THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 19, 1877

CITY AND VICINITY

GOLD in New York of $2000000 To SAVE MONEY buy your Clothing at A. A. LEVEY'S Clothing Emporium, Wellington St. Just received another new lot of those noted Cheap Tweed Pants.

"Justice."—Your letter is quite proper, but we must have your name in good faith.

POLICE.—Sarah Ann Garrison, drunk, fined $2 or 60 days. Daniel E. Purdy, drunk, was dismissed.

WOODVILLE.—Mr. Knibb, business manager for Victoria O. Woodhall, visited this city yesterday.

RACE BALL.—The third championship match, St. Lawrence vs. Beavers, will be played to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock.

EXECUTION.—The 47th Battalion band will have a moonlight excursion on the steamer "Maud" on Monday evening. Will it be patronized? That is certain.

FAREWELL.—The storm last night was very severe. The flashes of lightning were very vivid and the peals of thunder very loud. Several people declare they felt their houses shake whilst the storm was at its height.

ILLUSTRATED.—The "Canadian Illustrated News" has several very excellent engravings of the recent riot and murder in Montreal. It gives a representation of the bayoneting case, the shooting and burial of Hackett, beside a number of other interesting pictures.

Dr. GEORGE'S PIC-NIC.—It is only a few days now before the mammoth picnic of the season takes place, that of St. George's Society on Wednesday next at Champlain. The prize list will be completed and a display of prizes made in Dr. S. Wood's windows to-morrow.

EXAMINATIONS.—The teachers examinations have closed, the third class having finished their papers last evening. There were but 29 up for second class teachers. In the city there were 119 examined for third class certificates, and some 29 were up at Parham.

DAVIDSON.—A FUNERAL was current this morning that a woman had been drugged and ill-treated in an open lot in the east end of the city. Inquiry revealed the fact that she was found in a stupor and insensible condition, but the only drug she had received was the liquor which she had imbibed in wholesale quantities.

MODEST SCHOOL.—There will be a meeting of the School Board this evening to meet the establishment of the Model School. It is expected the arrangements for the opening of the institution can be completed before the end of vacation, and without very material change in the present arrangement of the schools.

THE TRESURER'S CASE.—The report of Judge Macdonald in the County Treasurer's case has been received by the Warden. It holds that some of Mr. Irwin's conduct has been irregular; but the Warden, it is said, does not think the result such as to warrant the calling of a special meeting of the Council.

THE KNIGHTS' ESCORT.—To-day the Watervorn Knights Templars and their friends were to have visited Kingston upon another of their stylish excursions, but in consequence of the forbidding aspect of the morning weather, a postponement took place for a week—till next Thursday.

PROBABILITIES for the next twenty-four hours for lower lake region, rising barometer, brisk westerly to north westerly winds, cloudy to fair and cooler weather with thunder storms. For St. Lawrence winds gradually shifting to north west or west, and increasing to brisk cloudy to rainy weather.

THE COURT HOUSE GROUNDS.—A contemporary advocates the improvement of the Court House grounds, and adds: "Unless the grounds be improved and ornamented there will be little use in putting a fence around them." None sense. Put up the fence, and then it will be in order to talk of improving the grounds.

THE COURT HOUSE GROUNDS.—The County and City Council Committees did not agree on the subject of abolishing tolls, but they were of one mind as to the fencing of the Court House grounds, the expense to be equally borne by the two municipalities. The cost of the fencing, which, it is intended, shall be a credit to the place, will probably not exceed $5,000.

SHADE GLOVES.—Among the light shades of gloves on sale this summer are those like half grown lemons. In reply to a question why the last colour is most suitable for young girls' wear, it is recorded that a young clerk said: "Because it is a reminder to heart smelters that the hands they are on are not fit to squeeze yet." That clerk is too smart to live.

THE KNIGHTS' ESCORT.—The Dispatch says: The route and programme for the Knight's excursion on Thursday are: leave Watervorn for Cape Vincent on regular train at 7.30, reach Cape Vincent at 8.57, leave at 9.50. The steamer Maud will then pass around the head of Wolfe Island to Kingston, reaching that city at 10.50, when a stop of half an hour will be made. Leave Kingston at 11.20, down the Canadian channel to Clayton. Return by the Canadian channel to Clayton, reaching Cape Vincent at 9 p.m.

THE MODEL SCHOOL.—The officials of the Public School Board have been in doubt for some time as to how they shall proceed to establish a Model School here. Mr. Irwin Stuart, who left here not long since to take charge of the High School of Dundas, where he has been very successful, is now in this city, and at the evening, at a special meeting of the Board, to explain the organization effected in his county under similar circumstances. This will render the task an easier one.

WIND WAFFS

The berry season is almost over. Napanee is gaining in notoriety. A murderous assault is reported to have occurred there on Thursday last.

We have been addressed in many ways, but never till yesterday as the "Blitz Whig."

One of the inmates said to have escaped from the Toronto Asylum is believed to have made Kingston a visit yesterday.

Capt. Collier has sold the steamer New York to Mr. John Soby, who will run her on the Bay route in the place of the defunct Norfolk.

Brookville Recorder: "The Grand Marshal of the day, Mr. Robinson, did excellent service, and all the brethren conducted themselves in an orderly and respectable manner."

The Napanee Battery of Garrison Artillery has been reorganized. The Napanee Standard says, "the appearance of the battery will equal if not surpass any other volunteer corps in Canada."

Solomon Britton was on Friday last tried before Deputy Judge Bell, at Chatham, on two indictments, one of stealing a buggy and harness from Mr. Johnson of Dresden, and the other of stealing a horse from the same vicinity. A verdict of guilty was found in both instances, and Britton was sentenced to five years in the Kingston Penitentiary on each charge, the terms to be concurrent.

FORN.—Stedman, Stoddard, Bayard Taylor and Celia Thaxter, will have poems in the Midsummer Holiday number of Scribner's Monthly. Dr. W. Geo. Beers, of Montreal, has also written an article on "Canadian Sports" for the Midsummer Holiday number of the Monthly. There were twenty-five engravings, and the publishers promise the most complete and fully illustrated paper on this subject that has yet been issued.

D. Beers is an enthusiastic lover of outdoor sports, and he describes the pleasures of Lacrosse, Soccer, racing and Tobogganing in a most delightful manner. $300 were paid for this article by the publishers.

A REMINISCENCE.—The most popular of the gentleman actors of the Holman Troupe is Mr. Brookhouse Bowler, a hose voice and gentlemanly stage manners please so well. Mr. Bowler has a lasting memory for Kingston. It was here, about eighteen years ago, during the visit of the Cooper Opera Troupe, that he, a young and slight actor, was married in real earnest during one of the performances, to a pretty actress of the company, Annie Kemp, the ceremony being a notable incident in the annals of the Kingston stage.

MOVING TRIALS.—A trial of mowers was held on Mr. W. H. Reid's farm near Seeley's Bay on the 9th instant, the contestants were "Champion" and "Iron Clad." After a test of about an hour the trial was decided in favor of the "Champion," both work and construction being considered far superior. Mr. Reid purchased it on the ground, and four have been sold to his neighbors since. At a grand trial of reapers held at Chatham on the 13th instant, nine of the leading machines of the country competing, the "Champion" combined, was awarded the first prize.

THE INFANTICIDE.—Some of the clothing of the child of Catherine Norris, held in custody for infanticide, have been found under the sidewalk near where she was last seen with it. The mother of the young woman has expressed the opinion that the clothing has been wrongly disposed of. The directors of the Foundling Hospital, Montreal, declare they know nothing of it, and the circumstantial evidence accumulates against her in support of the charge on which she was arrested.

WARNING NOTE.—House keepers be on your guard. Thieves are on the rampage. One night recently the house of Mr. W. M. Drennon, Earl Street, was entered in the absence of the occupants, and thoroughly ransacked. Nothing is missed at present. The thieves seem to have been surprised and took a deplorable flight. The iron grating of the kitchen window was broken in order to make the entrance.

BUSINESS.—It is now said that since there is no hope of an amicable agreement for the abolition of tolls on the Kingston and Napanee road, our country friends need not be surprised if the City Council take action to make those representing the County pay for the road or submit to terms at least somewhat reasonable.

ASYLUM BURNING.—Col. Taylor, of Beaufort; Mr. J. McLean, of Toronto; and Mr. J. M. Gibson, of Hamilton, Provincial arbitrators, have been in the city during the past few days in connection with Rockwood Asylum business. Mr. Matheson, barrister of the London Asylum, has also been in the city on similar business.

PROG.—St. Paul's Sunday School picnic took place at Champlain Grove, Simcoe Island. The children marched from the Sunday School to the steamer Maud in procession, with flags and banners flying. The 47th Batt. Band went across the water with the party—one of the largest of the kind for the season.

HEAVY FINE.—Some big musellage are now being caught near the St. Lawrence. One gentleman, a prominent politician, is said to have hooked a day or two ago one weighing 170 lbs. A great many people have called around to see it.

A LARGE number of people are visiting the camp meeting now in progress on Wall's Island. Many will go down by the steamer "Maud" on Monday.

The induction of Rev. Mr. McQuig, as pastor of Chalmers' Church, will take place on Thursday next.

THE HOLMAN OPERA

Last night the Holman Troupe gave the romantic opera "The Bohemian Girl." Ed. Mr. Balfe written nothing but this charming work, he would have immortalized himself; it is full of beautiful harmonies and melody, and perfect in its construction, having soprano, contralto, tenor, baritone and basso parts, all so pure, that while it exalts the popular ear, it delights the well-informed musician. It is a most popular opera, and gains in every repetition, when sung by such an excellent troupe as Mr. Holman has now got together. And particularly well sung was last night. Miss Sallie Holman, "Arlene," soprano, was in most splendid voice. Her solo, "I dream that I dwell in marble halls," was really most beautiful, and the following duet, with the tenor, was especially good, and the whole of her music was executed with taste and skill. The contralto, pretty Miss Julia, "Queen," had but little comparatively to do, but what she did was all done. The tenor, Mr. Brookhouse Bowler, sang as few men can sing. Last night he did ample justice to the delightful role of Thaddeus, and was encored in "You'll remember me," and again with "I like, can't see as well as he did twenty years ago, in Mr. Cooper's troupe, in which he made his first bow to the Canadian audience. As a tenor solo he has scarcely his equal on the English stage, a fact well acknowledged in the land and elsewhere. Mr. Peaske, basso, another London celebrity, made his appearance as "Devil hoof." For power, sweetness and humour he is really unique, and, being a young man, is destined to become much called for in his line. He was the life of the opera, and without the magnificence of his voice it could not possibly have gone off as it did. We heartily hope to hear him again and again. The baritone, Mr. Dixon, as "Count Armin," sang that exquisite gem, "The heart bowed down," with much artistic skill, and what he wanted in strength of lungs he made up with sweetness; and the whole of his music was given in like manner. Mr. Dixon is a stranger to Kingston, but he fills a most useful position in the Troupe, and most likely we shall know more of him. The chorus was well filled, and no scarcity of female voices was felt. In fact, the whole opera was good, the very best of Mr. Holman's productions. But what shall we say of Mrs. Holman, that wonderful woman? That which we have said before, that her piano forte playing, so grand, so true and so rich, perfectly supplies the want of an orchestra—in fact, makes the want unknown.

To-night the Troupe sing "The Enchantress," when we hope another full and fashionable audience will make the Holmans glad and early repeat their visit.

WINDSOR, ENGLAND.

Installation of a Military Knight. The Windsor Gazette, received by today's English mail, states that Major (formerly, late of Kingston, was on the Friday previous installed a Military Knight of Windsor on the lower foundation, in the place of Captain Malone, who was promoted to the Royal Warrant on the death of Lieutenant Colonel Webster. The Gazette recounts that Major Geraghty served in the army for a period of 38 years, and commenced his military career in the 20th regiment of foot. He has been Town-Major of Montreal. He went through the Crimean campaign, and took part in the battles of Alma, Balaclava and Inkerman. He was promoted for services in the field, and at the close of the war proceeded to India, where he remained during the mutiny. He was present at the actions of Meerapoor, Sulta-poor and the siege and capture of Lucknow, and he has two medals and clasps which record the bravery and distinct worth which he served his country.

Threatening Letter.

Mr. T. Robinson, Sr., received a threatening letter through the Post Office this morning. Here is a copy of it: "MR. T. ROBINSON, SR. 'SIR:—You better look out for yourself or you will be getting what your brother Hackett got in Montreal on the 12th of July last.

"YOUR AN ENEMY."

"You will be getting a ball of lead." The writing is done in a disguised hand—that is patent. Calmly considering the contents of the epistle we are in doubt as to whether it is a joke or not. We are half inclined to think it is the production of some one who aimed to administer a shock to Mr. Robinson's nerves, and yet threatening the life of a man is not amusement in our opinion. Mr. Robinson takes the treacherous, villainous insinuation very coolly, and he may just as well. He need fear nothing for supposing the threat is seriously meant, the law of the land, as exercised in Kingston, is sufficient enough to afford him protection.

A SCHEMER.—

This morning Edward Sayers was brought before the Court on remand, charged with making a murderous attack upon his wife about a week ago. When summoned from the goal he declared he was unable to walk, and he had to be carried to the street cars, and by this means was conveyed to within a block of the station. His wife is improving, but she has not yet sufficiently recovered to appear against him, and he was again remanded. It is said he has only drunk one glass of milk since he has been in custody. He is submitting himself to a severe test of abstinence, punishing himself and offending no one by the operation. It is the opinion of the goal surgeon that his sickness is but a system of scheming.

A HORRIBLE STATE.—

Letters from Constantinople give alarming pictures of the distress prevailing there. The government has wronged from the people their last pittance, and is still pillaging. The streets are full of respectable people begging for food. Thousands are subsisting on scant supplies of dry bread, and absolute starvation hovers multitudes of Christians in the face, as well as the families of Turkish conscripts gone to war.

THE LATEST VICTIM.—

Miss Carrie Parker, of Princeton, Ill., is a victim of the mania for pedestrian feats. Some time ago she walked twenty-four consecutive hours, and was a wonder of one hundred dollars. Now, from the effect of her over-exertion, she is hopelessly insane, and has been confined in the State hospital.

CURRENCY

A corpse was found in a bed at the Carlton House, Ottawa. Business at the hotels at Niagara Falls is languishing. Dr. Cooney, an Apostolic Delegate, has returned to Quebec. In Kentucky blackberries can be bought for ten cents a gallon. A furious storm of great damage to shipping at Quebec on the 17th inst. The parish of Beausport had a three-second earthquake yesterday. It cost about $7 to send a ton of wheat from Chicago to Liverpool. A colored female Methodist preacher is conducting revivals in the Carolinas. Gilt Sling is the name of a Toronto Chinaman. He ought to be a man of spirit. Str. Oumberland, on her last Lake Superior trip, took a large party of Cook's tourists. The Belleville cricketers beat the home team in a match at Napanee, by an innings and 14 runs. $10,000 damage was done by the breaking of a car-wheel on the Boston and Albany railway. London City Council has unanimously adopted the $150,000 water-works scheme. The Manitoba Rifle Association will have a musical matches during the Vice-Royal visit. Warren Smith has gone into training for his race with Wallace Ross on the Kenebecus. The dead-lock was presented to the National Rifle Association, represented by the Duke of Cambridge, by Col. Groszoli on behalf of the Canadian Association. Lord Carnarvon and a number of other distinguished guests were present. The United States Cabinet has decided, in consequence of the new Civil Service regulations, that all members of the National Republican Committee who are in the employment of the Government must resign one or the other of their positions. Several of the persons concerned decline to comply with the order. PROTECTION'S DOINGS.—

The Protectionists have a nut to crack which may furnish them some little trouble. Fifteen hundred men, mostly mechanics, left New York, the great commercial capital of the protected United States, because they could not obtain any work, and went to the West coast of the Free Trade Province of New South Wales, where they all found employment within a few days after their arrival.—Witness.

LAST NIGHT'S NEWS

Mr. Rine has inaugurated a temperance movement at Uxbridge on Tuesday, with nearly three hundred names to the pledge list. The dead-lock has been restored at Montreal, but not until the volunteers more occasions than one been attacked by rowdies for the part they took on the 16th. Considerable damage has been done by a heavy hail storm to the fruit trees and crops in the vicinity of Stroud, South Simcoe. The fall wheat was completely threshed out and the grass in the village suffered severely. A bottle has been picked up at Manomong station, containing a scrap of paper with a memorandum announcing the destruction by fire of the steamer Pictou, which left Quebec on the 14th November, 1873, and was subsequently seen for the last time off the coast of Pictou, N.S. At Wimbledon, yesterday, the Canadian trophy was presented to the National Rifle Association, represented by the Duke of Cambridge, by Col. Groszoli on behalf of the Canadian Association. Lord Carnarvon and a number of other distinguished guests were present. The United States Cabinet has decided, in consequence of the new Civil Service regulations, that all members of the National Republican Committee who are in the employment of the Government must resign one or the other of their positions.
