BREAK INTO AN ONTARIO STREET STORE ON SATURDAY.

The Lads Have Frequently Attacked the Store of Stevenson—The Police Looked into the Case and Secured the Parties Who Did the Work.

Several times recently the candy store at No. 74 Ontario street, kept by Joseph Stevenson, has been broken into and thefts small or large perpetrated, but 'Joe," as the proprietor is popularly known, has steadily refused to take legal action, his good nature getting the better DAYS of his anger each time.

On Saturday morning he left home with his little push cart at 5:30 o'clock and did not return until 5 p.m. Reaching the store at that hour he found that it had been broken into, and a quantity of candies, bananas, cigars, cigarettes and fishing lines carried off. Patience ceased to be a virtue and "Joe" complained to the and we will remove

The unaccompanied quartette, "When the Calm of Night is Falling," which was gate the case. On examining the premises back to our old stand. so beautifully rendered by Mrs. Galloway, he found that an end window in the upper of several officers of the Bank of British and so got into the store-room. There are the author of the words and who had and upon finding what had been stolen, and upon receiving from their mothers a promise to send the younger delinquents to court, when required, he allowed them to remain at home. They did not deny their guilt. The sister of G. Andre had taken a packet of cigarettes, and these she handed to the policeman, who discovered a quantity hidden in the shed. The offenders stated that they put the cigars back after | having stolen them. They admitted havmissing, but the victim of the robbery could, not tell how much it amounted to. At least one of the offenders has recently been in court, the charge having been stealing a boat from Gr. Ryder, of "A" battery. He was found guilty and was is uncrushable and keeps the skirt soundly whipped by the police.

The four lads were arraigned in police night. Mr. Britton says there is no spos- sented to have them tried summarily by Frank Hawley, aged twelve years, throug that he put back all he stole. P. C. Mc-Cullagh here produced a fishing line and other articles t at were not returned. Mrs. Old steamboat captains say they never | Andre said if 'Joe" were honest himself be treated in such a manner

Mrs. Hawley offered to send her eldest boy out of the city if given a chance. The elder Andre and the elder Hawley were each sentenced to the reformatory for two years and a further indefinite period three years, and the two younger offenders were whipped by the police with the consent of their parents. An Indian named Dick, who was gathered in on Saturday night, for flourishing huge knife and threatening to kill people on Charles street, was fined $1 and costs with the choice of a month in jail.
