The Daily British Whig. SATURDAY EVENG. NOV. 24, 1877. CITY AND VICINITY. GOLD in New York's 3 o'clock 102 1/2. For a Good and Cheap Overcoat of any color or quality go to J. J. LEFEBVRE'S Clothing Emporium, Wellington Street. LOCATED—Rev. T. W. Barry has been located at Antwerp, Jefferson county, N. Y. MEETING.—The Portsmouth Ring Total Abstinence Club will hold a meeting in St. John School House this evening. SESSIONS.—The next sitting of the County Court and General Sessions of the Peace, will take place on the 12th of December. LARGE MARKET.—The attendance at the farmers' market to-day was very large. Provisions were in abundant supply. THE SALE.—And so it appears the sale of the Mill was a forced matter, caused by the foreclosure of the mortgage held by Mr. Riddon, paper manufacturer. CHRISTMAS CARDS.—Mr. Henderson has received an elegant lot of Christmas and New Year cards, coloured and most attractive in design. WIND BOSS.—The propellers Lake Michigan, Lake Ontario and Corsican were wind bound in South Bay yesterday. CHILD POISONED.—On Friday, a child of about two years of age, belonging to Wm. Perry, Napanee, was, it is feared, fatally poisoned by drinking a solution of saltpetre. POLICE.—Patrick Cadmore, drunk, was dismissed. Three young men were accused of entering a house and using profane language. Their case was adjourned until to-morrow. IN DIFFICULTY.—The Napanee Gas Company is in difficulty, and application has been made to the Council for such help as will tide it over the present embarrassment. TO CANDIDATES.—Those who intend offering for civic honors should lose no time in making their intentions known through the columns of this paper. The electors should know who's who as soon as possible. TEMPERANCE.—Mr. Ride commences his temperance work in Gananoque on Monday next. He will remain in that village until Thursday, when he returns to Kingston, accompanied by his wife, to attend the Rine concert. PERSONAL.—If Mr. Skinner, father of Miss Margaret Skinner, afterward Mrs. Quigley, will send his address to Dr. C. O. Higgins, 73 S. Clark street, Chicago, he will hear of one of his grand-children, who is anxious to hear from him. BURIAL.—The burial of the remains of the late J. O. Bawden occurred at Cataraqui Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The body arrived from Chicago in the morning, but the funeral did not take place until the afternoon. Service was held in St. Paul's Church, conducted by Rev. W. B. Carey. UMBRELLA.—The London (Eng.) Illustrated News contains an obituary notice of Major Garaghty, the junior military knight of Windsor, and favourably notices the distinguished service of deceased while in Her Majesty's service. The notice appears under the heading "Eminent Persons."

THE RINE CONCERT on next Thursday evening will be an excellent affair. It seems to be rather popular for gentlemen to go to evening parties without their wives. The latest addition to marriage notions is "Sweetheart at a distance will please accept of this intimation." Napanee is blessed with one of the most accommodating Postmasters in the Province. Paper Collars put up in glass jars are the latest novelty. After removal of the collars the jars may be utilized for preserving fruit. The late Father McCune, having left his household effects to the nuns of Kingston, the latter are now in Smith's Falls removing the same. The latest style of dresses [are made with a hollow pocket, through which the train may be drawn; thus enabling a lady to carry her train in her pocket. The Woodstock Sentinel says of the Tandy: "Some gentlemen have voices of a very high order and must take rank among the genuine 'princes of song.'" Since weddings are published with "No cards, no cake, nobody's business," affixed, we would suggest that the engagement announcements which are now appearing in the papers be supplemented as follows: "No callers, no company, nobody but Gussie."

It is reported that the schooner "Kate L. Bruce" has gone down on Lake Huron, and all hands have perished. A yawl boat with the name "Kate L. Bruce," a mast, and a portion of a vessel's deck have floated to shore in Thunder Bay. THE ST. NICHOLAS AND SCRIBNER'S.—These magazines are, each in its line, specialties in American magazines. Scribner's (edited by Dr. Holland, who made himself so popular down among the fairs this year) is high-toned and racy, clever and entertaining, preferred by many to Harper's Monthly. The St. Nicholas is without a rival as a child's or young person's magazine. Its engravings and prose sketches are excellent. These magazines are $4 and $3 respectively per year, and they will be clubbed with the WEEKLY BRITISH WHIG for 1878 at that price to new subscribers for the year. The Whig is thus supplied for nothing. A NEW CANAL.—The Cape Vincent Eagle intimates that a number of capitalists are considering the propriety of building a canal from that village to Watertown, for the purpose of securing rapid transit between those points. It is thought that the route can be made in less time than is now required by the "Niagara Falls express" and accommodation trains on the R. W. & O. R. R. The scheme bears on its face about as much genuineness as that once talked of and discussed by the press, viz., the establishment of a stage line between these same two points. The canal seems to be the project of the same capitalist. THE VOTERS' LIETS.—On Monday Deputy Judge Henderson will hold a Court (in the Court House) at which the Voters' Liets will be submitted to a scrutiny, and such changes made in them as are in accordance with law. Both political parties propose a large number of changes; but besides these there are a number of alterations and omissions, which are required in order to ensure a free and judicious use of the ballot at the ensuing municipal elections. THE INSTALLATION.—We are enabled to-day to give some of the particulars connected with the installation of the Rev. G. Grant, M. A., as Principal of Queen's College on the 5th prox. On Monday next Mr. Grant will leave Halifax for Kingston, but he makes a halt at Montreal, where he attends anniversary meetings in the Presbyterian Church interest, making an address one evening on Home Missions and another the next evening on Foreign Missions. He leaves Montreal on Friday evening, and will arrive in this city early on Saturday morning. He will be met at the station and welcomed by the Professors of the College, and probably by the students. His formal installation as the head of the University will not take place until the Wednesday following. The ceremonies have been divided into two parts. The academic portion will be conducted in Convocation Hall, commencing at three o'clock. It will consist of prayer by the Chancellor, (who is expected to be present) reading of the minutes of Mr. Grant's appointment, as recorded at a meeting of the College trustees, and the putting and answering of the questions required by statute, followed by the public declaration of the election. Then an adjournment will be made until the evening, the ceremonies to be resumed in the City Hall, because it is so much larger, and capable of accommodating the numbers who are expected to attend. The programme on this occasion will embrace an address to the principal, and his inaugural reply. Probably the Affiliated Societies of the University will also present congratulatory addresses, and perhaps there will be two or three short speeches. The installation will be by tickets, which can be procured for the taking of them at the bookstores, where they will be left for disposition. The "little boys" will be kindly omitted, and those who have a propensity for making an unnecessary noise. THE OIL REFINERY.—We understand that Messrs. McEwen & Son have received the contract for the construction of one very large iron tank at the Coal Oil Refinery (late Morton's Distillery) for the reception of cargoes of petroleum as they arrive by vessel. The schooner "Fanny Campbell" went at the Refinery Nov. 4. Four additional tanks are to be built upon her docks, which will, of course, largely increase her carrying capacity. LECTURE.—To-morrow evening Rev. Father Leonard will lecture in St. Mary's Cathedral, at 7:30 o'clock, on "St. Vincent de Paul, the Apostle of Charity," and the proceeds are to be devoted to the funds of the Society, bearing the name of the Apostle whose life the reverend speaker will review in detail. The audience should be a large one. There will be an abundance of room. ASSAULT.—This afternoon a young man named William Towers was assaulted by one John Kiebler. The former was engaged in shoveling in the hold of the schooner Bangalore when the latter, without any provocation, smashed a shovel and then struck Towers over the head with the handle, inflicting a severe and painful wound. The police went in pursuit of the assailant.

THE WATER TOWN TIMES reports that Messrs. Fijax and McCanley, of Cape Vincent, have recently engaged in the partridge business. Fijax ordered a couple of dozen birds sent him from Kingston. The consigner could obtain but seventeen, which, owing to the fact that he could not remember the difficult name of the consigner, were sent to Mr. McCanley. When the partridges arrived at the residence of his Canadian friends, it is supposed that some of them had sent him a fine string of birds, and as there were more of them than his small family could possibly dispose of, he proceeded to distribute the rest among his many friends, who were very much pleased to receive them. It was long after that the real owner of the game discovered where his property had gone, but it was too late. Those partridges had been placed by their fortunate possessors where they would do the most good, and now Fijax is disconsolate, while the recipients of Mac's gift are anxiously awaiting another distribution of those splendid birds. MAIL ROBBERY.—On the 29th Oct. last three registered letters were despatched in the mail passing from Adolphustown to Kingston. On the way down the carrier in charge removed the fastenings of the bag and stole the three letters, which he rifled of their contents—some $40—and then threw the letters on the road. The letters were addressed respectively to: E. J. Mason, Hamilton, A. Hay, Cedar Lake, Robert George, Toronto. On the evening of the 31st Oct. Charles Aylsworth, the accused, went to a dance at a tavern on the Batavia road with three companions. He hired a rig at Mr. Rigby's to take him there, and paid for it with a $20 bill, one of the stolen notes. The case was first reported to Mr. R. W. Barker, Post Office Inspector, late in the evening of the 22nd inst., who followed the case successfully. He sent Detective Hagarty out to Pellyville last evening to bring Aylsworth in, which he did this morning, and Aylsworth, finding the weight of evidence so strong against him, confessed to the crime, and was arrested and locked up. The shortest punishment which can be inflicted for this offence is two years. SUGGESTIONS.—A correspondent writes: Will you permit me, on Thanksgiving day, to suggest to the Governors of the Hospital that if they could set apart a ward for incurables, where an occasional visit from a physician would not be at all required, except quiet and wholesome food, it would be a very great boon, and one which the benevolent public would surely support. It would cost but a few cents, and it would be a great benefit to the incurables. And if the Governors of the House of Industry could make arrangements by which the incurables and aged could be separated from those of quite an opposite class, it would be an act of humanity which would extend much farther. And while I am writing I would like to say: If our great cities could be freed from noisy youths who are debasing one another by dissipated evening, there would be a third cause of thanksgiving.

THE WATER TOWN TIMES reports that Messrs. Fijax and McCanley, of Cape Vincent, have recently engaged in the partridge business. Fijax ordered a couple of dozen birds sent him from Kingston. The consigner could obtain but seventeen, which, owing to the fact that he could not remember the difficult name of the consigner, were sent to Mr. McCanley. When the partridges arrived at the residence of his Canadian friends, it is supposed that some of them had sent him a fine string of birds, and as there were more of them than his small family could possibly dispose of, he proceeded to distribute the rest among his many friends, who were very much pleased to receive them. It was long after that the real owner of the game discovered where his property had gone, but it was too late. Those partridges had been placed by their fortunate possessors where they would do the most good, and now Fijax is disconsolate, while the recipients of Mac's gift are anxiously awaiting another distribution of those splendid birds. MAIL ROBBERY.—On the 29th Oct. last three registered letters were despatched in the mail passing from Adolphustown to Kingston. On the way down the carrier in charge removed the fastenings of the bag and stole the three letters, which he rifled of their contents—some $40—and then threw the letters on the road. The letters were addressed respectively to: E. J. Mason, Hamilton, A. Hay, Cedar Lake, Robert George, Toronto. On the evening of the 31st Oct. Charles Aylsworth, the accused, went to a dance at a tavern on the Batavia road with three companions. He hired a rig at Mr. Rigby's to take him there, and paid for it with a $20 bill, one of the stolen notes. The case was first reported to Mr. R. W. Barker, Post Office Inspector, late in the evening of the 22nd inst., who followed the case successfully. He sent Detective Hagarty out to Pellyville last evening to bring Aylsworth in, which he did this morning, and Aylsworth, finding the weight of evidence so strong against him, confessed to the crime, and was arrested and locked up. The shortest punishment which can be inflicted for this offence is two years. SUGGESTIONS.—A correspondent writes: Will you permit me, on Thanksgiving day, to suggest to the Governors of the Hospital that if they could set apart a ward for incurables, where an occasional visit from a physician would not be at all required, except quiet and wholesome food, it would be a very great boon, and one which the benevolent public would surely support. It would cost but a few cents, and it would be a great benefit to the incurables. And if the Governors of the House of Industry could make arrangements by which the incurables and aged could be separated from those of quite an opposite class, it would be an act of humanity which would extend much farther. And while I am writing I would like to say: If our great cities could be freed from noisy youths who are debasing one another by dissipated evening, there would be a third cause of thanksgiving.
