CATARRH
THE EYE, EAR and THROAT
Successfully Treated with
SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.
SUCCESS is the test of merit, and success in the treatment of Catarrhal Affections, after so many miserable failures, means undoubted specific curative properties in the remedy used. Does SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for Catarrh possess such properties? The evidence, in the shape of unsolicited testimonials from the most respectable people in all stations of life, must be conclusive on this point. Never, we believe, in the history of popular medicines has such valuable testimony been offered, freely offered, in favor of any remedy than that in the possession of the proprietors of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. And valuable as it is, it does not represent a thousandth part of the recommendations which are to-day offered by friends to friends in its favor. People of wealth and refinement in all parts of the country daily admit its superiority over any method of cure known to the regular medical profession, but shun the publicity incidental to a published statement. Hence the testimonials in our possession represent but a small part of those withheld for the reason mentioned. The following unsolicited testimonial from HENRY WELLS, Esq., of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, is an outspoken indorsement of which we are justly proud.
INVALUABLE.
MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER, Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.: Gentlemen,—I have for some months felt it a duty I owe to suffering humanity to write you, stating the great benefit that I have derived from the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. For the last 20 years I have been afflicted with this very troublesome complaint, have tried all the remedies that I could find, but without material or permanent benefit. Last fall the disease had arrived at that state that I must have relief or die. The entire membranous system had become so inflamed, and the stomach so disordered, that it was a doubtful matter whether I could go to the Pacific coast, or if I did go whether I should live to come back or not. I saw an advertisement of this medicine, and although being very incredulous about specifics or nostrums of any kind, yet in sheer desperation I tried this, and was at once benefited by it. The changes of climate, a chronic disease of the liver, and my age—over 70—may prevent my entire restoration, but be assured it I derive from its daily use is to me incalculable, and I am hoping to be completely cured, and at last arrive at a respectable old age.
If this statement of my case can be of any service to those afflicted as I have been, and enable you to bring this remedy into more general use, especially on the Pacific coast (where it is much needed), my object in writing this note will be obtained.
Very truly yours, HENRY E. ELLS,
AURORA, N.Y., June, 1876. of Wells, Fargo & Co.
Each package contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for use in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THE GREATEST
WONDER OF MODERN TIMES!
HOLLOWAY'S
PILLS & OINTMENT
THE PILLS Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females.
THE OINTMENT is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Bronchitis, Diptheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism, and all Skin Diseases it has no equal.
BEWARE of NEW YORK COUNTERFEITS.
Sold under the name of "Holloway & Co., by J. F. Henry, Druggists, and Curran & Co., also by the Metropolitan Medicine Company of New York, with an assumed trade mark thus —— Again one Joseph Haydock of New York, likewise passes off counterfeits of his own make under the name of Holloway & Co., having for a trade mark a Crescent and Serpent, McKesson & Robbins of New York are agents for the same.
These persons, the better to deceive you, unblushingly Caution the Public in the small books of directions affied to their Medicines, which are really the spurious imitations, to Beware of Counterfeits
Unscrupulous Dealers obtain them at very low prices and sell them to the public in Canada as my genuine Pills and Ointment.
I most earnestly and respectfully appeal to the Clergy, to Mothers of Families and other ladies, and to the public generally of British North America, that they may be pleased to denounce unsparingly these frauds.
Purchasers should look to the Label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address is not 533, Oxford Street, London, they are the Counterfeits.
Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines bears the British Government Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT," thereon. On the label is the address, 533, Oxford street, London, where alone they are Manufactured.
☞ Parties who may be defrauded by Vendors selling spurious "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," as of my genuine make, shall on communicating the particulars to me, be amply remunerated, and their names never devulged. Signed.
THOMAS HOLLOWAY.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Hail, hail, Thanksgiving Day!
Welcome to saints and sinners—
Welcome to all, both great and small,
Thou day of royal dinners!
See how they come from far and near,
A troop of "carpet-baggers,"
To grace the board with one accord,
And appetites like daggers.

Who cares for Turkish war abroad?
Who cares for serf or Czar?
Our Turkey lief before our eyes;
Come and attack—hurrah!
With knife and fork we win the day,
A truce to care and sorrow!
Eat while we may, Thanksgiving Day
Will fade before to-morrow.

We're thankful for a host of things
Too numerous to mention:
For sweethearts true and hearts to woo,
And all things worth attention.
For all and everything that gives
Our lives so much of pleasure
We offer thanks. Long may we taste
Thine overflowing measure!

Then hail, hail, Thanksgiving Day!
Thou day of royal dinners!
Nor will we care if the grim nightmare
Should fright the soul within us
When day is done. Let Turkey's ghost,
With the nuts and puddings and wine,
In the dead of night begin their fight,
Still—victory is thine!

Terrible Double Murder in England.

On Saturday a double murder would appear to have been committed at Wymondham, a market town within a few miles of Norwich, and but a short distance from the scene of the Stanfield Hall murders, committed by the notorious Rush. The accused is a working blacksmith named Henry March. His victims were a fellow workman named Henry Bidewell, and their employer, Thomas Mayes, a veterinary surgeon, who was well known and highly respected. March was in the morning sent a short distance into the country to shoe a horse, and it is believed he took more drink than was good for him, though he was perfectly sober when seen immediately after he committed the crime. About noon he had returned, and was at work at the forge with Bidewell, who was blowing the bellows while March was at the fire. Some wrangling arose between the men, and something which Bidewell said so annoyed March that he turned round, and, with his fist, knocked him down. A servant girl named Sarah Ann Bailey, hearing the noise, looked out of a window of the house opposite the forge, and heard March say, "I may as well finish you; I can only be hung." He then seized a bar of iron about two feet six inches long and three-quarter inches square and with it struck Bidewell several heavy blows about the head while he lay on the ground. The girl, seeing this savage attack on the prostrate man, ran down and informed her master of what she had seen: and Mr. Mayes, who was upwards of seventy years of age, ran out and remonstrated with March, who, without saying a word, knocked him down, and with the same iron bar battered his head in a frightful manner. Leaving his victims lying in the ash-pit, the one across the other, March left the workshops and went down the lane to his home, about one hundred yards distant. In the meantime the servant girl who had witnessed the occurrence ran and called her father, who passed March in the lane and said to him, "What have you done?" To this he replied, "Nothing." Bailey went into the workshop, and found the bodies of the two men as they had fallen, their heads lying in a pool of blood. Both men, who were breathing heavily, were removed to their homes, and surgical aid promptly obtained, but it was of no avail. Mr. Mayes' skull was found badly fractured, and the brains protruding. Bidwell's jaw was broken and the head fearfully battered. Mayes died in about two hours, and Bidewell in about four hours.

A TRAGEDY IN CHURCH.—Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 18.—During service at the Church of Ascension this morning Alexander B. Sayres walked up the aisle, drew a pistol and shot his wife Elizabeth, who occupied a pew several feet in advance of the one where Sayres had been sitting. The bullet entered her back, and she now lies at the hospital in a dying condition. Sayres was promptly arrested. Both parties were regular attendants at the church, but have been separated for two years. The husband has already served a term in prison for breaking her arm.

Very Sensible.—Horse dealers who are supposed to know what affects their own interests purchase Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy by the dozen, and feed it to their horses for the purpose of improving their condition, which it always does—others should profit by their example. Remember and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELECTRICITY! THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL!—WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes: "Send me six dozen Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful. Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm: it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I am nearly out, nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes, "Send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil. I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes, "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reid, Ulverton, P.Q., writes, "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown on the bottle and TAKE NO OTHER. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price, 25 cents. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for the Dominion.
