ADVERTISING BOTH HOUSES. A Tailor's and a Doctor's Son Try to Help Their Father's Business.

It is a peculiar belief among the youngsters of many families that the new baby sister or brother is the gracious gift of the tamily physician, and this belief is generally based upon the solemn assurance of papa and mamma, who have to tell some fairy story in order to tide over those events that occur occasionally in the best regulated families.

Now and then a boy takes the law into sionally in the best regulated families. his own hands and makes a mess of An instance of this kind was related at the last meeting of the medical society. It seems that the young son of a well-known tailor and the young son of a well-known doctor were very chummy, and the former accompanied the latter one afternoon on an advertising expedition. The advertsing was done by means of a paint brush being traced over any smooth piece of wood or stone encount ered, and called upon the male populative asked him what he had been doing during the day.
