would like to take you. What do you think, Gertrude? Could you be contented to leave your friends and live at Rose Cottage with me?'

My amazement allowed me to stammer nothing intelligible. In some distinct way I temporized the matter, and begged Mr. Redmond to give me time for reflection.

He went away, making an appointment for the next evening.

So thunderstruck was I by the revelation of Mr. Redmond's wealth, that I wandered about the house in a dazed way, not heeding how mamma was fretting about Patricia, who had gone to ride with Mr. Sherrington.

'What is the matter, mamma? Is it going to storm?' I said, at last.

'To storm! Nonsense! Where are your eyes, Gertrude? But it is nearly 9 o'clock. Patricia has been gone seven hours with Mr. Sherrington, and I know something is wrong.'

'What!' I demanded, arousing myself.

'I don't know.'

Nine, 10, 11, and 12 o'clock passed. No carriage—no news.

At noon next day the buggy drove into the yard. Patricia and Clyde Sherrington alighted. Patricia coolly presented her husband. They had been married the evening before, by our pastor at Lowbridge.

'So nice and quiet,' said Patricia. 'No fuss, no notoriety.'

She took her place coolly at the table.

'You needn't hesitate to take Gage now, Gertrude he's dead in love with you, and as I like Clyde best, I thought I'd decide the matter without any complications.'

I think I was dumbfounded. But I found my tongue when Mr. Redmond came that evening, and said 'Yes.'

I give my experience for the benefit of others. It is dangerous loaning one's lover.

Parisian Scandal.

The gossip from Paris, says a correspondent of the New York Times, is a curious mixture of scandal and politics. They say the Rothschilds prompted MacMahon to fight, and found the money for the election; and that Lord Baconsfield took the trouble to express sympathy with the President. Now, however, it is said the barons of finance and the English Premier advise MacMahon to resign. Grevy, they say, cannot accept the Presidency because he is separated from his wife. An official effort at reconciliation has been made without avail. There is another lady whom they call Mme. Grevy, but French society declines to receive her, and the President must have a lady to preside over his parties. A sister or a daughter might get over the difficulty. Admiral Pothuan is now the most likely candidate for the Presidential chair. The popular idea that women have not sufficient power in these days is a curious fiction. The Empress of the French made and ruined imperialism. The Empress of Russia precipitated the Russo-Turkish war. La Marechale MacMahon is the cause of the present troubles in France. The Duchess of Salisbury did a lot of mischief at Constantinople during the conference; the Countess of Waldegrave leads Whig society in England; the plot against the Sultan Mahmoud was hatched in his own harem, and the Sultana is the chief conspirator; in short, what great event ever occurs that woman is not at the bottom of it? Of how much sympathy and goodness she is capable, history, however, teems with examples.

"P. W.—POISON."

Women can't read a boy's nature as men can, and they might as well own it up. The Perth street mother who yesterday sent her boy to a drug store with a bottle and a sealed note imagined that she was sharper than the serpent's tooth when she wrote to the druggist: "Send me half a pint of port wine, and write on the label 'P. W.—Poison.'" The druggist followed orders, and when the boy got outside he tore off the wrapper and read the label:

"P. W.—Poison," has mused, as he walked along—"wonder what that is!—P. W. doesn't stand for bed bugs, and I know it, and it doesn't mean rats, either, P. W. can't be hair-dye nor scalp-wash, and I'm going to touch my tongue to it.

He touched. It tasted so good that he took a sip, and meeting three or four boys just then, the crowd entered a lumber yard and P. W.'d the contents of the bottle until only a gill was left. Then one of the lads ran home after a dipper of water, filled up the bottle, and the Perth street boy trotted homeward, whispering:

'P. W. means purty weak, and if she finds it so she mustn't blame nobody only the druggist.'

For Severe Coughs and Hoarseness

Philadelphia, Jan. 1, 1876.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Sons:

Gentlemen—Miss S. Burns, of 17th and Coates streets, has long been a sufferer from a severe cough and hoarseness, which I considered chronic. She was treated by some of our most eminent physicians, but they were only able to afford her temporary relief. I prescribed Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, the use of four bottles of which entirely cured her, as it is now four months since she took the last of it, during which time she has had no return of the complaint. For the good of suffering humanity, Miss Burns has requested me to lay the case before the public. Yours truly.

T. D. McGrath, M. D., Druggist and Chemist, S. E. cor. 7th and Wharton streets.

50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

A Question.—Why will people keep four or five ill-looking sickly horses to do the work that one good horse may perform? If the horse has the heaves, is broken winded, has a cough or cold, or his wind in anyway affected; if his appetite is bad, or his digestive organs, deranged, has a rough skin or is his hide bound, we would in all cases recommend the use of Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy—it never fails to benefit and almost always removes the disease; it is free from anything that can injure and may be used at all times with safety. Try it and you will be satisfied. Remember and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Electricity! Thomas' Eclectric Electric Oil!—Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold.—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes, "Send me six dozen Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful. Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Eclectric Oil, I am nearly out, nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes, "Send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes, "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reid, Ulverton, P.Q., writes, "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay."

Beware of Imitations—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown on the bottle and TAKE NO OTHER. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price, 25 cents. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for the Dominion.

Note—Eclectric—Selected and Electrized.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. The great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

☞ After war, pestilence and intemperance—colds lead to the greatest destruction of human life, mainly because it is considered by many to be of no consequence and hence systematically neglected, until a simple, curable disease is converted into a fatal pulmonary one. Every one troubled with what is called a slight cold or cough, should immediately use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers—they allay irritation at once and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25c per box.

BLOOD IS LIFE!

The Great Shoshonees Remedy.

An Indian vegetable compound, of the juices of a variety of most remarkable Medicinal plants and herbs, the various properties of which exert their healing influences on different ingredients systematically compounded, is so constituted as to act simultaneously upon the Blood, the Nervous System, Lungs, Liver, Digestive Organs, Kidneys and other parts of the body, restoring their functions to healthy action, in a manner heretofore unequalled, and being purely vegetable, is as harmless as nature's own beverage.

THE SHOSHONEES PILLS

Are manufactured with the strictest and most rigid scrutiny, care and exactness, from such of the very choicest and most refined Vegetable Regulating Laxatives, &c., as are perfectly compatible with every ingredient entering into the consumption of the Great Shoshonees Remedy, and are the only Laxatives, compounded with the view of meeting in harmony the exigencies of the Remedy. These great Medicines are perfect invigorators and renovators of the system and decidedly beneficial in all, and permanently cures a very large majority of diseases arising from impurities of the blood such as Scrofula in all and each of its varied forms, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker, Scald Head, Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, Ulcers, old sores, disease of the liver and kidneys, dyspepsia, bronchitis, rheumatism, neuralgia, pains in the sides and shoulders, costiveness, headache of all kinds, Female weakness pains in the back, and above all for that "all gone" feeling so prevalent to those of sedentary habits and general languor and debility from whatever cause, either from undue exposure, over taxation of the bodily or mental powers, neglected colds, and even to the last stage of consumption itself. Price of the Remedy in large bottles $1; Pills 25c per box. Prepared by J. C. Chamberlain, Conway, Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, General Agents.

CARD.

The undersigned in thanking their numerous friends and customers for past favors already received, would remind them that they are still in the old stand better prepared than ever to execute all orders in their line, having entered into a new business of supplying engines and boilers to grist mills which can only run part of the year by water. We hope to merit a portion of the trade in the above departments. Engines, boilers, and all kinds of machinery repaired upon the shortest notice.

N.B.—Having a portable engine and sawing machine, we are prepared to saw cordwood in quantities of ten cords or more. All orders left at our shop on Queen Street promptly attended to.
