DINING THE COUNCILLORS.

COUNTY OFFICIALS ENTERTAIN THE DEPARTING COUNCIL.

Dinner Spread in the Division Court Room - The Guests Who Were Present, the Toasts Proposed and Replies Made - It Was a Happy Gathering and Good-Fellowship.

Members of the county council had the solemn enjoyment of attending their own "wake" last evening, and the county officials took advantage of the opportunity to tender the councillors a farewell dinner.

Shortly after nine o'clock Arthur Leitch's string quartette struck up a grand march, heading the guests into the "court of honor." Judge Price sat at the head of the table and presided.

Warden Truscott proposed "The Professions" with a short well pointed address. Judge Price in replying gave a history of the county government during the past century, saying that history had nearly made a circle and had about got back to the starting point in the matter of government.

Our guests were the last toast proposed, and about one o'clock the guests took their departure.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE.

Destroys James Thompson's Boiling Works—Of Lacey's Dry Goods.

At about 2:40 o'clock this morning an alarm called out both detachments of the brigade. The blaze was located in the boiling works of James Thompson, situated at the corner of York and Alma streets, and had already made good progress by the time the brigade arrived.

The fire started in a rear room, it being clearly a case of incendiarism. Hence it quickly spread to all parts of the building. The house is a double brick structure, both apartments being used by Mr. Thompson in his business.

CONSPIRACY TO DEFAUD.

THE CHARGE AGAINST MILLER AND McCARNEY YESTERDAY.

Miller Did Not Take Money From Van Blaricom's Store—He Heard How It Was Secured He Offered to Return It.

The preliminary examination of Matthew Miller and McCarney, accused of stealing $300 from a young man named Van Blaricom, was held at the town named yesterday, by James Daly, J.P. B. M. Britton, Q.C. of this city, appeared for Miller; H. M. DeLoe, J.C. Napaney, defended McCarney, and S. C. Warner, county crown attorney, prosecuted.

When the case was called and Van Blaricom was sworn the crown attorney asked that the charge be changed from stealing to conspiracy to defraud, claiming that Miller and McCarney conspired with "O'Neill" to defraud Van Blaricom out of his money. The magistrate allowed the change.

It appeared in evidence that upon the proprietor of the Paisley house telling his bar-tender, McCarney, to hand over to Van Blaricom the $300 that had been placed by the latter in the hands of the former for the purpose of paying the mortgage on the building, which was to be given to the money to its owner if it were placed in his (McCarney's) hands.
