ANOTHER LETTER FROM DR. RYER

To the Editor of the British Whig.]

To Mr. Recorder O'Reilly's letter of three columns in the British Whig of the instant, I desire to make a reply of three paragraphs.

1. Mr. O'Reilly made a speech at Kingston to prove that the Separate School Act it repealed, (namely, the Separate School Act of 1855), and was, therefore, " a sham statement was untrue, absolutely and relatively. In justification of his statements, he now says to the length of nearly two columns, that the Separate School Act 1863 is not as liberal as the Separate School altogether the Separate School Act of 1855, which was in operation until the passing of Mr. Scott's Bill of 1863, prepared, not by THE CANADA FARMER for March 15. direction of the authorities of the Roman Journal or Agriculture for March.
