ROMAINE GOLD, so extensively worn in Paris, was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, Moas. D. Be Lainge, who manufactured it into jewellers, and for five years sold it to the leading jewellers of Paris for solid gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewellers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing ROMAINE GOLD JEWELLERY AND WATCHES. With this immense capital, and the ard of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewellers at less than one tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

TUESDAY EVEN'O, AUG. 28, 1877.

FAREWELL TO SUMMER.

Summer is fading; the broad leaves that grow So freehly green when June was young, are falling; And, all the whisper haunted forest through, The restless birds in saddened tones are calling,

From rustling hazel copes and tangled dell,
Farewell, sweet Summer,
Fragrant, fruity Summer,
Sweet farewell!

Upon the windy hills, in many a field.

The honey bees hum slew above the clover.
Gleaning the latest awestest its blooms may And knowing that their harvest time is over Sing balf a lulishy and balf a knell: Farewell, aweet Summer, Honey-laden Summer, Sweet farewell!

The little brook that babbles 's-id the terms,
O'er twisted roots and sandy shallows playin'
Seems fain to linger in its eddied turns, And with a plaintive, purling voice is saying Sadder and sweeter than my song can tell:
Farewell, sweet Summer,
Warm and dreary Summer,
Sweet farewell!

The fitful breeze sweeps down the winding lane
With gold and crimson leaves before it flying Its gusty laughter has no sound of pain,
But in the lulis it sinks to gettle sighing,
And mourns the Summer's early broken spell:

Farewell, sweet summer, Rosy, blooming Summer, Sweet farewell!

A MONUMENT TO HACKETT.

There is on exhibition in Dawson's rindow the sketch plan of a grand monument to the memory of the late Thomas Lett Hackett, It will cost, as designed, about $5,000. While elegant and airy in design, it seems substantial and imposing and is to be very richly ornamented. It is to be 45 feet high, on a base of 12 feet. In the words of a gentleman who takes a great interest in the monument: "It is the intention of the subscribers to petition the city council to have the monument erected in Victoria Square, near the spot where the deceased was murdered, in order to show strangers that the civizens will not be ruled by ruffians Corporation not been ready to protect the same." The plan of the monument at-Bible, with the inscription, "Thomas Lett Hackett, shot in Victoria Square," and above a richly carved pediment, with the words, "July 12th, 1877." Over this rises an octagonal shaft, 17 feet high, supporting a can py and cross. On each

The poor victim is alone with her five young children -she of a weakly habit of body-seemingly from want of proper nourishment, according to the testimony of the doctors-the husband is away at work to supply them with food and it is known that he will not return at night-her home is invaded at the midnight hour-she becomes senseless in the hands of two brutal ravishers, who, after working their horrid, lustful, beastly will on her poor person, leave her senseless, naked, dying on her bed. And poor creature, she succumbs to their brutality, and dies from the effects of their violence, leaving her crying infants and maddened husband objects of pity and commiseration before the world, to be pointed at because of the tragic fate of the decent wife and mother. Yesterday morning about three o'clock Mrs. Smith, wife of Mr. Smith, house carpenter, residing at Wales, was shot by some unknown person while sleeping in a bed in the lower part of the house. Her husband and a child about ten months old were in bed with her at the time, but received no injuries. The bullet took effect in the abdomen. Her paid, 15,50. This is our best offer to agents, husband says the window must have been and is worth a trial, as the watch alone will raised and the shot fired from the outor Ladies' watch alone, $7 or $8, with a heavy side. Captain Adams J.P., proceeded to the house soon after the affair took place, and questioned the victim in order REMEMBER :- This offer only holds good to ascertain whether she had any idea who committed the deed, but she did not appear to have any, and had no deposition to make. She lingered until about five o'clock last evening when death put an end to her sufferings. A post-mortem eximination is now being held. No
