SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 1, 1877.

REMEMBERS.

MEMBERS IN THE PARK. Y.M.C.A. Weekly Meeting at 8:15 p.m. Meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society at 8 p.m.

The Hon. Mr. Anglin's last return for Gloucester was greeted with the Tory declaration that it had been secured by undue influence, and that he would be ignominiously unseated by a protest.

CIVIL SERVICE NEUTRALITY.

All are aware how excessively sensitive the Tory Party has been, since 1874, to the faintest suspicion of a departure from the strict line of political neutrality by Government officials.

A THEOREM.

The much projected Union is being "depleted," as Sir John would say, of its horny-handed toilers of whom many hundreds have lately left for the old country in quest of work.

Public Protest.

The protest of the Kingston Sabbath Reformation Society to the President and Directors of the Kingston Street Railway Company.

THE WAR.

The crescent is still in the ascendant. All attempts to retrieve the disaster of Plevna have been unavailing on the part of the invading forces.

CRICKET IN MONTREAL.

The Kingston Club Wins Game No. 2. Yesterday the Kingston cricketers met with their common foe in playing the G.T.R. Club of Montreal.

ONTARIO RIFLE MATCHES.
