ARMBRECHT'S Coca Wine

Sustains and Refreshes Both Mind and Body-Aids Digestion-Improves the Appetite, and Removes Fatigue.

It is both effective and rapid in its action, and may be taken with perfect safety for any length of time. It is superior to all other tonics, such as Iron, Cinchona, Calisaya, &c., and unlike these IT NEVER CON-STIPATES.

In cases of sleeplessness from exhaustion or fatigue it is invaluable, producing sound and refreshing sleep, without the distressing sensation so common after Opiates, Bromides, and Hydrate of Chloral.

It has been prescribed throughout Europe for years by the most eminent physicians, and has been pronounced the most powerful restorer of the vital forces.

Capt. Dowling of the Brigt. "Leo" of Lunenburg, N. S., says: "I do not consider the ship's medicine chest complete without a quantity of Simson's Liniment. In one particular case that came directly under my notice, its operation was simply wonderful. The case was a very bad swelling of the legs of one of my men. A few applications, rubbed thoroughly in, brought him around in a very short time. Since adopting Simson's Lin'ment on board ship I have adan-

"I used to play a pretty fair game of billiards," remarked Selvedge, gazing at the balls after making the best shot he ever made in his life: "five years ago used to play billiards, but I'm awfully rusty now." "You used to tell the truth once in a while, four or five years ago, also," said the other man, who had paid for every game that evening, "but a man does get rusty with age."

SPECIFIC EDUCATION. Mr. Vanderbilt pays his cook $10,000 a year, my boy, which is a great deal more than you and I carn-or at least it is a great deal more than we get-because he can cook. That is all. Presumably because he can cook better than any other man in America. That is all. If Monsieur Sauceangravi could cook tolerably well, and shoot a little, and speak three languages tolerably well, and keep books fairly, and sing some, and understood gardening pretty well, and could preach a fair sort of a sermon, and knew something about horses, and could telegraph a little, and could do light porter's work, and could read proof tolerably, and could do plain house and sign painting, and could help on a threshing machine, and knew enough law to practice in the justices' courts of Kickapoo township, and had once run for the legislature, and knew how to weigh hay, he wouldn't get $10,000 a year for it. He gets that just because he knows how to cook, and it wouldn't make a cent's difference in his salary if he thought the world was flat and that it went around its orbit on wheels. There's nothing like knowing your business clear through, my boy, from withers to hock, whether you know anything else or not. What's the good of knowing everything? Only the sophomores are omniscient .- R. J. Burdette in Brooklyn Eagle.

Vain Regrets.

Wife (to unhappy husband)-A man worth $10,000,000, John, ought not to feel as you do.

Husband-Ah, my dear, you don't know the miseries that $10,000,000 mean. If I had stopped at $1,000,000, or even $500,000, I might be a happy old man today.—The Epoch.

William Dingley, of Auburn, over years old, aided by Benjamin Jones, 63 years old, got in about fifty tons of hay in less than three weeks, with the aid of horse 31 years old. The only thing that's new about that item is the hay .-Lowell Courier.
