The Talk in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. There is a good deal of talk over Lord Sackville's letter. The Sun continues to demand that Lord Sackville be given his passports, but the other papers speak more temperately.

Congressman Bontelle of Maine said he thought it would lead to Mr. West's ultimate recall. Mr. Blaine expressed the opinion that the British Minister had committed an indisercet act, which might impair his usefulness as the representative of Her Majesty in this country. A San Francisco special to The Tribune says the publication has created excitement there and is regarded as the Burchard incident of the compaign. For the time being the letter has knocked the Chinese question out of sight. A leading Republican says; "We were sure of carrying the state by 6000 or 8000 before this letter appeared. Now .

sec no reason why the figures should not be increased to 10,000."

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 26 .- Minister West was shown the interview with Secretary Bayard last evening and asked what he had to say about it. He said :

"Nothing. I don't care to criticize it. The letter sent from California was undoubtedly written for the purpose of entrapping me. In a few days I expect to be in a position to make public the manner in which the affair was planned, and the identity of the persons concerned in it. The efforts | tiens until the court adjourned for the day. which are being directed to the discovery of the trickster were instigated by me, and think I shall succeed in making everything

"At your interview with Secretary Bayard did you discuss this matter ?" "Oh, yes. Naturally enough we alluded to the matter, but not at any length."

"Did Secretary Bayard intimate to you the publication of his views as an official ?" "I do not know that he has made public any official utterances, but," he continued with suggestive emphasis, "I understand that this published statement which you have shown me has met with the approval of others as prominent politically, or moreso, than the secretary of state." This was understood to mean that the president had sanctioned the secretary's

"This matter has annoyed you some-

"Yes, it has annoved me, but only to a trifling extent. I have nothing to be sorry for, however, except that I was trapped. This affair reveals to me a new phase in the ways of the American politicians, ways that, in this instance, are distasteful to me. In the other American ways I delight, but I would like to be excused from having any thing to do with politics in the United States."

The cabinet meeting yesterday was a long one, lasting until nearly three o'clock. The British minister's letter was the chief topic under consideration.

Lord Sackville Will Have to Go.

NEW YORK, Oct 26 - The Washington correspondent of the Herald telegraphs as follows: "I am informed, by the highest authority, that while the language of the statement of the secretary of state, especially as addressed to his own people, is not such a rebuke as would compel the withdrawal of Lord Sackville, the British minister. It must make his position so unpleasant that it would make his transfer agreeable to himself and in the interest of his government. The transfer of Lord Sackville would also be entirely agreeable to the department of state, since in the event of future negotiations with Great Britain the relations between the present secretary and his lordship could not be of a friendly and intimate character. It is, therefore, understood that the result of the action taken by the administration will be the immediate recall of Lord Sackville. He may personally request to be recalled, or the British foreign office, in order to maintain the respect and dignity of its diplomatic relations with the United States, may assign Lord Sackville to another legation." The language used by Secretary Bayard is : "It is still to be hoped that we will be able to settle the issue involved in the pending canvass without the importation of foreign interference or intermeddling in our domestic affairs." It is such an expression as the minister, toward whom it is directed, cannot possibly endure with self respect and continue anicable relations with the depart ment of state.

It Was a Put Up Job.

NEW YORK, Oct 26 -A dispatch to the Herald from California says : "The Murchison letter seem to have been a newspaper fake. Everything indicates that the scheme was worked up in the Times office here. The letters will be photographed and scattered abroad for their effect on the pro-

His manners were perfect. What he said was always full of good sense and good will " The pope appeared to be satisfied with the present relations between Germany and the vatioan. Prince Bismarck, he said, was a reasonable man, and was willing to accede to any just request. Count Herbert Bismarck was also, in the pope's estimation, a sensible and earnest man. THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Attorney-General Webster Continues

Interminable statement. LONDON, Oct. 26. -- On the re-assemblin of the Parnell Commission yesterday, Attorney-General Webster resumed his address in behalf of The Times. He dilated on the relations between the Parnellites and members of the American League, conleague originated in America, and declared that it was a consphacy hatched in America and effected by American money. Members of the league in America were dynamiters and advocates of murder, and they had the Parnellites as accomplieds. He denounced Finerty, Redpath and Rossa as dynamiters who had plotted for the most villainous forms of ont rage. He said it was absurd to say that Parnell had no relations with Patrick Ford, | had been on a visit to the fair in Toronto as a bost of facts proved an intimate con- | became ill and the doctors did not at first nection between the two.

The Attorney-General then proceeded to taken from The Irish World to prove the connection of the Parnellite party with the extreme section of the Irish party in America. He continued to dwell on the misdoings of the league in America and the Chicago, Philadelphia, and Boston conven-

The Attorney-General did not hit upon a single new point and his speech exceeded in duliness his efforts of the preceding days.

THE FEDERATION QUESTION

Discussed by the London Newspapers-Mon trent's Civic Lonn. LONDON, Oct. 26.-The question of Imperial Federation was again the leading topic of newspaper discussion yesterday, in consequence of the speeches of Lord Rose. bery and Lord Brassey at Glasgow yes

The Times devotes its first editorial to it, and says there is no present danger of a repetition of the blunders which caused the American revolt, yet England ought to be prudent, and avoid giving jealousy and discontent the material on which to work. There is no assurance that the colonists have yet agreed in asking for a definite scheme of lederation, or offering to bear the consequent financial burdens, but federation may make its way safely and surely through small be

Imperial co-operation and a similar desire for practical co-working animates other

Canadian Pacific shares are recovering. Lord Lansdowne has appointed Captain Streatfeild his acting private secretary while in India. The Montreal civic deputation quickly completed their plans. The Barings to-day issue a 'prospectus for the sale of £840,000 of Montreal 3 per cent. permanent debentures at a minimum price of 821. The announced object of the issue is to meet the amount of the bonds redeemable in 1888 and 1889 to provide funds for important permanent works. A memorandum signed by Messrs. Abbott, Grenier and Black will give full details of the financial status of Mon treal. There is little doubt felt regarding the success of the issue. The Barings name almost insures that. The tenders are du on Wednesday.

SMALLPOX AT KESWICK.

Authorities of Gwillimbury Vigilant and Taking Every Precaution. SUTTON, Oct. 26. - The reports in the ospers about the smallpox epidemic in North Gwillimbury are in some cases greatby exaggerated. David Sprague, ex-Reeve of the township, was ill with inflammation of the lungs. In the midst of it his son who listover what his ailment was. with those who had volunteered to sit up with Mr. Sprague a larger number than usual came in contact with the boy whose ailment proved to be smallpox. A Board of Health has been formed and every one who is known to have been exposed to the contagion is isolated; inspectors have been stationet at all roads leading from the township, public meetings of all kinds have been stopped, compulsory vaccination is being enforced and every precaution taken to stamp out the foul disease. Sutton is now completely free of it, and as the only approaches are across the different bridges over the Black River, the men stationed on them have instructions to keep out all who are in any way supposed to have had connection with it. So far as known there are only eight cases, the nearest to Sutton being six miles away.

Vaccinating Grand Trank Employes. TORONTO, Oct. 26. - In view of the smallpox outbreak the Grand Trunk Railway Company are taking great precautions that their employes shall not suffer, and that the disease shall not spread through them. Especially is this the case with regard to the car cleaners who daily come in contact with cushions which are likely to be fruitful beds of the germ. A few days ago Dr. Riordan vaccinated forty-five car cleaners on the main line and yesterday he operated upon eight of the Northern division cleaners. The men as a rule do not relish the idea and would like to be excuse, but they must either submit or lose their jobs; they have been alarmed by unfounded stories about arms becoming so swollen as to make amputation neces-

To-day Dr. Riordan will tackle the arms of all the men employed on the passenger trains of the Midland and Northern divisions, because of the outbreak at Keswick, on the east shore of Lake rimcoe. Trains on the Midland have been forbidden to stop at Sutton, which is the station nearest to Keswick.
