Capt. Dowling of the Brigt. "Leo" of Lunenburg, N. S., says: "I do not consider the ship's medicine chest complete without a quantity of Simson's Liniment. In one particular case that came directly under my notice, its operation was simply wonderful. The case was a very bad swelling of the legs of one of my men. A few applications, rubbed thoroughly in, brought him around in a very short time. Since adopting Sim son's Liniment on board ship I have aban doned all others.

An Elaborate Study Shows That There Is Going to Ito a Hard Winter.

The foreshadowing of the approaching winter, as it is read from the dots and the lines on the goose bone, is not a cheerful story. The promise given forth of sleet, snow and cold, is a gloomy picture for the poor to look upon, and the many whose short purse will not permit them to lay in a bountiful supply of fuel will shiver at the thought of the kind of weather that the little bone foretells for the next four months. There will be more cold and wet weather than the people of this latitude have experienced for many a winter, and the cold spells will be longer and more severe than usual. The bone is dark at both ends, which indicates a long Winter weather we will have in November, and the ice and snow will be familiar sights far along into March.

The goose from whose bone this study was taken was hatched in April, and killed after the ides of September. The bone is wonderfully marked, and the dotes and breves and lines mingle all along the keel, thus indicating very changeable weather, but the breves mostly turn down and are heavy, showing that the general character of the winter will be falling, cold weather. As will be seen by the table given, the danger period is longer for November than any other month, running from the 10th to the end, with the most The state of the s 26th, and at any time within this period blustering snows and unseasonably cold weather may be looked for. The first danger period in December extends from the 1st to the 5th, after which there will probably be a few days of sunshiny weather. The heaviest storm period days, beginning on the 18th and passing to the 27th. At the opening of the holidays we will have very foul and probably some of the coldest weather of the season, and these cold lines run along the bone until about the middle of January. Watch this period, but above all prepare for it. It is more than probable that the earth will be covered with snow when Christmas dawns and that a cold north wind will be blowing, so that Christmas fires will have to be bright and big for comfort. The 24th and 25th of December will be the darkest storm days of the month. On the bone all the indications of wet, cold and stormy weather meet about that time. It is a curious clustering of bad signs, such as is seldom seen on the bone, and a mixture of weather may be looked for, with wet and cold predominating. During this long speil of bad weather some of the dots on the bone are very dark, which means very cold, and we need not look to see the mercury far away from zero during the holiday week.

The new year will come in cold and clear, the 4th. There are three storm periods in this month, the second commencing about the 14th and the last one about the 23d of the month. The dots that appear on the bone up to the middle of the month are heavy, from about the 10th to the 15th especially so, and during this period very cold weather may be looked for. During December and January the mercury will frequently be below zero, probably remaining there for days, and if there should be a low stage of water in the river there will be danger of a freeze over.

For February short storm periods run all along the bone, and the general character of the month will be stormy and blustering, with some very cold days at the first of the month and again at the close. These severe spells and continued cold weather will keep the ice and the snow in the mountains, and the first spring month will be as heary as old winter. As the bone ends very dark, it is very probable that March will be a repetition of November. In that case, the tarmers will flud it very difficult to break ground, and all kinds of vegetation will be very late in getting a start. It will not be safe to put things in the ground too soon, as such a winter will be likely to be followed by killing frosts far into April. The writer remembers to have seen only one other bone to compare with the one this year, and that season there were frosts as late as May. Every indication from the reading of the bone points to a backward spring, and the gardeners who have their richest harvest in early vegetation will find their work risky and difficult .-Louisville Times.

How the Emperor Looked. I hear from Rome that the German emperor only looks to advantage on foot. He "sits low," the backbone being short. With this the legs are long. His figure, therefore, is an ungraceful one for riding, the knees advancing far toward the horse's head and the legs and thighs forming an acute angle. He has given up wine and beer drinking, does not eat much, and absorbs quantities of tea. His face was drawn and showed fatigue when he was in Italy. Every morning and evening packets of papers were placed on a desk in his sitting room. He glanced over all that was about himself, and when he had done so paragraphs of which he was the subject were cut out by a secretary andpasted into a scrap book. -London Truth. An Underground River Discovered. At Whiteville, N. C., and underground river has been discovered. When in the vicinity of the supposed stream it can be plainly heard, but when a person lies flat on the ground the phenomenon becomes really alarming. The sound indicates that the water is not any great distance down and that it is not a small stream, but a majestic river that is coursing unseen in the bowels of the earth on its way to the sea. Vehicles passing over the ground where the phenomenon exists create hollow echoes from below, and the earth in the vicinity for a great distance around seems to be cavernous, judging from the sounds that follow. This may be one of the streams that feed the wonderful springs of Florida. - Chicago Herald.

The Development of Mexico.

American capital and enterprise bave taken such a hold in the development of Mexico that a New York syndicate will in February open a bank in the City of Mexico with a capital of $3,500,000. It will be called the International and Mortgage Bank of Mexico. This is an important step if directed aright. What is chiefly wanted now is a live, enterprising banker from the United States at its head, who will keep the institution in the line of American ideas and influence, and out of European influences, which are stoutly opposed to the entrance of their rivals into the banking business of this southern republic.-Chicago Herald.

The English Hunting Scason.

For the English hunting season, which has just begun, $45 packs of various kinds are advertised to take part. Fifteen packs of stag hounds are in England and Ireland. Of fox hounds there are 155 in England, 7 in Scotland and 15 in Ireland; of harriers there. are 96 packs in England, 5 in Scotland and 23 in Ireland, and of beagles there are 19 in Engla: !, Wales and Ireland combined.+ New York Sun.

In all diseases in which a purgative medicine is called for, Hamilton's Pills may be used with safety and satisfaction. They can be taken alike by the most delicate person or child or by the strong, as they contain neither minerals nor crude or deleterious substances; their use may be long continued without the possibility of salvation or any of the ill results so frequently attending the use of pills containing those substances. Hamilton's Pills are safe, sure and mild, yet prompt. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicine.

"This Is a Cow."

A cow is an animal with four legs on the under side. The tail is longer than the legs, but is not used to stand on. The cow kills flies with its tail. A cow has big years that wiggles on hinges; so does their tail. The cow is bigger than the calf, but not so big as an elephant. She is made so small that she can go in the barn when nobody is looking. Some cows are black, and some hook. A dog was hooked once. She tossed the dog that worried the cat that killed the rat. Black cows give white milk; so do other cows. Milkmen sell milk to buy their little girls dresses, which they put in water and chalk. Cows chew cuds, and each finds its own chew. That is all there is about cows. -Smart Girl's Composition.
