BROUCHT TO TIME.

The irresponsible despot, who must have fancied himself upon a Bourben throne in France, has at length been brought to bay. His oft-vaunted determination never to recede an inch from his untenable position as the stubborn opponent of the nation's will and progress, has had to be abandoned. Prior to the late elections (lambetta told the people that the Marshal President would have to come down from his high horse to something like Constitutional Government or else resign. For this perfectly constitutional statement of one of the very ax ioms of popular Government the young Tribune was put upon his trial and sentenced to imprisonment. Commenting on Principal Grant's address, the Globe says : "The address is fresh and healthy throughout, and is characterised by good sense and good taste. It is quite possible that not a few may disagree with some of its positions, but we can scarcely think that any will object to the spirit by which the whole is animated.
