Young Mr. Mallett, of Sougog, is said to be a very clever and earnest young man, and, after spending a year at Sougog, was sent back there last June, but only after much tribulation. The feeling in conference was in favor of releasing him, as the baseball players say, and hearing this, he had felt constrained to send in his resignation, which he placed in the hands of Rev. Thomas Manning, of Whitby. Mr. Manning thought it best to give Mr. Mallett another trial, and Scugog was attached to Whitby for the time being, in order that Mr. Manning might supervise Mr. Mallett's

This was in June last, but it only took Mr. Manning a short time to find out that he could not manage a strong-minded young man like Mr. Mallett. He counselled Mr. Mallett privately, and the matter was brought up at the district meet-6th Cavalry, in Washington on Saturday | ing, where Mr. Mallett was publicly admonished and reprimanded. on in their absence. In the end, the committee found the charges sustained, and reported in fror of suspending Mr. Mallett both from the pulchurch, until such time as conference can deal with the matter finally. For some weeks past it is stated that Mr. Mallett has had a Toronto lawyer in this county looking up evidence with the view of taking legal action against persons who may be liable for anything they have said in connection with the stories that have been flying.

In the meantime Mr. Mallett has had the old christian church at Scugog Center dusted and lighted up, and has been holding forth there to sinful man, whilst his successor has been supplying the regular work of the circuit.
