured with eruptions on the skin, the parents had recourse to a furiety of remedies for the affeviation of .ttle sufferers; many things were tried, but all u iforumately made the children worse, and in lead the virulence increased and spread nearis all over their bodies. The parent eventually determined to try Holloway's Uintment and I'ills, which she commenced using in accordance with the directions, and by persevering with them for eight weeks, the children were both effectually cured; they have since enjoyed the best of health, and have not had any return of the complaint.
