

VEGETINE

WILL CURE RHEUMATISM!

Mr. ALBERT CROOKER, the well-known druggist and apothecary of Springvale, Ms., always advises everyone troubled with Rheumatism to try VEGETINE.

READ HIS STATEMENT:

Sprague, Ms., Oct. 12, 1876.

Dear Sir.—Fifteen years ago last fall I was taken sick with rheumatism, was unable to move my limbs for three months. I was then advised to go to the sea, which I did, and everything was right again. Over three years ago I began taking VEGETINE, and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have since used it every year, and now advise everyone that is troubled with rheumatism to TRY VEGETINE, and not suffer for years as I have done. This statement is made as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned. Yours etc,

VEGETINE

HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME.

Boston, Oct. 1876.

Dear Sir.—My daughter, after having a severe attack of Whooping Cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend to take the Vegetine, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health.

I have had a great relief from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the Vegetine, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the Vegetine to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take and I can thoroughly recommend it.

JAMES MORSE,
34 Athens St.

Rheumatism is a Disease of the Blood.

The blood in this disease is found to contain an excess of serum. Vegetine acts like a coagulant, and the fibrin thus formed contributes to the healthy circulation. Vegetine regulates the bowels which is very important in this complaint.

One bottle of Vegetine will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure it must be taken daily.

RUNAWAY.—A team of horses ran away this morning, making a fearful race along King Street. The wagon was wrecked. Its demolition was both speedy and complete.

We are reminded of the old proverb, "A green Christmas makes a full graveyard." We haven't much regard for such sayings.

A number of serenade parties are going out this evening to sing carols, and entertain and compliment their friends.

Satin is now the rage. It went out of fashion in England twenty-eight years ago, when Mrs. Manning, a celebrated courtesan, at one time lady maid to the late Duchess of Sutherland, was lung in a black satin dress.

MAJOR MALLAN.

Yesterday morning Major Mallan, an evangelist, occupied the pulpit of Chancery Church, and took as his text 1st Peter, 1, 12, and 13th verse, from which he preached a very plain and yet practical discourse, dwelling on many points in the text which seemed to have more significance than the rest, and simplifying and explaining any words or phrases, the meaning of which could not be distinctly seen upon the face of it. He also took occasion to make a remark or two upon the signs of the times as a partial fulfillment of the prophecies of Daniel, and gave it as his opinion that the end spoken of in the prophets (not by any means the end of the world) but the end of this age, as he termed it, was near at hand.

In the evening the Major addressed the V. M. C. evangelistic service in the City Hall, which was crowded to the utmost extent. He seems to have travelled very extensively while an officer in Her Majesty's service, and since, and this experience he turns to good account. He is not sensational in his preaching, but very earnest and interesting.

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will be declared that will last just fifty-three years, and usher in the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he announces, will be one of all true Christians against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant, he imagines, has been specially trained to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton Times says: In the first place, General Grant's career as President does not suggest him as being quite fitted to lead true Christians in any affair. Next, if we are to have a general war of fifty-three years before the dawn of the millennium, it may be doubted if there will be many people left on this earth to enjoy it.

COMPLIMENT.—Five daughters of Mr. Woodard, of Wellington street, provide over schools in Kingston and the neighboring townships, and each of the five Saturday, received a present from the pupils under her care. As these presents have not at this Christmas season been general, the compliment implied is no small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The arrest the other day has not been instrumental in stopping the pilfering and thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday fresh robberies were reported, and the offenders are as little known as the resident of the planet Jupiter. When is this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will be declared that will last just fifty-three years, and usher in the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he announces, will be one of all true Christians against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant, he imagines, has been specially trained to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton Times says: In the first place, General Grant's career as President does not suggest him as being quite fitted to lead true Christians in any affair. Next, if we are to have a general war of fifty-three years before the dawn of the millennium, it may be doubted if there will be many people left on this earth to enjoy it.

The HANGING OF VAN DYKE. The convicted murderer Van Dyke was hanged on Friday at Cayuga, N. Y. A more impudent scamp never went to the gallows. Mr. Adust, of the Watertown Times, reports the following incidents during his stay in prison: The execution commenced at 2 p.m. Mr. R. M. Horsey, Chairman of the School, Mr. A. McLean, agent, P. S. Trustee, and a number of visitors, were present. The scholars of Mr. McLean's department were examined in arithmetic, spelling, reading, grammar and geography, and prizes were presented to Nelson Raymond and John Edith. The school will be held at the rate of $1.00 per month, and will be available to the students of the College.

Van Dyke never was in better spirits.

PROVISIONS.—And everything else to be found in a first-class Grocery Store. We do a large amount of all kinds of goods and say they are new. You will find everything as we represent them, first class and lower than any house in the city.

J. Y. PARKHILL,
Grocer, Wine and Spirit Merchant
Dec. 15, 1877.

TO ALL THE GENTRY OF KINGSTON!

THOSE WHO HAVE SECOND HAND CLOTHING TO DISPOSE OF WILL please leave their orders with WILLIAM DAVID, who will attend with
THE CARE.

WILLIAM DAVID,
DEALER IN
New and Second Hand Goods
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
Opposite Mrs. Burgess' Fancy Goods Store
PRINCESS STREET KINGSTON.

CHEAP JOHN
FOR SALE.

ON the South-west quarter of Lot 24, in the 5th Concession of the Township of Kingston, stands two Dwelling Houses, one upper, one lower, and a Barn and a Garage, an Orchard, in good condition, with fruit trees. There is one new Barn, lately built, size 60x48, the best in the Township. This valuable Property is situated on Princess Street, just north of Kingstone. The property can be purchased by paying one third down. For further particulars as to terms or otherwise, apply to

WM. DAVID Owner
The Cheap Broker, Princess Street.

For Sale or To Let, A DESIRABLE RESIDENCE on one of the finest streets in the city. Apply at the Ward Office.
Dec. 17, 1877.

FOR SALE,
A GOOD BUSH FARM, containing about one hundred and twenty acres. There is a new Frame Dwelling thereon. For terms apply to the owner.

WILLIAM DAVID,
The Cheap Broker, Princess St., Kingston.

Wanted,
A TEACHER FOR Union School Section No
3, St. George's. Apply to the Trustees—John McDonald, John McNeely, Geo. Gibson.
Dec. 18, 1877.

Civic Elections,

FOR MAYOR.

Aldeerman C. F. Gildersleeve, John McIntyre.
FOR ALDERMEN.

Caledonia Ward—T. W. McCrae.
Frontenac Ward—A. McNaughy, J. B.
Port Hope, Owen Tierney, E. J. B.
Penas, J. H. Metcalfe.
Ottario Ward—L. Clements.

The Daily British Whig.

MONDAY EVENING, DEC. 24, 1877.

CITY AND VICINITY

GOLD IN NEW YORK AT 3 o'clock 1621

For the Cheapest Clothing in the city go to the following: 1. go to LAWRENCE'S, Wellington Street, I am now selling Overcoats and Pea Jackets AT COST.

Don't forget that Hutcheson sells again tonight.

RIDGEOUT sells Select Oysters at 60 cents per quart, Imperial measure, through the hotel. They are generally sold at 75 80 cents per quart.

RUNAWAY.—A team of horses ran away this morning, making a fearful race along King Street. The wagon was wrecked.
Its demolition was both speedy and complete.

EDUCATIONAL.—The next regular meeting of the Educational Society for Eastern Ontario will be held at Brockville, commencing on Wednesday. The proceedings will be of the most interesting nature.

GREETINGS.—A large number of citizens have returned home for the Christmas holidays. At no time in the year are so many friends brought together, and no season is attended by so much rejoicing and jubilation. The exchange of sentiment is very free.

APPREHENSIVE.—The Chicago Advertiser announced a few days ago that a Henry Beach, of Kingston, had fallen from a bridge at Ottawa, Illinois, and been drowned. It is believed the murderer is to one of the brothers of that name who resided on Barrie street.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Thomas Holland, Jr., of the Gore of Pittsburg, fainted while harnessing one of the horses of the farm on Thursday last, and while lying on the floor of the stable the horse tramped on his head. For two days he lay in an unconscious state, but is now rallying fast under Dr. Sullivan's care. His face is dreadfully smashed.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The arrest the other day has not been instrumental in stopping the pilfering and thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday fresh robberies were reported, and the offenders are as little known as the resident of the planet Jupiter. When is this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will last just fifty-three years, and usher in the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he announces, will be one of all true Christians against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant, he imagines, has been specially trained to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton Times says: In the first place, General Grant's career as President does not suggest him as being quite fitted to lead true Christians in any affair. Next, if we are to have a general war of fifty-three years before the dawn of the millennium, it may be doubted if there will be many people left on this earth to enjoy it.

Compliment.—Five daughters of Mr.
Woodard, of Wellington street, provide over schools in Kingston and the neighboring townships, and each of the five Saturday, received a present from the pupils under her care. As these presents have not at this Christmas season been general, the compliment implied is no small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The
arrest the other day has not been instru-
mental in stopping the pilfering and
thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday
fresh robberies were reported, and the
offenders are as little known as the
resident of the planet Jupiter. When is
this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly
of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered
the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will
last just fifty-three years, and usher in
the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he
announces, will be one of all true Christians
against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild
to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant,
he imagines, has been specially trained
to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton
Times says: In the first place, General
Grant's career as President does not
suggest him as being quite fitted to
lead true Christians in any affair. Next,
if we are to have a general war of
fifty-three years before the dawn of the
millennium, it may be doubted if there
will be many people left on this earth to
enjoy it.

Compliment.—Five daughters of Mr.
Woodard, of Wellington street, provide
over schools in Kingston and the
neighboring townships, and each of the
five Saturday, received a present from the
pupils under her care. As these presents
have not at this Christmas season been
general, the compliment implied is no
small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The
arrest the other day has not been instru-
mental in stopping the pilfering and
thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday
fresh robberies were reported, and the
offenders are as little known as the
resident of the planet Jupiter. When is
this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly
of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered
the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will
last just fifty-three years, and usher in
the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he
announces, will be one of all true Christians
against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild
to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant,
he imagines, has been specially trained
to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton
Times says: In the first place, General
Grant's career as President does not
suggest him as being quite fitted to
lead true Christians in any affair. Next,
if we are to have a general war of
fifty-three years before the dawn of the
millennium, it may be doubted if there
will be many people left on this earth to
enjoy it.

Compliment.—Five daughters of Mr.
Woodard, of Wellington street, provide
over schools in Kingston and the
neighboring townships, and each of the
five Saturday, received a present from the
pupils under her care. As these presents
have not at this Christmas season been
general, the compliment implied is no
small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The
arrest the other day has not been instru-
mental in stopping the pilfering and
thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday
fresh robberies were reported, and the
offenders are as little known as the
resident of the planet Jupiter. When is
this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly
of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered
the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will
last just fifty-three years, and usher in
the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he
announces, will be one of all true Christians
against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild
to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant,
he imagines, has been specially trained
to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton
Times says: In the first place, General
Grant's career as President does not
suggest him as being quite fitted to
lead true Christians in any affair. Next,
if we are to have a general war of
fifty-three years before the dawn of the
millennium, it may be doubted if there
will be many people left on this earth to
enjoy it.

Compliment.—Five daughters of Mr.
Woodard, of Wellington street, provide
over schools in Kingston and the
neighboring townships, and each of the
five Saturday, received a present from the
pupils under her care. As these presents
have not at this Christmas season been
general, the compliment implied is no
small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The
arrest the other day has not been instru-
mental in stopping the pilfering and
thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday
fresh robberies were reported, and the
offenders are as little known as the
resident of the planet Jupiter. When is
this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly
of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will
last just fifty-three years, and usher in
the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he
announces, will be one of all true Christians
against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild
to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant,
he imagines, has been specially trained
to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton
Times says: In the first place, General
Grant's career as President does not
suggest him as being quite fitted to
lead true Christians in any affair. Next,
if we are to have a general war of
fifty-three years before the dawn of the
millennium, it may be doubted if there
will be many people left on this earth to
enjoy it.

Compliment.—Five daughters of Mr.
Woodard, of Wellington street, provide
over schools in Kingston and the
neighboring townships, and each of the
five Saturday, received a present from the
pupils under her care. As these presents
have not at this Christmas season been
general, the compliment implied is no
small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The
arrest the other day has not been instru-
mental in stopping the pilfering and
thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday
fresh robberies were reported, and the
offenders are as little known as the
resident of the planet Jupiter. When is
this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly
of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will
last just fifty-three years, and usher in
the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he
announces, will be one of all true Christians
against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild
to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant,
he imagines, has been specially trained
to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton
Times says: In the first place, General
Grant's career as President does not
suggest him as being quite fitted to
lead true Christians in any affair. Next,
if we are to have a general war of
fifty-three years before the dawn of the
millennium, it may be doubted if there
will be many people left on this earth to
enjoy it.

Compliment.—Five daughters of Mr.
Woodard, of Wellington street, provide
over schools in Kingston and the
neighboring townships, and each of the
five Saturday, received a present from the
pupils under her care. As these presents
have not at this Christmas season been
general, the compliment implied is no
small one.

PICKETTING.—Still it goes on. The
arrest the other day has not been instru-
mental in stopping the pilfering and
thieving which has been going on for a long time on the market. On Saturday
fresh robberies were reported, and the
offenders are as little known as the
resident of the planet Jupiter. When is
this thing likely to be stopped?

More PROPHETIC.—Dr. Wild, formerly
of Belleville, now of Brooklyn, has entered the prophetic business. He has come to the conclusion that in 1882 a war will
last just fifty-three years, and usher in
the dawn of the Millennium. This war, he
announces, will be one of all true Christians
against Anti Christ (supposed by Dr. Wild
to be a Russian Czar), and General Grant,
he imagines, has been specially trained
to lead the Christian forces. The Hamilton
Times says: In the first place, General