Silken hair of softest brown,
In many a glossy ring,
That time in his only touched
With the tip of his silver wing.

Eyes from whose clear depths of blue
All earthly hope hath fled;
But whose tears have like a holy dew,
Given a heavenly light instead.

Hands within whose light test touch,
A blessing lies concealed
How many a sorrow striken soul,
That gentle touch hath healed!

A heart that is a holy shrine,
Whence the prayer of faith and love
Ascendeth with each winged hour
And beareth the soul above.

A life of love and guidance sweet,
To others wholly given;
As a star that shines for all the world,
While it leads our thoughts to heaven.

Women in Politics.

THE EFFECT OF FEMININE JEALOUSY IN FRANCE

Mr. Smalley sends to the New York Tribune a curious private chapter in explanation of the 16th of May and deposition of Jules Simon. It was partly a case of petticoat government. At the first dinner at Elysee, after Simon became Minister, the wife of Marshal MacMahon, who is a vulgar woman, took a hearty dislike to Madame Simon, entered the drawing room arm in arm with her husband, as a grocer's wife might have done, and not in advance of her husband, as is the present polite usage. This incident incurred the dislike of Madame MacMahon, who began to dislike Madame Simon because the Marshal disliked M. Simon, and only accepted him as a political necessity. It appeared that Madam Simon, who is quite au fait in social matters, had on high heeled shoes, and took her husband's arm to prevent slipping on the waxed floor. Social intrigue was joined with political to oust M. Simon from the cabinet. The immediate cause of the dismissal on the 16th of May was a lemon-colored dress of unmatched splendor which the Duchess heard that Madame intended to wear at the embassy dinner on the 16th, and which would eclipse anything the Duchess could obtain. Some time before a letter had been prepared by the Duc de Broglie, dismissing Jules Simon, but only to be used in the event of a political contingency which would probably not arise for months. The story is that the Duchess persuaded the Marshal to send the letter on the 15th in order to prevent the attendance of Madame Simon at the dinner in the yellow dress. By chance the letter was not delivered that night, and when the news came to the Duc de Broglie and he saw what a frightful political mistake was made, every effort was made to recall it. But in vain, the letter came into Simon's hands in the morning and he promptly resigned. The Government then had to put a bold face on the mistake and brazen it through. The political crisis was therefore precipitated by the vulgarity of the Duchess of Magenta. 'Magenta' is a false color.

CHARLEY ROSS' FATHER STILL SEARCHING.—Mr. Charles K. Ross, father of the famous Charley Ross, was in Jeffersonville, Ind., on Tuesday. He visited that place to listen to the silly story of a convict named Kendall, who pretended to know something about the missing child. Mr. Ross said that he has made several hundred trips of this kind, but feels it his duty to ferret out the truth or falsity of all reports about his son which come to his knowledge. He has spent $60,000 trying to find his lost boy, and is as far off now as he was three years ago. He is confident, though, that Charley is still living, and he will never give up the search. Mr. Ross has spent his entire fortune in the hunt, and is now a traveling salesman for an Eastern house.

☞ A common cough or cold should never be trifled with; often when neglected it is converted into a serious and generally fatal pulmonary disease. The more prudent are aware of this and promptly use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers a curative which has sustained its reputation for over twenty years—they are always efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25c per box.

A Good Horse—There is much pleasure and profit in the service of a good horse, and but very little of either in a bad one; no person from choice will retain a bad horse; many, however are in possession of such who need not be. We think there are few horses so bad but that their condition can be improved and rendered more valuable and useful by their owners, to effect which, there is nothing equal to Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy, it has effected astonishing results in thousands of cases. PETITT'S EYE-SALVE.

An Infallible Remedy for all Diseases of the Eye (acute or chronic), Granulation of the Lids, Ulceration of the Lachrymal Glands, Film, and Weakness of the Vision from any Cause

THE AMERICAN EYE SALVE is presented to the public with the assurance of its efficiency as a curative of most diseases of the eye, acute or chronic inflammation, whether induced by scrofulous origin or otherwise, weakness or defect of vision, diminished tone of the optic nerve, or a diseased state of the tissues constituting that organ. Also for all persons whose vocation requires an incessant action of the eyes, the Salve will act as a charm in restoring a uniform healthy action, where weakness, pain and misery may have long threatened a fatal termination. It is the most simple, safe and effectual remedy ever discovered; the materials of which it is made are pure, perfect and costly, compounded with elaborate care and exactness, safe in its application, being used externally and of course, avoiding the pain and danger which necessarily attends the introduction of caustic minerals and eye washes. Ringworm and Old Chronic Sores, of scrofulous origin, or resulting from whatever cause, yield to the AMERICAN EYE-SALVE. IT IS USED SUCCESSFULLY FOR PILES. Its soothing effect is immediate and a permanent cure requires but a few applications. The proprietors of DR. J PETITT'S AMERICAN EYE-SALVE, while making new and improved machinery for making a perfect box for the Eye Salve, have changed the Trade Mark on the cover so as to correspond with the Cut on the wrapper, circulars, advertisements, etc. We call attention to this, as it might otherwise be regarded as counterfeiting.

Mitchell's Belladona Improved India Rubber Porous Plaster.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward applications as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

The principal ingredients used in making these Plasters are Gum Olibanum—or better known as the Frankincense of the Bible—Rubber, and Burgundy Pitch; which, when scientifically compounded, is full of electricity, and when combined with the pure medicinal gums, is found to be one of the greatest healing mediums ever brought before the human race.

They are acknowledged by all who have used them to act quicker than any other Plasters they have ever before tried, and that one of these Plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other Plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different; the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

They possess all the soothing, warming, supporting and strengthening qualities of all other Plasters. Many who have been relieved of Rheumatism, Tenderness, and various other pains in the Kidneys, Breast or Side, and believe it is solely done by the electrical qualities which the Porous Plasters contain, and which is imparted to the system, thus restoring them to a healthy condition

They are very soft and pliable, still very adhesive, and a sure cure for weak backs, pains in the side and breast, and are invaluable to those who have a cold, of long standing, and often prevents consumption. Some even tell us they believe they were entirely cured by the use of them of a long seated consumption
