The mighty accents summoned quick and dead Who speaks for this man, ere his doom be said. Shivering he listered, for his earthly life
Had passed in dull, unnoted calm away;
He brought no glory to its daily strife.
No wreath of fame, or genius flery ray;
Weak, lone, ungifted quiet and obscure,
Born in the shadow, dying 'mid the poor.

Lo, from the solemn concourse bushed and dim The widows' prayer, the orphans' blessing The struggler told of trouble shared by him, The lonely of cheered hours and softened

And like a choru spoke the crushed and sad He gave us all be could, and what he had ; And little words of loving kindness said. And tender thoughts, and belp in time Sprang up, like leaves by soft Spring abowers

In some waste corner, sown by chance-flung In grateful wonder heard the modest soul, Such triffes gathered to so blest a whole. I he store so little, and the hand so frail. Do but the best ye can for all around; Let sympathy be tree, nor courage fail;

Winning amon your neighbors poor and weak Some witness at your trial hour to speak.
