Mr. Booth's weakness overcame him apon several occasions, and he determined o save his triends from the humiliation he felt he was causing them by living among strangers. He went to West 10th street, where he lived for a time or until about a month ago when he moved to his present residence where he occupied a back parlor. Tuesday he left, and on his return showed signs of having been drinking. Yesterday Mr. Thompson called and relieved Booth of all his money to make him stop drinking, but the latter obtained it, and at midnight was on the verge of delerium tremens. He became so boisterous that the police were called in and he was removed to Bellevue hospital in an ambu-

There are one or two matters which the Ontario rugby football union should consider at its annual meeting on Saturday, Dec. 12th. One is the strengthenof the five yard clause deal ing with the question of a player catching from a punt. The union should insist that referees and umpires have this clause more closely observed during a match. It is safe to say that not once during the past season has the clause been observed as it should have been. If a player got five or six feet grace in making a mark he might consider himself lucky. which should be looked into and improved is the scrimmage, which would fulfil its sentation of the Virgin Mary. It is also mission if the referee was allowed to place dominion championship rests in abeyance the sixteenth anniversary of the consecration the ball in every instance. Under present tion of his grace archbishop Cleary, which | conditions the team placing the ball event occurred at Rome at the hands of in scrimmage has a decided advantage, as nine times out of ten is handed out to the quarterback, thus making the scrimmage blind and a farce.
