Uterrous Sores. - A poor man named Maskey, in the employ of Lieut, Webster, of Pugwash, was terribly afflicted with several ulcerous sores on his body, and two on his leg, which rendered him a most miserable object, and frequently deprived him of the means of earning his daily bread; he obtained advice from some very emuent medical men, but he did not get any better, however, the gallant and humane Lieut. finally purchased for him a quantity of Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which Mackey commenced using ; he persevered with these remedies for only nine weeks, when to the astonishment of every one, acute suffering. These famous medicines will cure old wounds even of 30 years standing.
