THE ILLUMINATED.—The last issue of the "Canadian Illustrated News" presents some very excellent engravings...

BASE BALL.—The fans of the household name of the house—hardware house of Horey has been sustained...

COUNTY JUDGE'S COURT.—James Walsh and Patrick Gartin were arraigned for stealing from a bonded car on the Grand Trunk Railway...

PRESENTATION.—The pupils of Miss Kayes' department in Queen Street Public School last evening visited their teacher at her home...

PERSONAL.—A pleasure party of Kingstonians, about twelve in number, left this afternoon for Chicago and return...

PRENATICE BOYS.—We have seen many fine displays of societies of various kinds, but in point of public appearance we must accord the palm to the "Prenatice Boys..."

THE TRUE WITNESS.—The Montreal national organ sets up this platform in singular conjunction with the party exigencies which culminated in bloodshed to-day: "French Canadians and Irish will carry the day..."

POLICE.—John Howard, druggist, fined $2 or 15 days.—Patrick McAvoy, who was accused of assaulting Mrs. Amanda Ann Purdy, and also of assaulting a policeman...

THE FIREMEN'S DEMONSTRATION.—There is no longer any doubt that to Kingston belongs the honor (?) of making a break in the series of "Firemen's Demonstrations" which have taken place in various provincial towns for some years past...

SHARLOT LAKE FOR GRAND FISHING.—Two gentlemen from New York, Messrs. H. D. Clark and J. Fetter, visited Sharlot Lake last week for the purpose of fishing for black bass...

HALL ENGAGEMENTS.—The agents of the Holman Opera Company, and the Shanghai Company are now in the city. The former has precedence, and has secured the City Hall for the 17th, 18th and 19th of this month...

A BAD CASE.—Paddy McAvoy is in limbo again, and it would be a very great blessing if he were kept there—a blessing to himself and a blessing to the public...

WIND WAFFS.

Sir John Macdonald arrived in Toronto yesterday morning. The Toronto vessel owners' agreement is being signed here.

The injured woman on Ordnance street is still (6 p.m.) improving. Belleville Massens will have an excursion to Niagara on the 24th inst.

London, the Low, continues to wreathe with the waterworks problem. Belleville cheese market dull. About 8j cents.

Learn from the Troy organ of Napanee that the case placed in competition at the R.O. Demonstration there was won for the Hon. R.J. Cartwright against Sir John Macdonald "by a large majority."

ASSESSMENT APPEALS.—The appeals against the decision of the City Court of Revision, will be heard before Judge Henderson on Wednesday next, at noon.

THE MILITARY PARADE.—The following from the Witness explains the rumour current in the city yesterday, that the 14th Battalion had been ordered to be ready for transmission to Montreal in a case of riot there to-day.

It is understood that the Government with a view to the preservation of the peace in Montreal to-morrow have been in communication with the Provincial authorities of Quebec and Montreal, and that the commandants of the districts and the Garrison of Kingston and Quebec have been directed to make every preparation to aid the civil power if called upon to do so by the Mayor and Magistrate.

RUNAWAYS.—This morning noticed two horses running through the Market Square and causing general consternation. They had apparently escaped from a pasture, as they were not encumbered with harness or vehicle.

The Montreal national organ sets up this platform in singular conjunction with the party exigencies which culminated in bloodshed to-day: "French Canadians and Irish will carry the day..."

THE FIREMEN'S DEMONSTRATION.—There is no longer any doubt that to Kingston belongs the honor (?) of making a break in the series of "Firemen's Demonstrations" which have taken place in various provincial towns for some years past...

STREET CASES.—The following is a copy of the resolution passed yesterday by the Kingston Presbyterian in relation to the running of street cars and excursion boats on the Lord's Day...

BATTLE OF THE BOYNE.

Anniversary of the Event of 1690. To-day was the anniversary of the Boyne. In Kingston it has been observed for more years than our memory can trace...

It was surprising to us this morning to learn that a woman had been killed or had committed suicide. How or why was the question which suggested itself to our mind...

THE MODEL SCHOOL. As considerable interest is being taken in the establishment here of the model school, we are constrained to supply more particulars than have already appeared in the Whig respecting it.

HER HUSBAND ACCUSED OF THE BUTCHERY. HE ALLEGES IT IS A SUICIDAL DREED. It was surprising to us this morning to learn that a woman had been killed or had committed suicide.

THE HUSBAND'S VERDICT. He said it was some time after day-break when his wife (who slept in a separate apartment) entered his room. She made some very awkward movements, and finally took some gin, which had been kept in the house for medicinal purposes.

HER THROAT CUT AND BLEEDING. A razor in her hand. He says he caught the instrument and pulled it from her, and in the scuffle which ensued he alleges she cut his left hand, in the fleshy part of the outside of which there is a deep gash.

THE WIFE'S STATEMENT. And now we give what the wife and mother and half dead woman has said. We would have been permitted to see herself but she was very low, and the medical attendant (Dr. Fowler) had counselled perfect quiet, though gossiping neighbours and curiosity seekers would not allow her the benefit of such indulgence.

THE FIREMEN'S DEMONSTRATION.—There is no longer any doubt that to Kingston belongs the honor (?) of making a break in the series of "Firemen's Demonstrations" which have taken place in various provincial towns for some years past...
