WHO ARE MOST INDECENT? The complaint of a tory paper Cornwall, that the liberals were a trifle F. PARTRIDGE, CRESCENT WIRE fast and so somewhat indecent in calling a political convention for the nomination of a candidate for the late Dr. Bergin's seat, has led to revelatious.

These come from the Freeholder, the liberal paper. They are to the effect that while Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Adolphe Caron, Hon. Mr. Wood, several minor lights were in Cornwall, ostensibly to attend Dr. Bergin's funeral, they suddenly abandoned the procesre- sion to arrange about Dr. Bergin's sucpairing; sign, portrait and ornamental cessor, and this before the grave was Nothing so convincing as a practical closed over his remains. "It is a noteworthy fact," says the Freeholder, "that while several prominent liberals followed the remains to the place of burial, the prominent conservatives were holding a conference at the Rossmore, and it is said it was then and there determined that a conservative should be put in the field, and the thing went so far as the selection of a candidate. Thanksgiving Day.

Let it be a day of kind thoughts. Thanksgiving day is an excellent time remember that you are glad you are alive. During past months you have had so much to do and so much to worry over that you had a very vague and general impression that it was a stupid world badly jumbled up and shaken together, with nothing specially attractive within your reach. But if you think half a minute you will take a very different view of able clouds. the situation.

You are all right. Some people may experience drawbacke, but you are more fortunate. Let the other fellows grumble and mope if they will, provided you cannot cheer them up.
