PHOSFOZONE!
The New Nervine Tonic.

Brain work and mental excitement are now the rule, and we must respond to their demands or die. To supply this demand PHOSFOZONE is brought before the public. It is Brain Food, Nerve Tonic all in one and acts specially on the nerves and through the blood, and if we keep these two nerve tiring, always acting portions of our frames in a healthy state, we fortify the whole body against an army of diseases. Last, though not of least importance to many, it is a pleasant medicine, agreeable to the taste, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach. Sold by all Druggists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the country. Sold by all druggists and prepared in the Laboratory of the proprietors, Nos 41 and 43 St. Jean Baptiste St., Montreal.

REST.

Of all the sweet, sad words of life,
Whose every sound is blest,
The one most like a benison,
Is that sweet love-word, rest.
We grow so weary on life's road,
Climbing its heights so steep,
That it will blessed seem to sink
The shadow-land of sleep.

E'en that sweet valley of the world,
The happy land of love,
When we have walked awhile therein
Doth full of sadness prove;
And many souls pass from the vail,
Crying with hearts oppressed,
The saddest thing of life is love,
The sweetest thing is rest.

The fairest spots along life's road
Are where low willows weep,
And the one place for smiles should be
Where our beloved sleep.
Ah, friends! of all the boons we crave,
Few make us truly blest;
The best of all He gives unasked
In His own time—His rest.

STANLEY AT CAPE TOWN.

How the Great Explorer Looked.

(From the Cape Town Times.)

Simon's Town, Oct. 22, 1877.

Mr. Stanley has much to do, and he will not be at ease until the faithful men who have stood by him have been comfortably shipped back to Zanzibar. These men are devoted to him, and look so well as to give South African travel the credit of being a glorious trip for health. I suppose you want to know what Stanley looks like. Think of Sir Garnet Wolseley and you catch an idea of the man. Stanley is bronzed as Sir Garnet is, the figure about the same height, and there is a muscular lithesomeness about the build and an active step which remind one very much of the successful African warrior and statesman. I am agreeably surprised in Stanley, and am staggered at the descriptions which some English papers gave of him. He looks a soldier, and the terrible strain of travel has silvered his hair, but not hurt his physique. I asked him if he had suffered much. He replied: "My hair was as dark as yours, and my hair alone tells now what I have gone through." I take the liberty of thinking that his pen will yet give us more information, but I am certain that when he writes the history of this gallant exploit it will be as modest as he is. It is almost difficult to believe that the grave-voiced, gentle-mannered man is the Stanley whose dreadful daring wars in Africa have been so much exaggerated as his real presence has been too often maligned by jealous newspaper writers in England. Mr. Stanley tells me that the Portuguese treated him as if he were a prince. From the Congo he was conveyed in a Portuguese man-of-war the Tarmega, to St. Paul de Loanda. At the latter place he remained for six weeks, and he and his people were treated right royally. Capt. Purvis, of the Industry, capped what the Portuguese had done, and the run down in the Industry is spoken of as delightful by all who shared in it. The Commodore monopolizes Mr. Stanley to-morrow. Cape Town will be visited on Wednesday, and Government House will probably entertain the traveller at luncheon that day. It is pleasing to remember that when Mr. Stanley sent to England his announcement of the discovery of Livingstone one of the first who pinned his belief to Mr. Stanley's story was Sir Bartle Frere.

WRONG CONVICTIONS. — Unpleasant facts continually transpire pointing to the conclusion that numbers of innocent men are annually convicted. An extraordinary case, which has lasted two days, has just concluded at Manchester. At the Ang. Assizes, held in Liverpool, three men were convicted and sentenced to ten years' penal servitude for a shocking outrage said to have been committed upon a married woman named Blackburn, at Clivigar, near Burnley. The conviction of the men aroused strong feeling in Burnley, and a petition, supported by affidavits, was sent to the Home Secretary, alleging the innocence of the convicts, and praying for an enquiry. This has been held, and has resulted in establishing the complete innocence of the men, who will be immediately released. They have been in prison a year. The Echo says compensation ought to be given in such cases.

Cut this Out.
IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.—There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderous cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggists, Heath & Gunn, or Wade & Cornell, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.

DR. GILES. I have been exceedingly successful in using your Liniment in my practice; particularly in cases of paralysis it has worked wonders. I have seen those who have not been able to walk for years, recover the use of their limbs, and one gentleman in particular, who had lost the entire use of one side, and had visited Europe and the hot springs in Arkansas without benefit, after having your Liniment applied, was restored and able to resume his usual avocations. You have a great field before you, and may you go on and prosper, for you certainly have benefited mankind by your valuable discovery. Yours, J. L. ALLAN, Electric and Magnetic Manipulator, 4194 6th Avenue, N. Y.

After war, pestilence and intemperance—colds lead to the greatest destruction of human life, mainly because it is considered by many to be of no consequence and hence systematically neglected, until a simple, curable disease is converted into a fatal pulmonary one. Every one troubled with what is called a slight cold or cough, should immediately use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers—they allay irritation at once and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25c per box.

ELECTRICITY! THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL!—WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures a common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes "Send me six dozen Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful. Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now."
