Aided by the genius and experience of Booth, Shakespeare was produced here as it had never before been seen in New York. The best actors, the best scenery, the most gorgeous costumes, everything that art could lend or genius conceive, conspired for suc cess, but all in vain. IN MEMORIAM.

The Late Mrs. Edwards, Deseronto. Mrs. Evan Edwards, an old resident of Descronto, died on Monday at the residence of her son, John Edwards. She was a native of the city of Cork, Ireland, and came to able evening was spent in singing and social this country twenty five years ago, having been for the past twenty-three years a resident of Deseronto. Her husband, who was a native of Wales, was a naval pensioner but after twenty-one years gave up his pension and again joined the service and was present at the great battle of Algiers.

The Late Mrs Hagerman. On Sunday the remains of Mrs. Joseph Hagerman, for the last 51 years the widow of Joseph Hagerman, was taken from Kingston and buried by the side of her husband in the old U. E. L. burying ground, Adolphustown. Old Mr. Hagerman, one of the first settlers, and tather of the Hagerman family, is buried there with two of his sons, Daniel and Joseph. The steamer "Maud was chartered and took the entire equipage, hearse, horses &c., to the place of interment.

The Late Job Aylesworth, Newburg. Job Aylsworth, father of the Reeve of Deseronto, died at his residence in Newburgh, on Tuesday in his 89th year. The deceased, who was universally respected was born in the township of Ernesttown. He remembered when the only mill in this district was at Kingston, and he saw the first mill built in the woods at what is now the town of Napanee. He recollected when the mail was carried on horseback from Mon treal to Little York by a path through the woods. In his long life-time he witnessed great changes in all this part of Ontario. The funeral took place on Tuesday to the family burying ground at Violet.

The Hay Crop of 1888.

McGlynn Bros., having examined statements as to the amount of hay throughout the principal hay growing sections of United States and Canada to be marketed this season, find it just as large as the previous year, the crop being light in some places and the acreage larger in other parts, making it a little more than an average crop.

T. A. Cosgrove, B.A., of Queen's university, will conduct the services until the vacancy is filled at St. Andrew's, Lindsay.

Rev. John M. All, an old Kingstonian, now living at Palmerston, will preach at both services in Cooke's church to-morrow. During the building of St. Andrew's church the congregation will, it is expected, worship with the people of Cooke's church. Rev. C. E. McIntyre, Orangeville, in the morning and Rev. C. Lavell, Drummondville, in the evening in Queen St. Methodist church to-morrow.

In the absence of Rev. F. W. Dobbs, at old Orchard Beach, Rev. R. Burns will conduct the service in St. John's church, Portamouth, to-morrow morning. Rev. J. W. Sparling, B.D., will officiate at both services in the roller rink to-morrow. Sermon in the morning to the "Protestant Association of 'Prentice Boys." The Rev. Messrs. Bland, father and sons, are camped on an island near l'embr joying themselves. Rev. S. G. Bland will be absent from Kingston for several weeks. The salary of Rev. R. Whiting, pastor of Queen street Methodist church, has been increased by the official board. This is Mr. Whiting's last year in active work. He will superannuate, residing in Kingston.

The salary of the pastor of the Centenary Methodist church, Hamilton, has been reduced from $2,500 to $1,800. This is another protest at the action of the stationing committee of the Niagara conference in disregarding the wishes of ceurches.

The third anniversary of the induction of Rev. J. Hay, B.D., St. Andrew's church, Campbellford, was recently conducted by Rev. Dr. McTavish. This church has made great progress in all departments of christian work during the last three years. The Sabbath school has increased from seventy. seven to 177, the membership from 156 to 265, and the average attendance at the weekly prayer meeting is more than 100.

St. John's church, Balderson, was opened for divine service last Thursday. Rev. R. L. Stephenson preached. After the sermon the holy communion was celebrated. The communicants numbered 55 persons. At even-song addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Styles, Osborne and Farrar. The church fabric is of stone; style, modified Gothic; capacity, accommodation for 150 worshippers. The interior is tastefully arranged. Two handsome chandeliers were presented by Dr. Grant, of Perth. The chancel carpet, warm and rich in coloring and ecclesiastical in design, was given by the Messrs. Meighen Bros., Perth.

AMONG THE THOUSAND ISLES.

The Events Now Occurring Along the Picturesque St. Lawrence.

Canadians this year seem to have gone excursion mad. They have about closed up business in Gananoque and gone on excursions. They beat the Yankees. This is virtually a year for big fish, pickerel and muscalonge being in the ascendancy. Philip Lather, New York, was happy over the catch of a fifteen-pound pickerel. The monster bit Mr. Luther's thumb in getting him in the boat. Every room in the hotel at Thousand Island park is taken, and many visitors are compelled to find lodging at the cottages. There are not half a dozen cottages on the grounds that are not occupied, and many families are living in tents. Mrs. G. A. Sears, Syracuse, visiting Mrs.

J. A. Atwell at River View cottage, very properly took upon herself to surprise her hostess with a birthday party. An enjoyconverse. Prof. Clark, Kingston, gave couple of recitations.

The Red Ibis club, of New York and Brooklyn, has returned home. Their vacation was spent at Cape Vincent. The lady several days ago advertising the Central who got the greatest number of bass was the wife of William F. Willis, Brooklyn. Earl Knox was the champion among the men. He also invented the most astonishing stories about fishing when the club was under shelter.

The Thousand Islands look like fairyland at night. At the present rate time will soon make them the prettiest, as they are now the most unique, resort on the continent. The islands and the cottages and hotels upon them are now strung with lamps and lanterns to such an extent that there are tens of thousands of lights on either side of the business, says he is very much gratified, both channel between Alexandria Bay and Clayton. Few of the rocky islets are not illuminated. As each light is reflected on the surface of the river the effect is bewitchingly beautiful.

The much vexed question of supremacy in swiftness as between the steamers St. Lawrence and the New Island Wanderer again before the public. Understanding that Captain Visger, of the latter boat, has stated that he is willing to race the St. Lawrence for money, Captain Estes authorizes the statement that the Thousand Island steamboat company will cover any sum the Wanderer people may care to put up and race them at such suitable time as may be arranged. The remote prospect of a race between two such boats as these makes the sports on the river happy as clams at high water.
