DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit, Positively Cured by Ad-ministering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific. It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea with out the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permaent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a noderate dainker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given to thousands of cases and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. They Want the Fortune.

The engagement of Louise R. Drexel to Edward Morrell, both of Philadelphia, is of especial interest from the peculiar provisions of the will of her father, the late Francis A. Drexel. Mr. Drexel left an estate valued at $16,000,000, all of which is to go to the Roman Catholic church if his three daughters die childless. If they have children the property is to be divided among their offspring. In case only one child is born to any of them the fortune goes to that child.

Sold by druggists. Large bottles 25 cents. Avoid substitutes.

Undressed in the Streets. A woman passing through Lynas' Lane, Lisburn, found lying by the roadside a complete suit of clothes with silver watch, gold chain and other articles evidently belonging to a well-to-do man. She took them to a police station. Upon examination it was found that they belonged to a rich man living near the town, and on communicating with him it was learned that getting drunk in the town, he thought he was going to bed, undressed on the street and went home without his clothes.

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs.
