What is the difference between a hill and a pull One is hard to get up, and the other is hard get down. 'A kind word spoken, to a husband will go farther than a broomstick or a flirtation,' says a woman of experience. Old maids are like old horses; you must exercise them if you wish to keep them in working order. In Virginia, when a young lady declines an offer to convey hor home, the lover asks permission to sit on a fence and see her wo by. A Chicago man wants the thief who stole his well-backet and rope to come back and take the well, as it is no use An editor published a long leader on hogs. A rival paper in the same village upbraids him for obtrading his family matters upon the public. The proposition to introduce ladies as railroad conductors is frowned upon, in view of the fact that their trains are always beland. The following laconic epitaph, carved on a Spanish tembstene, should be remembered. 'I was well, I tried to feel better, took p'yare, and here i am.' A french paper points out how the passion for gamiling is shown in England, so that even in welding notices it is necessary to state that there were 'no A country doctor has had his portrait painted, and a local art critic declares that you can feel saws and things rasping over your bones, and taste calomel, blue pill, and quinine, as you look at it. Baron Alderson, the late judge, on being asked to give his opinion as to the proper length of a sermon, replied: "Twenty minutes, with a leaning to the side of mercy." An editor, speaking of spiritualism, says. "We don't believe in any medium except the 'circulating medium,' and that has become so scarce that our faith in it 15 shuky." Dean Swift said that the reason a certain university was a learned place was that most persons took some learning there, and but few brought any away with them, and so it accumulated. It was observed of a philosopher who was drowned in the Rod Soa that "His taste would be suited, for he was a man of deep thinking, and always liked to go to the bottom." A teacher, who, in a fit of vexation, called her pupils a set of young addess, on being reproved for language, apologized by saying that she was speaking to those just commencing their arithmetic. "Och," said a love-sick Hibernian. "what a recreation it is to be dying of love' It se's the heart aching so delicarely there's no taking a wink of sleep for the pleasure of the pain!" An old lady with a large family, liv-1ng near a liver, was asked if she did not live in constant fear that some of her children would be drowned. "Oh, no," she replied; we have only lost three or
