If the armies are not handled as well as were the opposing armies in the Franco-German campaign, it is certain they show as much spirit, pluck, and courage. The country, cut up as it is by numerous rivers running down from a mountainous country, is not favorable for dashing minitary operations. There have been two surprises for the military critics. In the former there were at present forty boys, and others were waiting to be received it only the funds necessary for their maintenance, &c., were forthcoming. It was hoped that the Wawanosh Home would be opened early in October with First-Class Goods at the Lowest ten giris as pupils. The report on admission to the disconate advising non-
