The Daily British Whig. Offer our Ocean Drive. TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 28, 1877.

REMEMBERS. Executive of the Provincial Chapter, Provincial Report, Special Meeting...

One of the fruits of the Dunkin contest in Toronto is the proposition, favourably received and likely to be reduced to fact, to establish coffee houses in place of saloons.

The phrase "it never rains but it pours" would seem to be true of cases of commercial dishonesty as in other things.

It would seem as though President Hayes were taking the cue from our Governor-General in the matter of a general visitation of the people of his vast domain.

IMAGINARY ADMISIONS.

Our Tory friends have an ingenious habit of escape from difficulty. The device is rather a thin one, however, and deceives and convinces nobody.

THE COURT HOUSE FENCE. Mr. Editor, Sir:—We have heard that the city and county authorities are about to put a fence around the Court House grounds, and we congratulate them on their good sense.

NO PARALLEL. There is something in the wind. The Tory press has doubtless received its orders to be "up and at them," and battle cries and war whoops are resounding...

FISHING AT THE THOUSAND ISLANDS. The Turks Still Gaining in Battle. On Saturday battle raged for thirteen hours, and was over during the night...
