VERACITY. The above is usually esteemed to rank among the sterling qualities of character both in private life and in our public men.

DESPIGABLE. The outrage on Hon. A. B. Foster the other day in Vermont was as mean and dastardly as could well be imagined.

THE WAR. All the more important events in the Eastern conflict have thus far stubbornly refused to be influenced by the various predictions of critics and correspondents.

Mr. Conroy's Mission. A correspondent of the Paris Moniteur, writing from Rome on the 12th Sept., attributes the result of the mission, the Delegate Apostolic as follows.

CONVICTION QUARANTINED. An amendment to Crook's liquor law passed at the last session of the Legislature compelled defendants in liquor prosecutions to give evidence against themselves and a number of convictions have thus been obtained.

WASHINGTON NOTES. No business of importance has as yet been transacted by Congress at its great extra session, that is with any results.

THE WAR NEWS. The Siege of Erzeroum. London, Oct. 27.—All the indications of the seat of the Bulgarian campaign point to the conclusion that the Russians will be unable to winter upon the Asiatic flats between the Danube and the Balkans.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS. Latest Political Gossip from the Capital. The Tribune says influential Democrats in Washington are now in favour of passing appropriation bills in the early part of next week and then adjourning promptly.

COBOURG. Simpson v. Wilkinson. Cobourg, Oct. 27.—The trial of the West Durham News criminal libel case, the Queen v. Wilkinson, was commenced at 10 o'clock on Thursday.

CONVICT QUARANTINED. An amendment to Crook's liquor law passed at the last session of the Legislature compelled defendants in liquor prosecutions to give evidence against themselves and a number of convictions have thus been obtained.

ASSIZES. The Grand Jury presented the following: The Queen v. Caroline Norris, infanticide, no bill. ACQUITTAL. John Henderson was put upon his trial on a charge of destroying a public building in the Township of Clarendon, by removing certain logs, and creating an impassable hole in the roadway of the structure on the 24th of July last.

PEACE WARRANTS. Augustus Blair, who was held on a peace warrant, being unable to find sureties, was liberated on his own recognizance on promising to keep the peace towards his wife, Julia Blair.

SATURDAY'S GLEANINGS. The Sturdy abduction case is on at Guelph. Bishop Fellows will visit Ottawa on the 25th Nov.

THE CONSERVATIVE REACTION. Grip mentioned lately his anxiety to know what this disputed article was, and when it was written, if it was ever. Also what it was good for.

CONVICT QUARANTINED. An amendment to Crook's liquor law passed at the last session of the Legislature compelled defendants in liquor prosecutions to give evidence against themselves and a number of convictions have thus been obtained.
