Dr. May virtually $80,000, next day we saw the figures quoted in a western contemporary at exhibitors, and so far as he can $20,000. Later still in a private letter the amount dwindles to $400! We are now prepared to learn that there was no robbery whatever, that the report of it was a cruel hoax upon the innocent journalists of Ontario who would we suppose in that case be liable to action at law for libelling with so defamatory a report the taintless honesty of Mr. Claxton's clerks. In fact we are prepared for anything.

THE TORY FALLACY.

Tory journals find ready access to the contemporary column of the Mail for the trashiest nonsense. One of them, the Sarnia Canadian is evidently, afraid that prosperity may not tarry long behind a bountiful harvest, and labours to show that these blessings are not necessarily associated together. We are informed "it would be premature to conclude that returning prosperity is about to dawn upon us, notwithstanding the plentiful harvest." When the fact of a bountiful harvest not under the benign auspices of a Tory Government, has so staggered the of the kind they will go with the party firm believers in the providence of Sir which promises the most pleasure. Since John, we must not wonder that they set | last we alluded to the event a change has themselves assiduously to work to conjure up some other ill owen to Reform Government and of course they find one in the much used, and not a little abused, protection cry. So the Sarnia oracle lugs it in by laying down the industrial maxim: - "A country without manufac- known. The day is not far distant now tures can never be rich or great, and for the start, and we are under the honmanufactores, without protection to worm | est impression that the number leaving them into life, can never thrive." We here will be such as to well reward "the need not wade through, nor reproduce the brethren" who have the arrangements in laboured argument by which the organ seeks first to prove this theorem, and then to attack the usual Tory blame upon the Government. A simpler solution we find in another column of the same issue of the Mail. If we mistake not the manufactures of the United States have been 'warmed into life' by protection and by plenty of it. Why manufactures thus 'warmed' do not 'thrive' is what bothers us to understand. But it is clear they do not, even when the country is already 'rich and great.' How are we to account for the general misery, destitution and deep distress almost every where preva-lent in the adjoining country, although Stafford's remarks, and has backed down every interest of a manufacturing kind has been fairly bolstered smothered with protection? THE CIVIC HOLIDAY.

Our annual holiday, by proclamation of the Mayor, is past, and we find our ideas of idle and public life very much confused. Why? The explanation involves such lengthy reasoning that we dare not commence the task. Suffice it to say that our fancy for days on which to spread ourselves in doing nothing is not the most gushing. But we enjoyed ourselves like good citizens. We walked and talked, and laughed and sang, and sailed and rowed and swallowed several very heavy draughts of syrup flavoured drinks; we did everything that we saw other people do, and more than most folks did, and hence we feel that to-day should be declared another rest day, to give us a chance of recovering our accustomed equanimity, and to permit of us exercising a little of our skill and attend her everywhere. energy in administering to the wants of a huge lump on the left side of the body, inspired with a desire to run a boat's oar on her face. dian English speaking people at the Paris | through us as he madly plunged into a Exposition, visited this city to arrange pie-nicing crowd on Simcoe Island. From ten o'clock not effected during the exhibition the boats crossed nearly every hour from the back the invador, and bitter must be the land conveying to the ground some 1600 people. The best of order and harmony some in dancing to the music of l'rof. Riley's excellent Quadrille Band some in contesting or observing the athletic sports, while others of "a softer mood" distributed themselves in couples, principally beneath the cool umbragious shadows of the trees and whispered to each other those "soft nothings" so dear to neophytes in courtship. The refreshments were of a similarly "soft" nature, which no doubt contributed to the general harmony that prevailed. The games were conducted by an efficient committee, and were well contested. A prize offered for the best Irish jig produced a keen competition, and the conrua being that they may not get as high test was watched with the greatest interprices as they expect, while it is possible, est by the spectators. The successful competitor was a genuine Emeralder, "native and to the manor born," who "welted the flure in most illegant style," and notwithstanding his locks were silvered by over sixty winters, outrivalled his more juvenile opponents. As the "shades of evening" closed over the scene the grove was illuminated by Chinese lanterns, as was also the steamer, which came from the city bringing a large number to witness the exhibition of fireworks. This was a novel addition to picnic attractions and was highly admired. Prof. Hand was not present, but his place was well filled by a handsome substitute of a Committee. The water was very calm and looked beautiful in the moonlight, so that the sail home was not the least attractive feature of the occasion. Everything went "merry as a marriage bell," and the managers of this picnic are to be attended their efforts. The following is the prize list: 100 Yard Race-1, J McLaughlin; 2, 7

ROMAINE GOLD, so extensively worn in Paris, use first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. Be Launge, who manufactured it into jewellery, and for five years sold it to the leading jewellers of Paris for solid gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewellers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing ROMAINE GOLD JEWELLERY AND WATCHES. With this immense capital. and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jeweilery at less than one tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Causda, for the sale of of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will send at one tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878.
