Samples of Adulterated Foods.

The state of Massachuseets has given a good deal of attention to the subject of food adulterations, and the report of the chemist in charge has been recently published. During the year 1887, 1,678 samples of articles used as food were examined, of which 1,178 proved to be pure and 498 to be adulterated. Of the impure only a very small portion, and these rarely used in large quantities, were found to be adulterated with ingredients delee lead in Quality and | terious to health. The chief of these were molasses, of which twenty-five samples out of eighty-five were found to contain corn glucose or salts of tin. or both; baking powders, of which twenty-one samples out of twenty-nine were found to contain alum and extract of almonds, two samples out of nine being found to contain nitro-benzol. Nearly all the adulterants were found to be harmless ingredients added to cheapen the product, and the purchaser, while being defrauded, was injured only in his pocket. The American people are bargain hunters; they buy things because they appear to be cheap. To accommodate them much of the food is adulterated. Coffee is cheapened with burned rye and chicory; ginger contains rice and cornmeal; allspice has buckwheat; honey has glucose; butter has lard, and lard has tallow; maple sugar has muscovado; olive oil has cottonseed oil, and so on to the end of the chapter. The manifest remedy for this is for people to patronize reliable dealers and pay fair prices for their goods. If they invite fraud by demanding cheap goods they are more than likely to get both .- Chicago

The Rank of Generals. The conferring of the rank of gereral upon officers of the army is a distinguished honor that has fallen upon only four officers since the foundation of the government-Washington, Grant, Sherman and Sheridan. The grade of lieutenant general for the commander of the army was authorized by act of congress on May 28, 1798, and on July 3 following Washington was appointed to the office. He held it until March 3, 1799, when he became general, the grade of lieutenant general being abolished. On March 29, 1847, Maj. Gen. Scott was made a brevet lieutenant general by act of congress, but the actual grade was not revived until Feb. 29, 1864. Two days later Maj. Gen. Grant was appointed lieutenant general, and he held the position until July 25, 1866, when he became general, the grade having been revived for his benefit. On the day he was inaugurated as president, March 4, 1869, he nominated Sherman and Sheridan for general and lieutenant general respectively, and these officers have held these respective ranks since that date. With Sheridan's promotion to the grade of general, the rank of lieutenant general becomes a thing of the past, although it is proposed to revive it, so that the commandant of the army, after Gen. Sheridan's death or retirement, may be above the grade of major general. - New York

A Mysterious Case of Attempted Suicide-Three Broken Legs.

Toronto, Sept. 14 .-- Yesterday morning a stranger called at Dr. Riddell's, Parkdale, and stated that he had tried to commit suicide. He had a serious, wound on the side of the head caused by a bullet. On examination the doctor found and extracted the bullet and dressed the wound, On being pressed, the man gave up the revolver and the doctor immediately went out and gave it to Chief of Police Quinn. Together they returned to the surgery, but the man had disappeared.

A party of Troy firemen to the number of 51, accompanied by a band of 21 pieces, visited the city yesterday.

John McClelland, aged 49, fell off his milk wagon yesterday afternoon, breaking his Phœbe Duff, aged 50, fell down a pair of stairs yesterday and injured the cap of her left knee. James Bastedo, one of the Italians at work on the Canadian Pacific Railway's Don "spur," fell off a wagon yester lay and had his left leg broken.

In the Court of Appeal yesterday the appeal of McLeod Stewart, mayor of Ottawa, against a judgment of the Queen's Bench Divisional Court was argued. Quo warranto proceedings have been taken to unseat Mayor Stewart on the ground of bribery. Judge Rose issued the writ, which the Queen's Bench refused to set aside, and proceedings are now in progress before the The contention is that the writ should be granied because bribery is not a ground under the Municipal Act on which to unseat a mayor. The point is a very fine one and the court reserved its decision. A boy of 15, sobbing bitterly, presented himself at the Mayor's office yesterday. He told His Worship that his name was John Stack, and that his parents lived at 517 Rideau-street, Ottawa, He claims that on Monday night two bigger boys shoved him into a box car and made him make the journey with them to Toronto. He tried to get away several times, but they held him a close prisoner until they got into Toronto, about daylight yesterday. He was starving and had had nothing to eat, according to his story, since the day previous. The Mayor relieved his pressing wants and hand. ed Lim over to Inspector Archaba'd for that officer to make enquiries about him.

Waldo E. Barnes and Theodore S. Barnes, two brothers who for a couple of years have been keeping a livery stable here, skipped across the line yesterday, leaving numerous mourning creditors. They are said to have had an unsavery record in Providence, R.I., before coming to Toronto.

At the fifth annual convention of the Ontario Undertakers' Association yesterday these officers were elected: President -J. Gibbard, Napanee, by acclamation; Vice-Presidents-W. P. Power, Bowmanville; S. Hogg, Paisley; F. Rosar, Toronto; F. A. Latshaw, Dunda; E. Miller, Kincardine; Treasurer-J. B. McIntyre, St. Catharines, (re-elected); Secretary -W. H. Hoyle, Cannington (re-elected); Executive Committee -W. H. Stone, Toronto; Mr. Bradshaw, Stratford; Mr. Stephenson, Clinton; Mr. Knott of Port Perry; D. Belleghem, Peterboro. C. A. HE MET HER IN COURT. A Doctor's Encounter With a Pattent Who, fle Says, Robbed Him. NEW YORK, Sept. 14.-Pretty, red lipped, bright eyed Nellie Buchner, who attempted to commit suicide on Friday night last by taking rat poison at her home, No. 319 East Fifty seventh street, was before Justice Ford in the Essex Market Police Court yesterday.

Dr. Markiewicz, of Broome-street, who saved Nellie's life the night she took poison and who had not seen her since, wat in court. He went up to her and shook hands with her. Then, as he looked closely at Nellie, he uttered an evelamation of surprise. "Why," said he "you are the woman who stole my watch a year ago, ain't you?" "No, I'm not," answered Nellie, looking at him curiously, "but I remember you coming to the house one night." The Doctor said further that on Aug. 20 1887, he was summoned to No. 45 Chrysties street to attend a woman who was dying Nellie was in the room with the sick woman. He took off his coat and vest to perform an operation on the sick woman When he went to put them on again he found his $300 gold watch and chain gone and Nellie was nowhere to be found. The Doctor offered Nellie $50 if she would tel him where his watch was, but she persisted in saying she had never seen it. She was held for examination.

Sudden Recovery of a Bedridden Woman OSHKOSH, Sept. 14, -Miss Emma Bennet resides with her brother, William Lennett a farmer near this city. For nine years past, Miss Emma, who is now 32 years old has been a bedridden invalid. Her dis lease was called consumption of the blood During her nine years' confinemen she has not uttered a loud word. Part o this time she was able to lisp in a fain! whisper. Frequently she was thought to be dead. For upward of three years one side of her body was paralyzed, rendering. her still more helpless. While the family were at dinner, suddenly from the sick room came the sound of a full round voice singing strongly and sweetly the words "He rose, He rose, He rose from the dead." The startled family rushed into the bed room, and there was the sick girl sitting it bed singing. She asked to be helped to her feet, saying that she felt that she could walk, and she did walk across the floor She said she felt as though she had riser from the dead.

The Doctors at Ottawa.

A LIVELY SAMPAIGN.

Mass Meeting of Montreal East Liberals-Denouncing the Recent Veto,

MONTREAL, Sept. 14 -The Liberal campaign in Montreal East was inaugurated last evening by a mass meeting at St. James Market square to denounce the federal veta the District Magistrates Bill. Mercier made the speech of the evening The bill had been vetoed, he said, because it came from a French and Catholic province and not from a Protestant and English one. The veto by which Mr. Barry had been deprived of his judgeship was an insult to the whole Irish race and they should rise in their might and denounce it.

The magistrates would remain in office until the courts decided whether his Government or the Federal Government were right. Quebec was not going to be menaced and would fight the Dominion to the death.

Hon. Mr. Laurier described disallowance as a slap in the face for the l'rovince of Quebec. The veto was a relic of barbarism, people of Quebec would not forget the insult to their race by the Regina tragedy. Hon. François Langelier, M.P., mayor of Quebec, and prospective member of the Mercier Cabinet, reviewed the events of the rebellion of '37-'38 and hinted that a necessity for another rising was approaching. Mr. David, M.P.P., followed with a short

Timber Limits Offered for Sale and Withdrawn Because of Low Bids. OTTAWA, Sept. 14 .- The timber limits belonging to Mr. White, of Pembroke, were offered for sale in the Russell House, yesterday afternoon. Among the lumber kings present were Messrs. James McLaren, John Bryson, M. P., and others. The limits are situated on the Black, Coulouge and Ottawa rivers and consist of 241 square miles. The first block put up was the Coulonge limit of 50 square miles. The first bid on this was $20,000. Bidding was slow and the limits were withdrawn at $33,400. The limits on the Black River, 101 square miles in extent, were also withdrawn, the highest bidding being $34,540. Twenty square miles on the Ottawa River were withdrawn, highest bid, $3000. One hundred square miles on the Jacane de Terre were withdrawn, at $30,000, and twenty square miles on the Hebreux river were withdrawn, the highest bid being $8000.

The Chaudiere lumbermen are experiencing difficulty in ge ting their log drive down the Ottawa River owing to low water. The principal portion of the log drive is now sixty miles above Des Joachims rapids, about 150 miles from Ottawa, where in all probability it will have to winter as the w.ter on the rapids is so low that the crib containing provisions for the men cannot pass over. The result will be that the lumber firms at the Chaudiere will have no logs to begin next season's cut at the mills.
